If I Can Help Somebody

If I can help somebody as I pass along,
If I can cheer somebody with a word or song,
If I can show somebody he is traveling wrong,
Then my living shall not be in vain.
If I can do my duty as a Christian ought,
If I can bring back beauty to a world up-wrought,
If I can spread love message that the Master thought,
Then my living shall not be in vain.

The Obituary

GLADYS ARNOLD DAWKINS, wife of the late Elbert M. Dawkins, was born on August 15, 1907 in Holly Springs, North Carolina to the late Frank Arnold and the late Minnie Arnold. She went home to join them on Wednesday, September 20, 1995.

During her formative years she attended the public schools of Wake County and graduated from Berry O'Kelly High School. She went on to further her education by receiving a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education from Winston Salem State Teachers College, now Winston Salem State University and her Masters of Art Degree from New York University.

Upon her graduation, her illustrious career as an educator began in the Wake County Public Schools where she taught for seven years. Later she relocated to Durham, North Carolina and taught in the Durham County Schools for twelve years (Grades 1-3). As she continued to spread the joy and importance of learning, she began teaching in the Durham City School System at East End Elementary School until she retired in 1973. Through all the countless hours she had given in the public schools, her burning desire to educate never ceased. After retirement she began teaching Kindergarten at St. Mark A.M.E. Church until 1974.

Gladys A. Dawkins was a devoted member of numerous organizations and Masonic affiliations including: a charter member of National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., Beta Zeta Chapter; Drucilla Chapter #19, Order of Eastern Star, Past Worthy Matron; University Assembly #218, Order of the Golden Circle, Past Loyal Lady Ruler and Past State Grand Loyal Organizer and Overseer Emeritus of the Upper Piedmont Region, North Carolina State Grand Assembly; Zafa Court #41, Daughters of Isis, Past Illustrious Commandress and Past Deputy of the Oasis; Maria Court #1, Order of Cyrene Crusaders, PHA, Senior Stewardess; Boyd and Hodge Court #7, Heroines of Jericho, PHA; General Conference Grand Deputy for the Jurisdiction of North Carolina Heroines of Jericho, PHA; and Honorary Past Grand Matron, North Carolina Grand Court Heroines of Jerocho, PHA.

She was a member of St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church and was actively involved in the Senior Choir, Sattelfield-Davis Auxiliary and Stewardess Board #1.

Gladys A. Dawkins had a great zest for life, love for her fellow man, true to her beliefs and an undying love for her family. She leaves to cherish her memories: one sister, whom she reared, Alvera A. Thompson of Silver Spring, Maryland; two brothers-in-law, Eddie Hopkins of Durham, North Carolina and James G. Thompson of Silver Spring, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Katie C. Arnold of Raleigh, North Carolina; twelve nieces and nephews and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.

23 Psalm

THE LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil; for thou art with me thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

From: R. Kelly Bryant, Jr., Right Worshipful Grand Secretary

Subject: Mr. Bernard A. Day

This letter comes to speak in behalf of Mr. Bernard Aaron Day who is applying for the position of manager of the parking facility which we are now using on Chapel Hill Street. We have known Mr. Day since he was about 15 years old. We knew his father and mother very well.

During these many years I have known of his good character, his love for his family and of his christian home family life. He was at one time employed at the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company where we were employed in official capacities. We had the opportunity to watch him work and he performed very well. He was dependable and a steady worker.

We have observed him in his position at the parking lot for a number of years now. We are not sure but we have been parking in several spaces in that lot since 1981. At no time have we found fault of any kind of his services. He has always given us prompt consideration of our problems and he has worked with us on securing additional spaces when they were needed. As we have observed him working with others and working with the public, we agree that he has always been observed as being professional.

We fully recommend him to you as a person of good character, industrious, dependable, knowledgeable, and a good worker. Further, we recommend that he be promoted to the position of the parking lot.

Yours very truly,

R. Kelly Bryant, Jr.

Obituary

MRS. DOROTHY LEE DAY, daughter of the late Sidney and Minnie Wright, was born January 27, 1923, in Franklin County, North Carolina and departed this life Wednesday evening, September 2, 1987 at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

Believing and trusting in God's word, she was baptized at South Main Street Baptist Church, Louisburg, North Carolina at an early age.

She was a Girl Scout Leader when she was in good health.

She was a member of the Missionary Group #1 and secretary of this group at Mt. Gilead until her health failed.

She was a member of the United Order of the Tent Sisters, Tent No. 503 of Durham, North Carolina.

She was married to Bernard Aaron Day and made their home here in Durham, North Carolina.

She was a devoted and loving wife and mother.

