

*In Loving Memory
Of*

Rev. Rubie Junior Faves

Sunrise
March 18, 1914

Sunset
December 28, 2007

*Monday, December 31, 2007
7:00 P.M.*

*Alston Chapel United Holiness Church
Pittsboro, North Carolina
Elder Omega T. Perry, Pastor*

Rev. Rubie Junior Faves

Order of Service

Dr. James W. Brooks, Presiding

Prelude.....(Soft Music)

Processional

Selection....."Home up in that Kingdom"

Scripture Readings

Old Testament

New Testament

Prayer of Comfort

Solo .....Jean Epps

Remarks

Acknowledgments & Condolences

Resolutions

Remarks (2 minutes)

Obituary (Read Silently)

Selection....."Trouble Don't Last Always"

Eulogy.....Elder Curtis Boykins

Pastor of Mount Sinai Holy Church

Recessional....."He Will Welcome Me"

Interment

Church Cemetery

Tuesday, January 1, 2008—10:00 a.m.

Obituary

Rev. Lubie Junior Scurlock Eaves, daughter of the late Channie and Frances Scurlock was born on March 18, 1914 in Chatham County. Rev. Eaves was called to be with her heavenly father at home on Friday night, December 28, 2007.

She was educated in the Chatham County Public Schools. At an early age she joined Alston Chapel United Holy Church where she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and personal Savior. She was a devoted wife and loving mother.

As a devoted laborer in her fathers vineyard she was a longstanding member in the young adult choir, where she served as President. She would often travel around with the choir singing and praising the Lord to the communities sick and shut in. Rev. Eaves along with other members of the church first started Bible study at Alston Chapel. She also served diligently for many years on the Usher Board where she also became President. Rev. Lubie Eaves was the first woman assistant Pastor of Alston Chapel Church. She was the Pastor of Pentecostal Holiness Church in Asheboro for over twenty years.

She had a great influence on her family and entire community. Rev. Eaves was one of the first and few African Americans in Chatham County to take foster children and families into her house.

Rev. Lubie Eaves was married to the late Herbert Eaves, and to this union four children were born. Worth Eaves, who preceded her in death (Pauline), Willa Mae Eaves, Herbert Jr., (Barbara) and Kenneth Earl, all of Pittsboro, NC; two sisters, Camilla Scurlock and Rev. Frinco (Nat) Reaves; a brother-in-law, Jimmy Brooks and one sister-in-law, Bessie Scurlock; eleven grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren.

Rev. Lubie Junior Eaves

Internment

Alston Chapel Church Cemetery

Floral Bearers and Pallbearers

Relatives and Friends

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown during the loss of their loved one. May God richly bless each and every one of you.

The Family

*You always said "For Christ I will live
And for Christ I will Die"
We remember you jumping around shouting
Praising his name on high.
Watching you reading your bible and sitting
Under the old pine tree.
Listening to you preach and teach of one who
Sets the captive free.
And although you will be missed, we promised
Our tears would be few...
Now you are at peace with your heavenly father
Who called for you...*

The Family

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO Knotts Funeral Home

50 Masonic Street
Pittsboro, North Carolina 27344
(919) 542-6180
www.knottsfuneralhome.com