In Remembrance

*You couldn't say I'm leaving
You couldn't say good-bye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
A million times we needed you
A million times we have cried.
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place
No one else could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you,
The day God came and took you home.
So for now you had to leave us
But we will never say goodbye
For someday we will meet again
In God's home up on the sky.*

Naomi, "My Joy"

Heaven sent an angel who was also a mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin and our friend.

*No one knew that so quickly God would call you home
So how can we say thank you for the advice, shelter or warm food you always kept on the table.*

*It was through your faith and support that we know
"all things are possible because God is able."*

Whether it was in your "gift of gab" or that smile that would change the course of our day.

You taught us to be good people and how us Womble's had to carry ourselves a certain way.

So we will hold on to each other and the love for you we will share...

And trust what your life showed us, that God won't allow no more on us than we can bare.

IN HEAVEN

You'll never cry in Heaven, there's no pain or sorrow there.
God's world is filled with only joy, and perfect love to share.

You'll have no fears in Heaven, for it's filled with only light,
And darkness never comes again not even in the night.

You'll have no wants in Heaven, for His hand will give you more,
Of all the priceless gifts you need, and the love you've hungered for.

You'll always smile in Heaven, and your heart and soul will sing,
As you spend forever in this home, and walk beside your King.
