Obituary

Mrs. Pearlie Womble Marsh, daughter of the late Mr. Will and Mrs. Cora White Womble, was born August 24, 1924 in Moore County. She departed this life on Friday, March 23, 2001 at Chatham Hospital, Siler City, N.C.

Pearlie attended school in Moore County.

Mrs. Marsh retired from her job at Chatham Hospital, Siler City, N.C. several years ago, where she was a dutiful worker.

During Mrs. Marsh's childhood, she was a member of the Reaves Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, in Glendon, N.C. After her marriage she became a member of the Centennial A.M.E. Zion Church, Bear Creek, N.C., where she served as a Deaconess, a very faithful one indeed. She was very active as long as her health allowed her to be so.

Pearlie was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Thomas Marsh and to this union five daughters were born, one of whom preceded them in death.

She leaves to mourn her loss: Four daughters: Mrs. Shirley Hipps (Henry) of Greensboro, NC, Mrs. Golia McKoy (Johnny) of Goldston, NC, Mrs. Theresa Foust (Sam) of Greensboro, NC and Miss Nancy Marsh of the home; one very faithful brother: Mr. Alophonzo Womble (Etta) of Bear Creek, NC; two sisters: Mrs. Blanche Mezeke of Durham, NC and Mrs. Betty Spinks (who was also her foster daughter) of Siler City, NC; six grandchildren: Catina, Nedra, Raychon, Sherard, Yolanda and Cherise; one great granddaughter: Alia Ahmad; two foster grandchildren: Robert Jr. and Tracy; several nieces and nephews sisters & brothers- in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

God's Flower Garden

It's hard to lose the ones we love, To see them pass away,
The sweetest and the kindest gone while others are left to stray !

But if we had a garden with roses fair and bright
We'd often pick the loveliest and think it to be right.

And so it is with Jesus in his earthly garden here;
He often picks the fairest flowers, The ones we love so dear.

The flowers that are picked by Him will never fade away.
We know they'll live forever, and we'll see them some sweet day.
