

If You Could See Me Now

Our prayers have been answered. I finally arrived. The healing that had been delayed, has now been realized. No one's in a hurry, there's no appointments to keep. We're all enjoying Jesus just sitting at His feet. If you could see me now, I'm walking the streets of gold. If you could see me now, you'd know I'd seen His face. If you could see me now, you'd know all pain is erased. You would not want me to ever leave this place, if you could see me now, my life and temporary trials, have worked out for my good. To know it brought Him glory when I misunderstood. Though we've had our sorrows, we can never compare, what Jesus has in store for us no language can share. If you could see me now, you wouldn't want me to ever leave this perfect place. If you could see me now.

It's Hard to Believe

It's hard to believe and hard to accept, but when you believe in the Lord, you know He know best. You were one of a kind, so very unique.

Perhaps we'll meet again at the First Supper Feast.

Love, Maryann

Life Story

Walter Wesley Headen was born on March 7, 1918 in Siler City, NC to Sandy Headen, Sr. and Minnie Beale. He was one of thirteen children, eight proceeded him in death.

Walter was educated in the Chatham County School system. He was raised in a Christian home and attended Corinth AME Zion Church as a child. As an adult he joined Grace United Methodist Church of Philadelphia under the leadership of the late Dr. William Kennedy.

He was employed at Hadley Peoples Manufacturing Company as a chauffeur for Mr. J.C. Gregson.

On October 2, 1937, Walter was united in marriage to the late Allie Moffitt. To this union three children were born; a daughter, Mildred; two sons, Julius Walter and Clarence Wesley. Both sons proceeded him in death.

Walter later relocated to Philadelphia to join his father in the search for better employment. His search was successful as he was employed with Tasty Baking Company as a dough mixer until he retired in 1980.

During World War II, he was inducted into the Armed Services and served in the then Army Air Force and was awarded the Bronze Star, as well as the Victory Medal.

Being in the armed forces ignited Walter's desire to see the world. Traveling was one of his favorite past times. Flying to German, cruising to South America, and the Caribbean Island, or driving to California and Texas. If you said "Let's" Walter said, "Go!". Sports were Walter's other favorite past time. He rooted for the Dallas Cowboys, Los Angeles Dodgers and whatever team Shaq was playing for. He rooted against any and all Philadelphia teams. He also enjoyed horseracing, golf and funny jokes.

He leaves to cherish his memory, a daughter, Mildred Headen Bruce of Philadelphia, PA; four sisters, Claudia Price of Los Angeles, CA, Corina Moffitt, Merciedee Josey (Edward) and Bettye Headen of Washington DC; a devoted companion, Maryann Rose; two daughters-in-law, Paulette Luther of Silver Springs, MD and Lucy Headen of Goldsboro, NC; two sisters-in-law, Wilmer Siler of Siler City, NC and Lucille Hayden of Washington DC; two brothers-in-law, Larry Moffitt (Elizabeth) of Siler City, NC and Edward Josey of Washington DC; one step-son, Denorris Headen of Siler City, NC; eight grandchildren, James, Lauren, Brian, L'oreal, Robert, Samuel, Calvin and Heather; two great-grandchildren, Dawn and Corona; one great-great grandson, Tajuan; as well as of host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
