Mrs. Annie Bell Rogers Chavis, daughter of the late Bettie Rogers and Ulester Adams was born on June 15, 1925 in Wake County, NC. She departed this walk of life on Sunday, July 8, 2001 at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC. She was the wife of Edward A. "Shorty" Chavis, who preceded her in death in 1970.

Her work experience was varied. She was a laundry worker and was formerly employed with Robinson Tobacco Company. She also worked in "service" in several homes; cleaning and caring for children. Annie Bell's main job was always as a homemaker, looking to the needs of her family. In the 1970's, she worked with Wynn's Daycare. In 1981, she became owner and operator of the Jesus is Lord Daycare which she ran out of her home. In this capacity, she served a steady diet of the Word of God. As a result, there was a bulging waiting list. She served this ministry until 1986.

Annie Bell rededicated her life to Christ in 1979 and went about the neighborhood teaching that Jesus was the way to life and health. Christ had become the central theme of her life. Inroads were made uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces and nephews; many turning to Christ as saviour and Lord.

She was a member of Life Community Church, pastored by the Reverend Dr. Kingsly Fletcher, where she was ordained a Church Mother. This was a position which she took seriously, ministering whenever and wherever needed. A student of the Bible, her practice was to rise early to pray and study the word. A tape of gospel music or a teaching tape played while she slept. She was in fellowship with the saints of her church family when she passed into eternal life.

She leaves to carry on the work, two sons, Robert E. (Janice) Chavis of Charlotte, NC and Phillip A. (Patricia) Chavis of Durham, NC; a daughter, Celenzy M. Chavis of Durham, NC; a great-aunt, Renda Page of Durham, NC; a great-aunt-in-law, Susie Smith of Raleigh, NC; a brother-in-law, Willas Chavis of Raleigh, NC; two sisters-in-law, Gladys Dunn and Leeida Davis, both of Raleigh, NC; cousins, Hallie M. Brown and Laura M. Womble, both of Durham, NC; seven grandchildren, Edward O., Shawn, Dakita, Marissa, Kim, Kevin and Steven; three great-grandchildren, Myron, Johnathan and KeAndre and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, saints and friends.

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little.. but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared,
Miss me...but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart go to the friends we know,
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me...But let me go.

She bade nobody a last farewell
She said, "Goodbye" to none
And the Master's Voice said, "Come."
He knew that she was tired
And the hills were hard to climb
So He gently closed her weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

RESOLUTION

Mrs. GERTRUDE HOOD CHEEK

For years we (our family) have known Mrs. Gertrude H. Cheek and her family as friends, neighbors, Boy Scouts, children's playmates, civil rights workers, and for the past decade or so, we and others have even broke bread together with the Cheek family at Thanksgiving.

We pause today to say farewell to one of our staunch supporters. Mrs. Cheek and her family have been known for years of supporters for the betterment of our county, city, neighborhoods, streets, etc.

She has been a person at the table or on he committee whom:

- You could count on for helpng solve the problems before us.
- Was there with the support and participation of her family. and your family
- Was a nice and good mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, member, friend and cook.
- She and her family were active in the civil rights struggles here in Durham and were active in the Durham Civil Rights Workers Reunions to thank those who carried the burden, walked the picket lines, spoke in our behalf, and asked the Lord for a better life for all of us.
- She constantly prayed for you and me thanking God for making our burdens bearable, and asking forgiveness of our sins.

We too could go on and on telling how thankful she (and we) were for our blessings.

We are here today to show our thanks to God for her support, leadership and prayers.

Mrs. Cheek we already miss you - no question about it.

Thank you.

The R. Kelly Bryant, Jr. family

April 19, 2011

This was Mother Cheek's favorite Psalm. All of her children and grandchildren had to learn this Psalm.

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

Mrs. Gertrude Hood Cheek, born June 5, 1923, to Burl and Roxanna Hood, grew up in Warren County, North Carolina. She entered into her eternal resting place on Wednesday, April 13, 2011.

She joined into holy matrimony to the late General Cheek, and together they had eight children. She and her family moved to Durham in 1958. She was a member of the Greater St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church for thirty years and later moved her membership to Living Word Christian Church.

Mrs. Cheek was educated in the Hecks Grove Public School System and received Child Development credentials from Durham Technical Institute. She was a dietician at Watts Hospital for twenty-one years and operated her in-home-child care program for six years. She was a dedicated and hardworking Christian woman.

She served on the Board of Directors of United Durham, Inc., UDI Community Development Corporation for twenty five years; the Durham Civil Rights Workers Reunion Committee for eighteen years.

"Captain", as she was sometimes referred to, was a civil rights activist and warrior. She participated in the protests for the rights to vote, sit-in's and marches for the right to shop and eat at Woolworth, Walgreens and other establishments. Gertrude Cheek fed the homeless, senior citizens, and anyone in need, for over fifty years. She dedicated her life to serving others. She was very gracious to helping homeless children, who had lost their parents, often times bringing them into her home for extended periods of time. Mrs. Cheek was truly a remarkable person with a gift to give to others. Oh, not to mention, she was raising eight children of her own—the oldest Mrs. Louise Shaw, retired from Durham Public School System; Onnie Rowell, retired from Roberts Tobacco Company; Carl Cheek, retired from the Federal Bureau of Prisons; Shirley Thomas continues to work in food service; Bettie Brame, working in child care; Mary Mangum, Special Care; Donnie Royster, Missionary work; General Cheek preceded her in death was an entrepreneur. Mrs. Cheek made an indelible imprint on her family, the City of Durham, and all who came in contact with her. She leaves behind a legacy of dedicated service for all humanity to admire. This lady was truly a servant sent by God to perform the unimaginable job that no one wanted. God was in the midst of this plan in the very beginning. Lord, we thank you for allowing us to be witness to your glory. May peace be with those who remain in this journey of life as it unfolds with uncertainty. In the words of Mother Cheek: "May God Be the Glory, He's got this and I am not afraid of nothing, so let my works speak for what I have done."

She was a partner of the Benny Henn's Ministries; 700 Club; Oral Roberts Ministries; CBN Pat Robertson Ministries; 2004 Donor of the Year for Hospitalized Veterans.

She leaves to cherish her memories and love seven children: Louise Shaw (Rudolph), Bettie Brame (Lawrence), Shirley Thomas Isaiah), Mary Mangum, all of Durham; Carl Cheek (Sherilyn) of North Augusta S. C., Donnie Royster (Charles) of Henderson, N. C.; Onnie Rowell (Johnny) of Bonaire, GA; eighteen grandchildren: Tony Cheek, Prentiss Cheek, Carl Cheek, Jr., Moses Cheek, Roxanna Cheek, Travis Mangum, Jr., Marella Mangum, Crystal Mangum, Chabella Brame, Joshua Brame, Bessie Rowell, Johnny Rowell, Jr., Walter L. Moore, Jr., Clyde Yancey, Jr., Melissa "Nikki" Mcclary, Crystal Eatmon, Lakissa Maloy, Shaunna Mitchell; three siblings: George Hood, Annie Bell Henderson, Floyd Hood, and a Host of great grand children and special dedicated friends.

Sometimes it's hard to understand,
Why certain things must be,
But there is a reason for it all
Beyond our power to see.

And may it comfort us a bit
to know the one we love
Has found eternal happiness and lasting peace above.
