The Obituary

Born September 8, 1913, Thomas Richardson was the first sibling of the late John Richardson and Stella Price Richardson.

His duties and services will always be remembered as he was faithful in the church and community. Although he fathered no children, he was a father and friend to many. There is no measure of the lives he touched.

His wife of many years, Mildred Kerr Richardson, preceded him in death.

He will be missed by his three brothers: Henry, Lee and Obie Richardson, all of Pittsboro, N. C.; several devoted in-laws; many nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

In Remembrance

*God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around him
And whispered "Come with Me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We couldn't make him stay.*

*A "Golden Heart" stopped beating,
Working hands were laid to rest.*

*Our hearts were broken
To prove to us that God only takes the best.*
