To Those I Love

When I am gone, just release me, let me go—so I can move into my after-glow. " You mustn't tie me down with your tears; let's be happy that we had so many years." I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted with trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. And then, when you must come this way alone, Ill greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Obituary

James Sebastian Cotten, son of the late John Emory and Georgia Bell Cotten, departed this life, Thursday, September 25, 2008 at his home after an extended illness.

Jimmy, better known as " Skip Cotten" attended Northwood High School in Pittsboro, North Carolina. Jimmy attended Livingstone College. He worked many years at Bynum Mills before being employed with the City of Pittsboro Water Plant until his departure. He was a valued and dependable employee.

In June 1978, Jimmy was married to his high school sweetheart Gwen Cooley. He was a dedicated, devoted, and loving husband, son, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, brother-in-law and friend. He was a people person and a very supportive man who always took extra time for anyone who needed it.

Jimmy was a dedicated member of Staunton Memorial Church, Pittsboro, North Carolina.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Linda Cotten.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife Gwen; his son Christopher (Crystal) Cotten of Chapel Hill, NC; his daughter Felicia (Stanley) Watson of Holly Springs, NC; two grandsons Christopher and Jaleen Cotten of Chapel Hill, NC; two brothers John (Faith) Cotten of Liberty, NC; and Sammy (Kathy) Cotten of Fayetteville, NC; a sister Deborah (Bill) Fennell of Austin, TX; an aunt Mattie Bryant of Jamaica, NY; an uncle William Cotten of Texas; his mother-in-law Chloe Cooley of Winston Salem, NC; his sister-in-law, Judy Cooley of Winston Salem, NC; a brother -in-law Brian Cooley of Winston-Salem, NC; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
