Obituary

On Monday morning, June 25th, 2007, Fred Patrick Scurlock, peacefully made his transition into eternal life and Christian victory was declared after enduring a period of illness at Annie Penn Memorial Hospital. As the earthly life of our beloved has come to a close, we yet rejoice, knowing his immortal life means resurrection and everlasting peace.

Born in Chatham County, North Carolina on November 12th, 1921, he was the offspring of the late Ionia and Ned Scurlock. Following several years of dedicated service to his country during World War II, he was honorably discharged from the United States Navy. He was a retiree of Lorillard Tobacco Company, co-owner of Fred and Fred Painters, a member of the Royal Social Club, and a member of the American Legion Post #267 in Greensboro. Spiritually, he was a faithful and active member of the Oak Grove AME Zion Church where he served as a steward, a trustee, and a choir member. He loved God and he loved his church.

Our Beloved was a man with strong constitution, but an even stronger faith. As a true inspiration to all who knew him, we are thankful for his legacy of kind deeds and Christian service. He was well known throughout the community. He was an unselfish person, genuinely concerned about others, who willingly shared his resources, talent and time. We shall cherish his memory and emulate his admirable traits.

Many loved ones remain to celebrate and rejoice in his life, including: one daughter, Mrs. Carol S. Lawson (David, Jr.) of Reidsville, NC; one brother, George Scurlock (Ruby) of Pittsboro, NC; four sisters, Sarah Rogers (Tom, deceased), Linda Cheek (Colon), Henrietta Scurlock, all of Pittsboro, NC and Margaret Clinkscale (Bill, deceased) of Bronx, NY; seven grandchildren, David Lawson III (Peviany), Yvette Foster (Johnnie), Karl Lawson all of Reidsville, NC LaDonna Carr (Andrew) of West New York, NJ Lois Bugg Shadrack (Edward) of Phoenix, AZ, Edward Bugg (Beth) of Aurora, IL and Fredrick Bugg of Park Forest, IL; nine great-grandchildren; a special nephew Robert Scurlock, Sr. (Marsha) of Pittsboro, NC; a son-in-law, Joseph Bugg (Carol) of Indianapolis, IN as well as a host of other nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. Preceding him in death are three wives, Esther, Floretha and Ruth; one daughter, Floretha Bugg; one brother, Lawrence Scurlock; and one sister, Mary Johnson Bleach.

Expressions of Gratitude

Your encouraging words, the innumerable acts of kindness, we accept as priceless gems of friendship. Every prayer, visit, flower, thought and tangible act of kindness has made our grief bearable because you comforted us. We appreciate your outpouring of love and kindness. May God continue to richly bless you.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, But start out bravely with a gallant smile; And for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same,

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways, Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer, and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; And never, never be afraid to die, For I am waiting for you in the sky!

God Loves the Aged

God Loves the Aged. He gives them greater visions than the young;
He puts the words of wisdom on their tongue;
And keeps His presence ever by their side,
from dawn to dust, and through eventide.

God Helps the Aged. Within their home His spirit ever dwells;
Their mellow hearts are touched like chiming bells,
He calms their fears and worries, then worries disappear, because they know his help is always near.

God protects the Aged. With hearts of gold and silver tinted hair,
And earnestness, and greater faith in prayer;
He keeps them as a shepherd guards his sheep,
'Til in his fold they gently fall asleep.
