Obituary

Grace Lynn Avery, daughter of the late Wesley and Eva Farrington Lynn, was born in Chatham County on October 16, 1911.

She departed this life on Monday, February 28, 2011 at Duke Hospital in Durham.

She was a very proud and independent person who believed in honesty and hard work. She was a strong champion of education and encouraged all her nieces and nephews to gain a formal education. She loved family and provided advice and guidance to many of her nieces and nephews.

She joined Mitchell Chapel Church as a youth and remained a member until her death.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to George Avery, who preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one sister, Evelyn Lynn Faulk of Pittsboro; niece and caregiver, Barbara Lee Horton (John) of Durham, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone.
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gate our loved one
Finds happiness and rest.
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*

Grace L. Avery African-American Scholarship Fund

Grace L. Avery is more than a name on a scholarship fund. She is a respected and loved friend with a keen mind, a lively sense of humor and profound practical wisdom. With a legendary green thumb, she tends a yard filled with the flowers, trees and plants that she has nurtured through the years. The yard is often filled with birds, another love of Grace's, which seem to know that they can count on her to supply them with food.

Grace has touched the lives of the many students and friends in her life. With the Grace L. Avery Scholarship Fund for African-American Students, she will touch the lives of many others forever more.

Acknowledgment

With grateful hearts, we accept every thoughtful deed from each person who has contributed to help ease the burden we bear at the loss of our loved one. Thank you for each act of kindness. May God bless each of you.