Mrs. Day loved Mount Gilead and desired to be at church frequently, but was unable due to failing health.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. Bernard Day; one son, Christopher Aaron Day of the home; cousins, Mrs. Lillie Daves and Mr. William Telfair, both of Los Angeles, Calif; Mrs. Naomi Cannon of Raleigh, N.C., Miss Mary Leon Brodie of Franklinton, N.C., Mrs. Mary E. Richardson of Warrenton, N.C., Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Miss Catherine Telfair, Mr. Earl Telfair and Mr. James O. Hampton, all of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Susie Solomon and Mrs. Elizabeth Glasco, both of Englewood, N.J., Mrs. Laura Telfair of Newark, N.J. and Miss Mattie Brodie of New York City; and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

*If we put our problems in God's hand,
There is nothing we need understand—
It is enough to just believe
That what we need we will receive.*

*You can't pluck a rose
All fragrant with dew
Without part of the fragrance
Remaining on you!*

Obituary

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be pain; for the former things are passed away. Revelation 21:4

Mrs. Annie Rogers Daye was born in Durham County, North Carolina on July 26, 1915 to the late Eugene and Annie Bell Rogers and attended the Durham County public schools.

On August 12, 1933, she married the late Rev. L. E. Daye. To this union four children were born.

She was a long time resident of Durham. She was a member of the Saint John Baptist Church for several years before returning to her home church, Rogers Grove Baptist Church. At Rogers Grove, she was active as a member of the Betty Bailey Sunday School Class, President of the Missionary Society, member of the Usher Board, member of the Evergreen Floral Club and work tirelessly with other activities in the church. She also served actively as a member of the Executive Board of the East Cedar Grove Association: serving as Corresponding Secretary, Worship Chairperson and a member of the Trustee Board.

Mrs. Daye served faithfully as a long-termed president of the Hayestown Community's Lamplighters Club and as a member of several other community organizations.

She was a devoted and loving mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt. She leaves to cherish her memories three daughters: Audrey D. Hicks of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Shirley D. Price of Durham, North Carolina, Yvonne D. Daniel of Hyattsville, Maryland; one son: Charles E. Daye of Brookeville, Maryland; one sister: Alma R. Jackson of Oxon Hill, Maryland; three brothers: Clifton Rogers and Eugene Rogers of Wake Forest, North Carolina and Mercury Rogers of Alexandria, Virginia; one aunt: Minnie Rogers of Durham, North Carolina, one son-in-law: Carl Hicks, Sr. of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; one daughter-in-law: Jacqueline G. Daye of Brookeville, Maryland; three sisters-in-laws: Mollie C. Rogers, Fannie Mae Daye and Addie Daye of Durham, North Carolina; one brother-in-law: Otha Daye of Durham, North Carolina; five grandsons, two granddaughters, three great grandchildren; a god-child: Sharon Barbee, a devoted friend: Purvis E. Noell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*A precious one has gone from us, a voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our hearts, which no one else can fill.
For the priceless gift of love as only she could give,
Following her example, she will always live.*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years;
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name live on
And do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

OBITUARY

Mr. William H. "Billy" Daye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Daye, was born in Durham, North Carolina on July 11, 1941, and departed this life Friday, June 23, 1989, at Duke Medical Center.

Mr. Daye was a 1961 graduate of Merrick-Moore High School and attended North Carolina Central University. He joined Mt. Zoar Baptist Church at an early age, and remained a faithful member until his death. "Billy" served in the U.S. Army from 1961 until 1963. He was employed at IBM for the past 25 years.

He was united in holy matrimony to Ms. Geraldine Miller in 1964. To this union three children were born. He was a faithful and devoted husband and father. "Billy", as he was affectionately known, was a likeable person and had a smile for everyone. He had a special talent for carpentry, and willingly shared his talents with relatives, neighbors and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Geraldine Miller Daye; three sons, William H. Daye II, Rodney B. Daye, and Michael K. Daye, all of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Daye; three brothers, Thomas Daye, Douglas Daye and Paul Daye, all of Durham, North Carolina; four nephews, one niece, several aunts and uncles, and many other relatives and friends

DEATH IS ONLY A PART OF LIFE

We enter this world
from "THE GREAT UNKNOWN"
And God gives each SPIRIT
a form of its own
To spur man on
to his ultimate goal . . .
For all men are born to RETURN as they CAME
And birth and death
are in essence the same
And man is but born,
to die and arise
For beyond this world
in beauty there lies
The purchase of death
which is but to gain
LIFE EVERLASTING
in GOD'S GREAT DOMAIN . . .
and no one need make
this journey alone
For GOD has promised to take care of HIS own.
