Obituary

MRS. NELLIE ALSTON MOORE, daughter of the late John and Delia Emerson, was born in Chatham County, N.C. on June 15, 1904, and departed this life Saturday morning, March 16, 1985, at Chatham Hospital in Siler City, N.C.

Mrs. Moore professed faith in Christ at an early age and joined the Mitchell Chapel AME Zion Church, where she served until her illness. She was a member of Stewardess Board One and a member of the Bible Band.

She was in declining health for a number of years. She bore her sickness with patience, smiles and prayer. She was kind and loving to the end, and won the love, respect, and admiration of others by her patience and cheerfulness in the midst of suffering.

She was a faithful and devoted wife, a kind and loving mother, and a trusted and considerate friend. She was united in marriage to the late General Alston and eight children were born to their union.

She leaves to mourn her passing: a loving husband, Mr. Billy Moore of the home; five daughters, Mrs. Ernestine Phillips, Mrs. Hattie Gray, Mrs. Lubbie Taylor, Mrs. Bertha Brown, all of Pittsboro, N.C., and Mrs. Georgia Womble of Rantoul, Illinois; one son, Mr. Gary V. Alston of Baltimore, Md.; one sister, Mrs. Betsy Bigelow of Greensboro, N.C.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Shirley Tyson and Miss Brenda Moore, both of Siler City, N.C.; two step-sons, Mr. Henry Moore of Siler City, N.C. and Mr. Edward Moore of Greensboro, N.C.; twenty-one grandchildren; twenty-seven great grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

*The tide recedes
but leaves behind
bright seashells on the sand,*

*The sun goes down
but gentle warmth
still lingers on the land,*

*The music stops
and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains . . .*

*For every joy that passes,
something beautiful remains.*
