Obituary

Evangelist Brenda Foxx Currie was called from labor to just reward on Friday, January 19, 2001, at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina. She was born in Chatham County on July 25, 1948, to Robert and Mary Foxx.

She was educated at Chatham High School and later received her diploma at CCCC in Sanford, N.C.

Evangelist Currie was a true woman of God who loved praising the Lord no matter where she went. She accepted Christ at a very early age and kept the faith to the end. She was a member of twenty five years at Unity Powerhouse Holiness Church where she held the following positions: President of the U.Y.P.H.U of the United Holy Church of God, Inc. Assistant Pastor Unity Powerhouse Holiness Church, Member of the Gospel Choir, Usher Board, Pastor Aide, Ministerial Alliance of Chatham County and a Sunday School teacher.

Evangelist Currie was married to Samuel Coy Currie on June 29, 1968 and to this union four children was born.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband of 32 years, Reverend Samuel C. Currie, two daughters, Beverly Foxx of the home and Rhonda Currie of Greensboro, N.C., two sons Stacy and Timothy Currie of the home, and three grandchildren, Nichelle and Jalessa Foxx of the home, and Isaiah Patton of Siler City, N.C. Her parents Robert and Mary Foxx of Siler City, N.C. five sisters, Mary Rodgers, Sarah Foxx, Teresa Foxx all of Siler City, N.C., Denise Foxx of Randleman, N.C. and Evangelist Judy Hines of Savannah, GA. three brothers Dennis and Ralph Foxx of Siler City, N.C. and Clyde (Cynthia) Foxx of Durham, N.C. and Robert Lee Foxx, Jr. who preceded her in death. A special goddaughter, Ashley Johnson of Pittsboro, N.C., three sister-in-laws, Diane (Ike) Alston) Doris Johnson of Siler City, N.C. and Ollie (George) Taylor of Bonlee, N.C. one brother-in-law James (Collette) Williams of Siler City, N.C., and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*Petals from this faded rose mama is all we have to give, but mama we tried to give you your flowers and make you happy while you lived.
Sleep now mama and be at rest,
for although we loved you, we know
God loved you best.
