Perhaps you sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent some flowers
If so we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
That any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever deed great or small
We wish to thank you for it all.

He Maketh No Mistake

My Father's way may twist and turn,
My heart may throb and ache,
But in my soul I'm glad I know,
He maketh no mistake.

My cherished plans may go astray,
My hopes may fade away,
But still I'll trust my Lord to lead
For He doth know the way.

Thou' night be dark and it may seem
That day will never break;
I'll put my faith, my all in Him,
He maketh no mistake.

There's no much now I cannot see,
My eyesight's far too dim;
But come what may, I'll simply trust,
And leave it all to Him.

For he and by the unit with Him
And please it all He'll make.

Obituary

ALEXANDER G. FAUCETTE, SR. was born on February 13, 1915 in Efland, NC. Affectionately known to his friends as "A. G.," he departed this life on May 3, 1995 at his home in South Orange, NJ.

Alexander was the sixth child of Claude Faucette, a minister and the proprietor of a local store, and the former Minnie Corde, a school teacher. His siblings were: Evander, Milton, Thomas, Beatrice, LaFayette, Amos, and Fannie. His maternal grandparents were the Reverend A. J. Corde, who organized an A. M. E. Church in Efland, NC, and the former Fannie Williams.

He attended public school in Greensboro, NC, graduating from Dudley High School. He married Eloise Hall in 1934 in a union that lasted almost 55 years, and which produced six children. The couple moved from Greensboro to make their home in Washington, DC. There, Alexander joined the ranks of the Union of the Sleeping Car Porters, traveling on the Atlantic Coast Line from Washington, DC to St. Petersburg, FL for about seven years.

In 1948, with his wife, he opened the El Rocco Club, restaurant and supper club which became well known throughout the southeast for its Southern cuisine and fine entertainment. During the era of segregation, it was the only place in Greensboro where African-Americans could enjoy what was called "New York" entertainment. As a restaurateur and promoter, Alexander arranged bookings at the Club through New York talent agencies for jazz greats including Duke Ellington, Sarah Vaughn, Little Jimmy Scott and Ruth Brown. During the days of Rhythm and Blues, the Club featured artists including The Platters, Smokey Robinson and The Miracles, The Drifters, The Coasters, Jackie Wilson, Sam Cooke, Jerry Butler, Ben E. King, Curtis Mayfield and The Impressions, Otis Redding, Ike and Tina Turner, Gladys Knight and The Pips, Wilson Pickett, and James Brown. The club also featured comedy acts, including: Jackie "Moms" Mabley, Redd Foxx, Pigmeat Markham, Baby Seals, and Pinkie Lee. The Club has been chronicled in the history of the "Chitlin' Circuit," a reference to a string of African-American entertainment centers along the East Coast that thrived during segregation.

In addition to the El Rocco, Alexander and Eloise also operated a coffee shop at the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital and the Lunch-eonette at the King Cotton Hotel. Alexander was a past president of the North Carolina Restaurant Association. The couple retired from the business in 1970 and moved to Long Island, NY.

Alexander was a member of Bethel A. M. E. Church in Greensboro, NC. On Long Island, he worshipped at Union Baptist Church in Hempstead. He relocated to South Orange, NJ in 1991 following the death of his wife, and later joined St. Matthew A. M. E. Church in Orange, NJ.

Alexander leaves to mourn his passing: six children, Doris Drake of Irvington, NJ, Helen Faucette of New York City, Rev. Alexander Faucette, Jr. and Amos Faucette of Greensboro, NC, Jeanette Brummell and Joyce Faucette Farmer of South Orange, NJ; daughter-in-law, Katie Faucette; sons-in-law, Wilbur Drake, William Brummell and Kent Farmer; a sister-in-law, Mary McDaniel; brother-and sister-in-law, Robert and Jean Hall; eleven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends.

The 23^d Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Appreciation

*"Perhaps you prayed a fervent prayer,
Sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair.*

Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,

If so, we saw them there,

Perhaps you were not there at all..

just thought of us that day.

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words

as a friend could say,

perhaps you prepared some tasty food or maybe furnished a car,

Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,

Near at hand or from afar.

Whatever you did to console the heart...

We thank you so much, whatever the part."

THE FLOWERS on the Altar are given to the Glory of God and in Thanksgiving for the Life of Anthony Wayne Faucette by his Family.

I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE, saith the Lord: He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

I KNOW THAT MY REDEEMER LIVETH, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though this body be destroyed, yet shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger.

