

Pirate Ships, Slave Ships and Colonial America Symposium

February 21, 2007

N.C. Maritime Museum
315 Front Street
Beaufort, N.C.

Explore the dynamic relationship between pirates, their ships and the slave trade in colonial America during this free, first-of-its-kind event.

- ~ Presentations
- ~ Panel discussions
- ~ Rare glimpses of artifacts recovered from the wreckage of the presumed Queen Anne's Revenge, the flagship of the notorious pirate Blackbeard.

Free event

Day session 9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Evening session 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Space is limited. Registration is required by February 12, 2007. Contact 919-807-7385 or lisa.cole@ncmail.net for more information or to register.

Sponsored by the N.C. Department of Cultural Resources, a state agency dedicated to the promotion and protection of North Carolina's arts, history and culture; and a grant from the N.C. Humanities Council, whose mission is to increase our awareness of our connection to each other and build stronger communities, also makes this symposium possible.
