

Floral Bearers

Casket Bearers

Friends of Family

Deacons & Trustees
Children's Chapel UCC

Acknowledgements

It was because of your prayers, your calls, your cards, your visits and your gifts that we have been sustained during the illness and death of our loved one. May you receive the abundance of God's blessings for sharing with us all your acts of kindness.

The Family

Professional Service Entrusted To:

David B. Lawson Mortuary, Inc.

P.O. Box 825 - 115 E. Harden Street
Graham, North Carolina 27253
Phone: (336) 229-7373

"The Hallmark of Funeral Service"

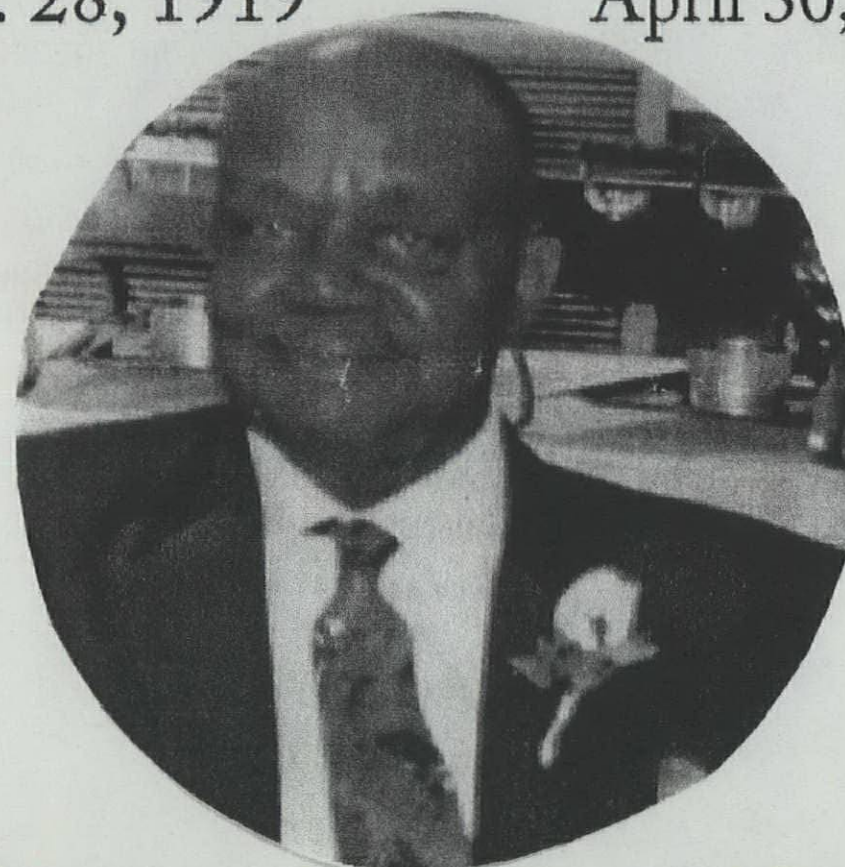

Celebration of the Life Of Mr. Thomas Edward Rogers

God Gave

Sept. 28, 1919

God Taketh

April 30, 2003

Children's Chapel UCC
Rev. Rodney Foxx, Pastor and Eulogist
Rev. Alan Warren, Officiating
Monday, May 5, 2003

"The clock of life is wounded but once and no man has power to tell just when the hands will stop."

The Life of "Tom"

Precious memories ill linger in the mind and heart forever
Following the death of Tom.

A time to be Born: one of 8 children, Tom was born to the late Eddie and Bessie Rogers on Sept. 28, 1919. A brother, Leroy Rogers and a sister, Sylvia Adelle Winston preceded him in death.

A time to Plant: In 1941, Tom married Sarah Scurlock of Chatham County and moved with his bride to Graham to become one with her for 61 years. For 3 years, Tom served in World War 2 for the United States Army and reunited with his Wife in Graham, NC until his death.

A time to Die: On May 1, 2003 the work assignment of Tom ended due to a brief illness at the Veteran Hospital in Durham, NC.

A time to Mourn: His devoted wife Sarah Rogers of the home, 3 daughters, Mrs. Pauling Harvey of Graham, NC. Mrs. Raven Alston of Mebane, NC. Miss Brandy Walker of Graham, NC. Six grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Poole and Mrs. Katie Ruth McDonald both of Brooklyn, NY. Two brothers, Andy David Rogers of Burlington, NC, Willard Rogers of Mebane, NC. A host of nieces, nephews, and in-laws.

*Heavenly Home
It happened all of a sudden
And so very quick,
The final piece of life's puzzle
Has now come to fit.
Don't be discouraged
Or sad that I'm gone,
Know in your heart
I'm in my new home.
God makes no mistakes
In the decisions that he makes,
My life on earth
He had to take ~~~ The Family*

Family Visitation 2:00 PM --- 3:00PM

The Order of Service

Processional.....Please Stand

Opening Selection..... The Choir
Hold to God's Unchanging Hands

Scripture Reading

The Old Testament

The New Testament

Invocation

Solo.....George Scurlock

Obituary Reading

Remarks

Solo.....Rev. Rodney Foxx

Eulogy.....Rev. Rodney Foxx

Selection.....Paul Hunter / Choir
No Tears In Heaven

Recessional..... (Please Stand)

The Committal Service and Interment:
Church Cemetery, Children's Chapel UCC
