Family and Friends

EXPRESSIONS

It could have been a card, a call, a hug or simply just a touch. No matter the form, the wonderful outpouring of sympathy, prayers, and comfort during the home going of our loved one will be treasured in our hearts for the duration of our days. We sincerely thank you for your prayers, love, and other gracious acts of kindness during our time of bereavement and transition. It is a blessing to feel so much love from others for the one we loved so much.

Obituary

There just are not enough words to express how much he meant to everyone. James Paschal, Jr. was a devoted and loving father, son, and brother. He was a treasured grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

James was born on August 9, 1985, in Savannah, GA, to James Paschal, Sr. and JoAlice Doggett-Smith (formerly Paschal). He went to be with the Lord on April 19, 2008, at the tender age of 22. James Jr. was preceded in death by his father James Paschal Sr.

James was educated in the Greensboro Public School System. Growing up, he was a member of Poplar Grove A.M.E. Church and gave his life to Christ when just a teenager.

To have known James, one would easily recognize his good looks, his smile, and his loving nature. He had many talents including being a self-made barber, tattoo artist and gourmet chef. Despite his battle with Crohn's disease, James continued to eat from the tables of great cooks including his grandmother, his mother, and his sister.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his Mother and Stepfather, JoAlice Doggett and Larry Smith; one Son Jaylen Paschal and "Special Son" Jahlil Allen-Paschal of Greensboro; one Sister Janecia Paschal of Greensboro; his Sons' Mother Tabitha Allen-Draft of Greensboro; his maternal grandparents Norman B. and Joanne Smith Doggett of Greensboro and paternal grandparents Richard Dalice and Betty Marie Paschal of Siler City, NC. James also leaves a whole host of kinfolk and very dear friends.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me now, I'm free.

I am following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I cannot stay another day, to laugh to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I have found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I pray you have the sunshine of tomorrow.
