Obituary

Sarah Mitchell Baldwin, daughter of the late Janie Phillips Mitchell and Harrison Mitchell was born May 12, 1919, in Chatham County, North Carolina, and after a sudden illness departed this life on November 30, 1991, at the age of 72.

She was a loving and kind person. She joined Mitchell Chapel at an early age, and until declining health prevented her, she remained a faithful member. She was united in marriage to Curtis Baldwin. To this union six children were born three of which preceded her in death. Surviving are a loving and devoted husband, Curtis Baldwin; daughters are Nellie Baldwin of the home, and Violet Baldwin of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; one son, Jerry Baldwin of Washington, D. C. Sisters are Louise Horton of Pittsboro, North Carolina, and Fannie Alston of Carrboro, North Carolina; one brother who is, Calvin Mitchell of Siler City, North Carolina. There are six beautiful grandchildren who are Angelo Baldwin of the home, William Baldwin, Kenneth Baldwin, Harold Baldwin, Rev. James Baldwin and Shari Elliot. Also, there are eight beautiful great-grandchildren and two daughters-in-law who are Thelma Baldwin and Carrie Baldwin as well as nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Age of Life"

But when I raised my eyes above
 There coming through the night,
I saw an angel, bright with grace
 Who shone with love and light.

He stopped beside that ancient bridge
 And to this day he stands
Beside each soul that walks there on
 To guide with tender hands.

And then I knew there was no man
 Who walked that bridge alone,
For God's own angels guard out way
And light the dark unknown!
