OBITUARY

Mr. Lubbie Goins-Taylor, daughter of the late Mr. General Alston and Mrs. Nellie Alston Moore was born in Chatham County, NC on December 26, 1932 and departed this life January 13, 1987 at North Carolina Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Mrs. Taylor professed Christ at an early age and joined Mitchell Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church where she served until her illness.

She was a member of the White Wings Chorus and numerous other organizations and auxiliaries.

She was in declining health for a number of years. She bore her sickness with patience, smiles, and prayers. She was kind and loving to the end, and won the love, respect, and admiration of others by her patience and cheerfulness. In the midst of suffering she always took time out to ask about the well being of others.

She was a faithful and devoted wife, a kind and loving mother, and a trusted and considerate friend.

She will be lovingly remembered by her three daughters: Eunice Atkins of Pittsboro, NC; Gladys Evans, of Chapel Hill, NC and Shirley Alston of the home. One son: Clyde Goins, Jr. of Siler City, NC; four sisters: Rev. Ernestine Phillips and Bertha Lassiter of Pittsboro, NC; Hattie Gray of Brian Center, Siler City, NC; and Georgia Womble of Rantoul, Illinois; one brother: Gary Alston of Baltimore, Maryland; her stepfather, Mr. Billie Edgar Moore; twelve grandchildren; three great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

SAFELY HOME

"I am home in heaven dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright. There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over, every restless hour is past. No more trials, no more trouble, Safely home in heaven at last."
