OBITUARY

James David Alston, son of Alvis D. Alston and Hazel M. Alston, was born in Chatham County June 14, 1955. He departed his life early Monday morning in a tragic car accident.

He joined Mitchell Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church at the age of 16 years. He attended Sunday School and church regularly.

He served in the Armed Forces for 3 years.

He leaves to mourn, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis D. Alston; two sisters, Jenny and Mary of the home; one foster sister, Denise Taylor; three brothers, John, Barry and Donald of the home, and a host of relatives and friends.

"In times of trouble, God is our help and strength. We will not fear in times of trouble. He will not fail us when trouble comes."
