"I'm Free"

*Don't grieve for me for now
I'm free.*

*I'm following the path
God laid for me.*

I took his hand when I heard him call.

*I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way,*

I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full I've savored much,

Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

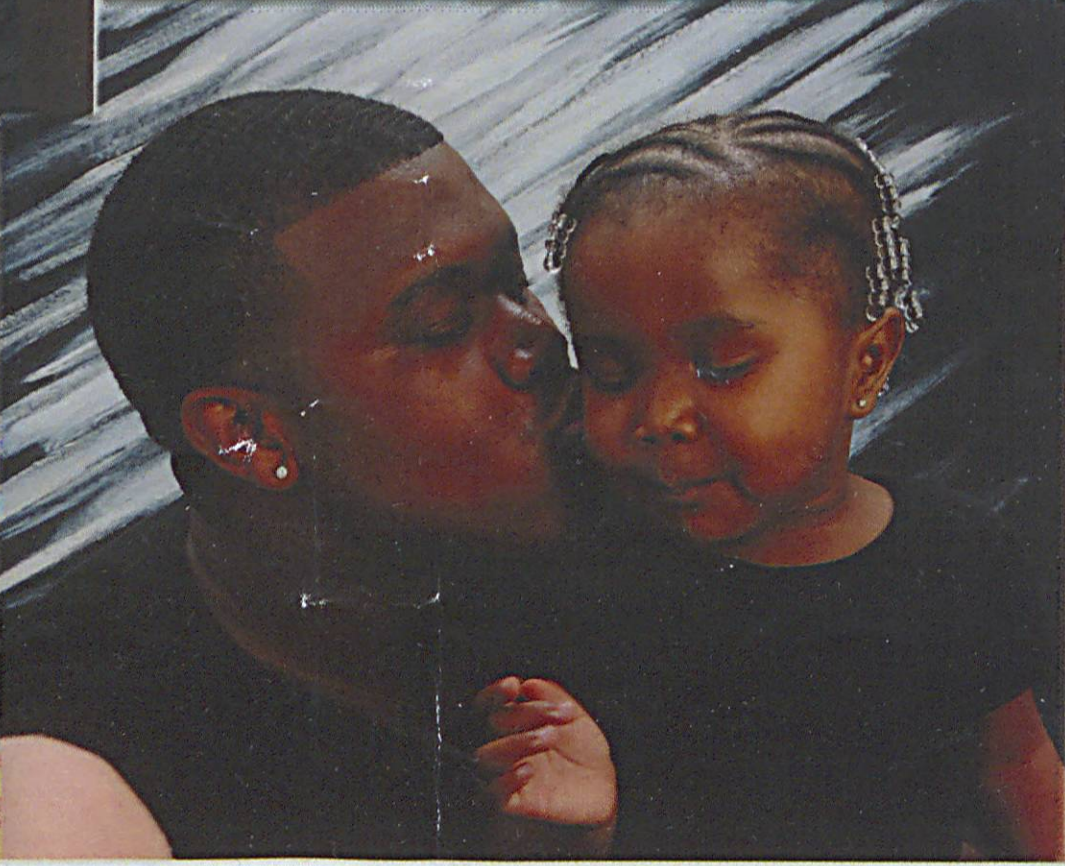

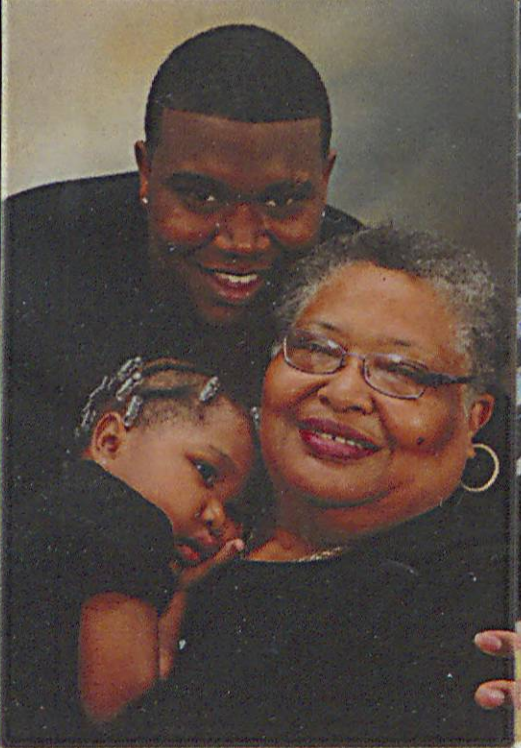

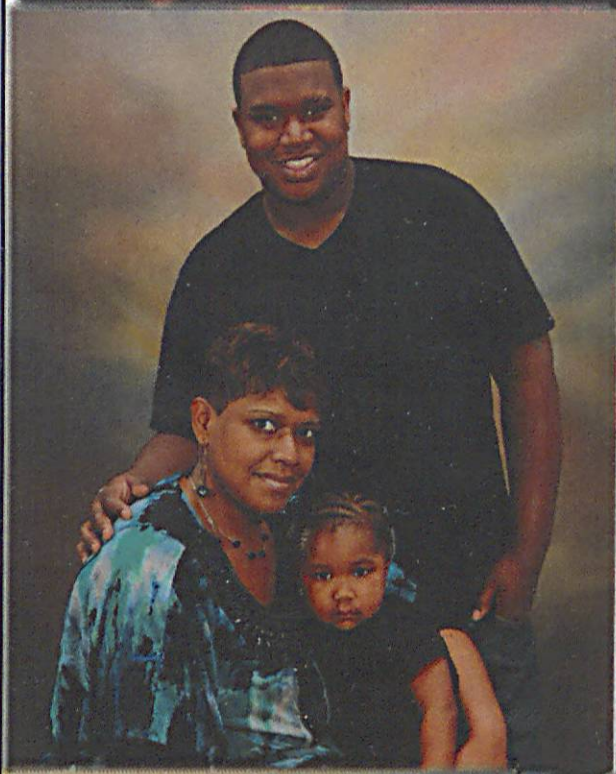

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, he set me free.

*I'm Free
Love,
Adriane*

Life and Legacy of Adriane

A Time to Be Born:

Adriane Jeanel Nettles was born on February 26, 1973, to Frances Richardson Nettles and the late David Herbert Nettles.

A Time to Plant and a Time to Pluck That Which Has Been Planted:

Jeanel professed her love of Jesus, as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She joined the membership of St. Matthews A.M.E. Zion Church where she was a faithful, devoted and active member. Although she was shy in nature, she's never been shy in confessing her love of the Lord, the love of her family, and the love of her friends.

A Time to Build Up:

Jeanel graduated from Northwood High School in 1991. She later attended North Carolina A&T State University and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education in 1998. She pursued her passion for education as a pre-kindergarten and kindergarten teacher at Chatham Charter School in Siler City, NC; Southern Elementary School in Greensboro, NC and lastly at Morris Grove Elementary School in Chapel Hill, NC.

A Time for Making Special Friends:

Jeanel's brother, David Rodney, lived far away and visited during the summer and special occasions. Early in life, Jeanel surrounded herself with a special bond of positive brothers and sisters who remained loyal: Brent Chandler, Tracy Ellerby, Jahmal Degraffenreidt, Michelle Scurlock Alston, Linette Richardson Tyson, Laurie Brim Farrar, Chreathea Alston, Denise Taylor, Terri Alston Staton, Linette Leak Matthews, Ken Womble, Cheryl McSwain, Patrick French, Vinson Goldston, Nichole