OBITUARY

Mr. Julius Lee Rodgers was born in Chatham County on August 10, 1934 to the late Mr. Charles and Mrs. Bertha Alston Rodgers. He departed this life on April 21, 1995 after a brief illness.

He attended Chatham County training school at that time.

Julius was employed by Gould Farm of Pittsboro, NC.

Early in life, he joined Evans Chapel A.M.E. Zion church, where he remained a member. He attended when family would bring him.

Later in years, he moved to Durham, NC and became a resident of the Lyons Rest Home #1 until his death.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a twin sister, Mrs. Esther Marie McClain of Siler City, NC and four other sisters: Mrs. Celice Packingham of Graham, NC, Mrs. Hannah Alston of Snow Camp, NC, Miss Pauline Rodgers and Mrs. Vatie Siler, both of Siler City, NC; three brothers: Mr. Roland Rodgers of Snow Camp, NC, Mr. Marcellous Rodgers and Mr. Worth Rodgers of Siler City, NC; one uncle: Mr. Thomas Alston of Siler City, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and other relatives and friends.

TRIBUTE

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
And there shall be no more death;
Neither sorrow, nor crying;
Neither shall there be anymore pain;
For the former things are passed away.

Revelations 21:4

Mouth, as I called him,
was a nice sweet, loving and caring person.
He always made you laugh.
He always had time for his family,
For he truly loved us all.
Julius always talked about how it was when he came up and how kids are being raised today.

He was very concerned about his nieces and nephews,
great nieces and great nephews.
Many times when I'd go visit him,
we always had to come to Siler City and Pittsboro,
then we'd have to stop at the store
for candy, cookies, & junk food.
We'd ride until he was ready to go home.
He'd say, "Now you go home before it gets too late."

Julius, you will not be forgotten,
nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last,
I will remember thee.

Your niece, "Foots" Rose
