

IN LOVING MEMORY
OF
Mr. George Lee Cross

Life is but a stopping place in what's to be, a resting place along the road to sweet eternity. When the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward, and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.

"He who abides in the secret place of the Most high shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Psalms 91:1

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little--but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

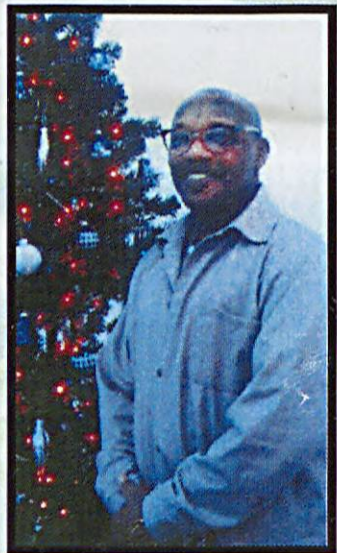

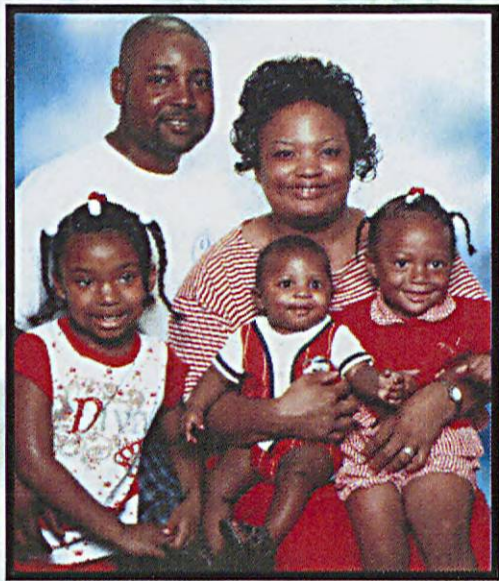

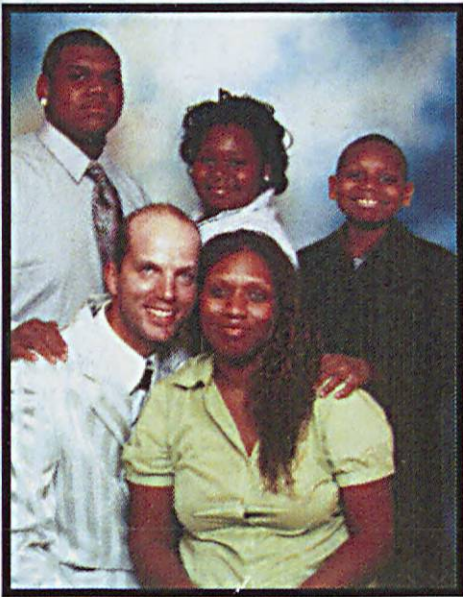

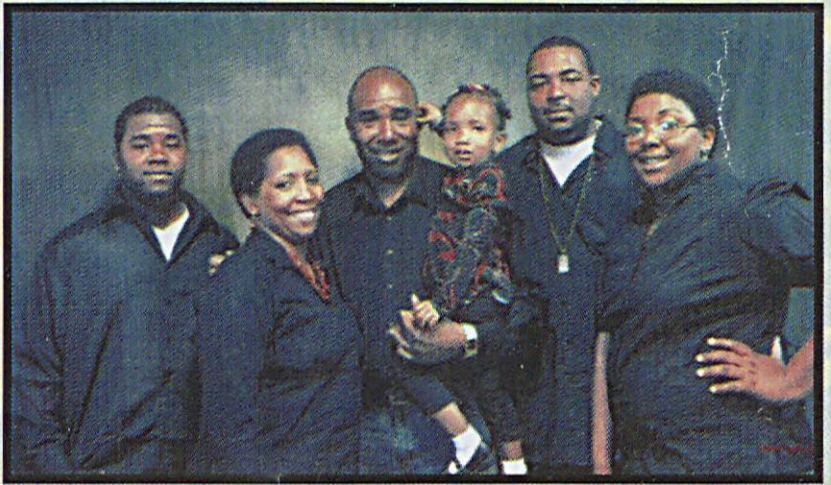

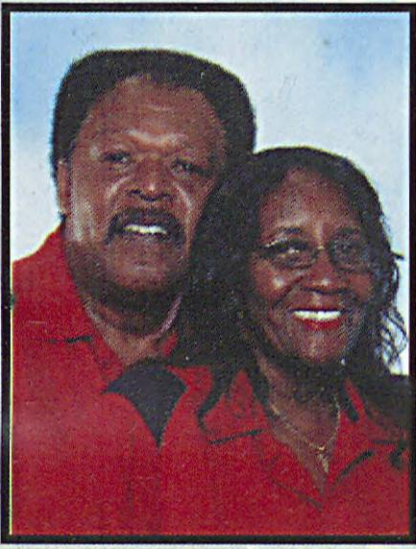

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.*

The Class of 1965

Obituary

George Lee Cross was born November 29, 1946 to the late John Archie and Mary Elizabeth Cross in Chatham County.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, a sister Laverne Cross and a brother, Lonnie Cross. At the time of his death, he was married to Rosia Cross.

He joined Staunton Memorial C.M.E. Church at an early age. He was a faithful member until his health failed. He was President of the male chorus and served on the Steward Board. He was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend.

He attended Horton High School, was a bus driver, and was a graduate of the "Class of 1965". He worked with Boise Cascade as a supervisor for 40 years. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed all sports. George was a volunteer at Cambridge Hills Assisted Living in Pittsboro since 2006. He served in the Vietnam War from 1966-1968 and earned the rank of Sergeant in the Army as an E-5.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Rosia Mae of the home; daughters, Michelle Grant (James) of Pittsboro, N.C. and Geleica Rockwell (Chad) of Fuquay Varina, N.C.; step daughters, Kim Alston (Terry) and Angela Wilson, both of Holly Springs, N.C.; step son, Larry Wilson Jr. of Tabor City, N.C.; six grandchildren, six step grandchildren, four step great grandchildren; brothers, John Cross (Patsy) of Moncure, N.C., Wayne Cross (Laverne) of Brown Hill, N.C., Archie Cross (Jewell) of Pittsboro, N.C.; sisters, Mary Cutts (Ray) and Lora Bradley (Harvey), both of Pittsboro, N.C.; sister-in-laws Marie Cross of Bear Creek, N.C. Linda Williams of Cameron N.C., Nancy Williams of Greensboro, N.C., two brothers-in-laws Jimmy Williams of Cedar City, Utah, and Robert Williams of Moncure, N.C., and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Notice of Change of Address

Dear Children, Family and Friends,

Please be advised that I have moved. I, George Cross, received a call from God; the chief Architect, on Tuesday, August 30, 2011. He informed me that my new home was complete.

You all knew that I had been working on my building, sending up my timber, packing up and getting ready to go. I knew that my mansion needed some finishing touches and that the Chief Carpenter, Jesus Christ, had to inspect it and give the final approval. On that afternoon, he let me know that my mansion was complete and that I could move in so He told me to go ahead and change my address!

My new home is a sight to behold, It is located on an exclusive estate area behind a beautiful Pearly Gate. It is just over on the other side of a serene celestial shore. Of course, you know the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday, just like you've been told.

I lived at 968 Mays Chapel Road, Bear Creek, NC for a short time. My new address is so much better. There is peace, joy and happiness here. I pray that you get to move here yourself one day. Before I close, let me give you my new address

Godstown, Heaven 8302011

P.S. I don't have a telephone, but you can always call on God. If you don't know his number, read your Bible, it's listed on every page.
