OBITUARY

Lonnie Reatus Johnson, son of the late Alberta Pugh Johnson and Mr. Curtis Johnson, was born November 11, 1931 in Chatham County.

He joined Centennial A.M.E. Zion Church.

He was kind, loving and friendly toward his wife and stepchildren. He was always willing to help those he could help.

He leaves to mourn their loss: a wife, Mrs. Lucille Johnson; a father, Mr. Curtis Johnson of Siler City, NC; a son, Deon Williams of Siler City; five stepchildren, Jackie, Myra and Kenneth Baldwin of Bear Creek, NC, Loretta Nettles of Siler City and Sharon Luanne Nettles of Winston-Salem, NC; two sisters, Ms. Nina Crowder of New York and Ms. Ida Ramos of New Jersey; one brother, Cleatus Johnson of Virginia; two step granddaughters, Amber Baldwin and Candice Nettles and a host of other relatives and friends.

"What comes to pass throughout this life
The laughter and the tears,
Is just a part of God's own plan
To fill our borrowed years.

He works mysteriously on that we can rely
At times it's hard to comprehend
The things that come to be
Especially when they bring such griefs.

But when our trials shall end and we
Yearn for peaceful rest
Always keep in mind
God does things for best."
