The Battle Is Over

*I fought a good fight.
I kept the faith
I finished my course
Do not weep for me.
I'm in a better place.
I have traveled over to a place of luxury
Where there's no more pain, but always peace
As much as you love me
God loves me best.
Jane*

Obituary

On the evening of October 6, 2002 at 9:00PM, the angel came silently into the hospital room at Chatham Hospital, Siler City, North Carolina and took our loved one away. She is ever near us, though unseen. There is no death; the Giver just claimed back His loved one unto Himself. Emily Jane Alston Morgan, better known to her family and friends as Jane, Emma Jane, and grandma, was a loving person who made friends wherever she went.

She was born in Chatham County, June 13, 1940 into the loving family of the late George Felton Alston and Mrs. Ola Bynum Alston. Her father, two sisters, two brothers, and a daughter (Twin) preceded her in death.

She grew up in Goldston, North Carolina and graduated in the class of 1960 at J.S. Waters High School. She was a life long member of Roberts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church where she served willingly as an usher for over 25 years, member of the Missionary Department and a regular Sunday School member of the Ollie Turner Sunday School class. Our loved one gave unselfishly of herself to her family, her church, and the community. Her greatest joy was caring for her grandchildren.

Emily retired from Townsends, Inc. after more than 30 years of devoted service. She was unite in holy matrimony to the late Nathan Marsh and later married Mr. Charles Morgan.*

She leaves to cherish her memories: a dedicated and devoted son and daughter-in-law: Ronnie and Angela Alston of the home, and one daughter: Mrs. Dianna Johnson of Durham, NC; three grandchildren: Quinton, Gabrielle, and Ahliyah Alston of the home. Her mother: Mrs. Ola Bynum Alston; four sisters: Mrs. Debra Paige (Carl) of Siler City, NC, Mrs. Bernice Lyons (George), Mrs. Dorthia Alston all of New York, and Mrs. Paulette Daye of Durham, NC; five brothers: Lewis C. Alston (Tina), James Nicholas Alston, Fredrick M. Alston all of Dayton, OH, David Alston of Goldston, NC, and Frank Alston (Nannie) of New York. Seven aunts: Mrs. Flora Jane Bynum, Mrs. Lillie Mae Bynum, Mrs. Mildred Barrett, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnell, Ms. Mary Eliza Bynum, Mrs. Ossie Emerson, and Mrs. Mary Bynum; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. Very special cousins, Gary and Carolyn Cox, and Mrs. Collette Williams; nieces, Mrs. Gail Watson and Mrs. Wanda Lee Cotton.