Haith, Cory Headen, Eddie Atkins, Lamont Marsh, Galina Brown, Keith and Fred Watson. As she grew older, the special bond increased: Kellice Meadows, Ken Mullins, Alicia Brooks Haith, Omniki Latta, Jametta McKissick, Susan Eubanks, Patrice Crutchfield, Wayne Snipes, Trayon Fleming, Kurk Womble, and Eula. She loved each and every one of them in her own special way. She had always been the peacemaker and a gladiator of keeping friends together throughout the years.

A Time to Die:

Jeanel drifted into a peaceful sleep on Friday night and awoke in the arms of Jesus on Saturday, October 5, 2013.

A Time to Weep and a Time to Mourn:

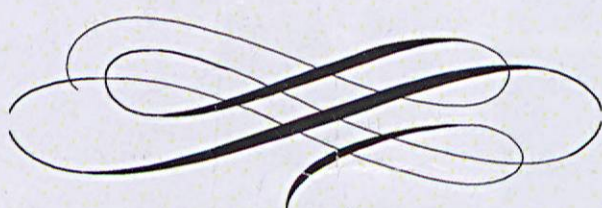

When we speak Jeanel's name, the one word that leaves everyone's mouth first is love. There are so many that are left behind to carry on her legacy, her children, London De' Sean and Little Jakayla Gabriel; a devoted mother, Frances Richardson Nettles of the home; a brother, David Rodney (Pam) Nettles of Winter Haven, FL; her special advisory board – aunts: Brigal Stone, Ethel Chandler (Aukil), Gwendolyn Ellerby, all of Pittsboro, NC; Marsha Leath, Burlington, NC and Rachel Richardson (Aunt Pat), Virginia Beach, VA; Uncles: Henry G. Richardson (Linda) of Elon, NC; Randy Richardson (Ernestine); Dwight Fleming, both of Pittsboro, NC; Melvin Fleming (Lisa) of Chapel Hill, NC; Shelton, Bruce and Maurice Leath, all of Burlington, NC; a great aunt: Catherina Alston of Pittsboro, NC; god-sisters: Angrid Myles, Hickory, NC; Kimberly Rempson, Durham, NC; Melanie Sanders, Goldsboro, NC and Melody Goldston of Durham, NC. She also leaves two special people whom God placed in Jakayla's life: Miss Breanna Leach and Miss Auburnie Chandler.

Acknowledgments

We, the children and family of Jeanel Nettles, appreciate the outpour of love we have received from our church family, community, and friends. Your acts of kindness and regards extend far beyond measure. It's at times like this when we learn how much our loved one touched not only our lives but yours as well.

Please continue to pray for our strength.
