Obituary

Mrs. Elvira Farrington Farrar, daughter of the late Rod and Annie Farrington was born in Chatham County, North Carolina on October 25, 1908, and departed this life on September 22, 1984 at North Carolina Memorial Hospital after an extended illness.

At a early age she joined the St. Joseph C.M.E. Church, where she served on Stewardess Board No. 1, Usher Board, A Sunday School Teacher, President of Willing Worker Club and a faithful member until her health began to decline.

She was married to the late Wilbert Farrar, Sr. and to this union four children were born.

"Two Mama", as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was a devoted mother, grandmother, and aunt, whose quiet understanding manner, friendly smile and words of encouragement endeared her to all who came in contact with her. She was a true friend who extended a helping hand to anyone in need.

She will be truly missed but her memories will always be present.

She leaves to mourn, two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Jones, and Mrs. Nancy Brooks of Chapel Hill, N. C. Two sons, Mr. Wilbert Farrar, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. Joe L. Farrar of Carrboro, N.C.; two sisters Mrs. Annie Cates of Chapel Hill, N. C. and Mrs. Lillie Mae Dunlap of Washington, D. C. Six grandchildren, one great grand child; eight nieces and seven nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Since you've gone and we remain to walk the road alone,
We'll live in memory's garden dear
With happy days we've known.*

*In spring we'll watch for roses red;
when fades the lilac blue
In early fall when brown leaves fall, we'll catch a glimpse of you.*

*We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy;
And memory is one gift of God that death cannot destroy.*
