Omnipotent

Somebody listens to every prayer,
When you are ill and burdened with care,
When your soul is bent with its weight of woe,
Tell it to Someone who loves you so.
Someone will tell you that He understands,
He'll hold your heart in His gentle hands,
Just like a child when the father's near,
With God at your side, there's nothing to fear.
When days are long and nights have no end,
When things go wrong
There's always one friend.
Just lift your eyes and you'll see Him there.
With His gentle smile
As He hears your prayer.

The Obituary

Mr. James Earl "Wimpy" Burnette son of the late Harry and Edna Burnette was born September 11, 1942 in Chatham County. He departed this life on November 19, 2001 at N.C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

"Wimpy" was a graduate of Chatham High School, Class of 1960. He was a truly gifted artist and loved to draw. His abilities and love of art have been passed on to several of his family members.

He became a member of Lambert's Chapel at an early age and remained a member until death.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Bo Burnette.

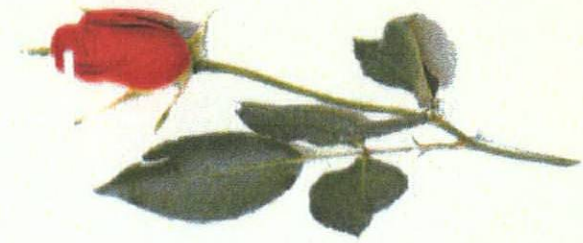

He leaves to mourn his loss and cherish his memory: four sisters, Rosa Mae Marsh (Homer), Annie Ruth Burnette, Betty Marie Paschal (Richard), and Margaret Edna Moffitt; one brother, Thomas Marion Burnette, all of Siler City, NC; two aunts, twenty seven nieces and nephews, thirty-nine great nieces and nephews, twenty great great nieces and nephews, and many cousins and friends. A special nephew Donnell Marsh and a special friend.

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. " 2 Timothy 4:6-8
