Obituary

MRS. ALBERTA SCARBOROUGH HOLLOWAY, the daughter of the late Henry and Matilda Scarborough was born on January 29, 1914 in Lee County, South Carolina. She passed away on May 13, 1982 in Lumberton, North Carolina after an illness of several months.

She received her formal education in the schools of Scotland County, North Carolina and attended Laurinburg Institute in Maxton, North Carolina. She moved to Durham, North Carolina in 1932.

In 1945, she was united in marriage with William Holloway who preceded her in death. There were no children born of this union. Mrs. Holloway became a member of Immanuel Temple Church in 1945 and served her church faithfully until forced by her health to curtail her activities.

She leaves to mourn their loss, three brothers, Thomas Scarborough of Durham, NC, Willie Scarborough of Rock Hill, South Carolina and Magnolia Scarborough of Smithfield, North Carolina; ten nieces; ten nephews; many other relatives and friends.

*It is very hard to understand
Just way these things must be
But may our Father comfort you—*
