I Have Peace

*As I walk through the garden, I am not alone.
God gave me a pardon, so I can come home.
My soul has gone on, through those Pearly Gates
So please do not mourn, it is only by faith.
I had a good life, I lived as I should.
I've done what was right, I've always been good.
When you live for the Lord, you will not live in fear.
For Heaven is my reward, from a Man that's so dear.
To my family and friends, try not to grieve for me.
For this is not the end, I am happy. I'm with Thee.
I love all of you, but now I must rest.
I know you love me too, but God loves me best.*

~ Obituary ~

To keep the heart unwrinkled, to be hopeful, kindly, cheerful, reverent that is to triumph over old age.

Amos Bronson Alcott

Mrs. Allene Wall Ingram was the daughter of the late Richard and Eliza Wall and was born on April 2, 1906 in South Carolina.

She was married to the late Isom Ingram. They farmed and bore eight (8) children together. Her husband and four of her children preceded her in death

Her church was near and dear to her heart and during her membership with Pleasant Hill A.M.E. Zion Church in Candor, NC she served eagerly and actively. She served faithfully on the Missionary and Deaconess Boards as long as her health permitted. She also served as president of the Deaconess Board for many years.

Her survivors include:

Four Children

Lucy Stallion (Levi) of Landover, Md.

James R. Ingram (Clariece) of Candor, NC

Louise Ransom of Boston, Mass

Sue Bailey (Rodney) of Eagle Springs, NC
