Obituary

Richard Marcellous Wilson, Jr., first of three children of the late Deborah Jean Holman Edwards and Willie Malcolm Edwards III began his journey of life on March 23, 1979 in Durham, NC and departed this life on June 20, 2009.

Raised in Washington, DC by his mother and godparents; Kevin and Cynthia Sykes where he was taught to serve God in all aspects of life. Richard was baptized and received his fundamental Christian education at Holy Temple Church of Christ. It was at Holy Temple (or due to the continuous blasting of gospel music by his godfather) that Richard's passion for music began. Richard studied music, took musical lessons, wrote songs, and performed to sooth his love for the arts.

He leaves to cherish his memories, father - Willie Edwards, III; brother, Willie M. Edwards, IV; sister, Jeannie Edwards; grandmothers, Geneva Holman and Eva Edwards; Aunts and Uncles, Cynthia and Kevin Sykes, Beverly and George Brown, Rudolph Burnett, Vereia Edwards, Gladys Edwards, Faith Edwards and Gail Edwards; best friend, Isaiah Turner and a host of family and friends.

Family and Friends

No words on earth could ever express the pain we feel about your death. You've been in our lives everyday since you were born, our hearts are broken and torn. It hurts us not to have you to call, it hurts us more not seeing you at all. Whether you were near us or somewhere far, you were always with us, in our hearts. You've been our champion, you've been our star; you were with us then, and you still are. Within our hearts, our souls and minds, we're still loving you all the time.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The family wish to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