WE BROUGHT NOTHING INTO THIS WORLD, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

CECELIA GLADYS FAUCETTE was born in Franklin County, North Carolina on December 6, 1902 to Louis Henry and Pauline Perry. She was educated and attended The Berry O'Kelly School, Wake County, North Carolina in 1921. She became employed at the Watts Street School Cafeteria, and there she met and married the late Henry Martin Faucette in 1922.

From that union six children were born to wit: Mattie Faucette Hall, of Kirkwood, Missouri; the late Margaret Faucette, Paul McLean Faucette, of Spring Valley, California, Mildred Faucette Jones, of Kirkwood, Missouri, Cecelia Faucette Cook of Vauxhall, New Jersey, and Henry Louis Faucette of Durham, North Carolina; a granddaughter, who was more than a daughter, Emma Burton Wise of Holly Springs, North Carolina; a loving and faithful foster daughter, Ann Richardson Harris of Winston-Salem North Carolina.

Mrs. Faucette became a member of the White Rock Baptist Church in 1922, shortly after her marriage. Her entire life was given in service to her community and her fellow man. As a foster parent mother, she made a significant impact on the lives of more than 19 children.

She participated and remained active in all her church and community organizations until her illness. She served in the Philathea Sunday School Class, Lyon Park District, Effie W. Cotton District, the Sarah E. Smith District, a member of the Gospel Chorus, Sylvia Williams Missionary, a member of the Deaconess Board, and a member of the Board of Christian Education.

Mrs. Faucette was a woman of great presence who possessed the gift of wisdom, love, friendship and devotion. Integrity and honesty were second nature to her. "Be a person of your word was her conviction." She will surely be missed.

She leaves to mourn her children mentioned above; her much loved and appreciative step-children, Marion Faucette Byrd of Albany, New York, Mary Faucette Way of Upland, California and Harold C. Faucette, New Haven, Conn.; twelve grand-children; nine great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

but this I know — Come toil or rest
God always sends me what is best*

*And when life's evening shadows

Thy way is best.*

A Traveler Coming Home
A traveler ventured forth one day
Upon a long and winding road
With faith and trust to lead the way,
With strength and will to bear his load.
And at a slow but steady pace,
In cold of storm, in warmth of sun,
He journeyed on from place to place.
And gained some value from each one.
Until at last one quiet night,
He climbed a hill's soft-rounding crest
And saw afar a single light
That seemed to promise peace and rest.
And following its glow, he came
Upon the house in which it shone.
A voice inside called out his name
And told him he was truly home.
Now all of us must travel, too -
Like his, our paths wind slowly on,
And surely when the course is through,
A welcome comfort waits beyond.
May we believe that sweet content
Is earned by all those miles passed,
And never doubt each traveler's meant
To reach a loving home at last.

Faucette Last Rites Not Set Yet

"Uncle" Lindsey Faucette, Durham's oldest active merchant until his recent retirement at 98 and a venerable City landmark, died at 8 a.m. yesterday as he had wished, on a Sunday, at his residence, 109 South Alston Ave. He had been ill two weeks.

He attributed his longevity to faith, the Golden Rule and a small appetite. He was a deacon in the White Rock Baptist Church for 61 years, and on Sept. 10, 1951, he was honored with a testimonial service at the church. He would have been 99 years old next Nov. 16.

He was born in Orange County on the Norwood Plantation, an old Southern estate later known as the Occoneechee Farm, near Hillsboro.

When he was a young man he came to Durham, and soon established a draying business which blossomed into a thriving occupation. He had the patronage of students at Trinity College (now Duke University), the University of North Carolina, and North Carolina College. By giving a commission to those who worked for him, Faucette soon cornered the drayage market here. At the peak of his business he owned five trucks, two double teams and three single teams.

He had many friends, white and Negro, and they patronized his confectionary stand after he left the drayage business about 16 years ago. His stand, "The Old Reliable," was on South Church Street.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete today.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Annie Morrow of Efland; four daughters, Mrs. Cleopatra Mauney, Mrs. Margaret Shelley, both of Durham, Mrs. Goldie Hereford of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Cammie Walker of Atlanta, Ga.; 14 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Funerals

LINDSEY FAUCETTE

Mr. Faucette, who was a native of Orange County, came to Durham as a young man to establish a drayage business. He was a deacon in the White Rock Baptist Church for 61 years.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Annie Morrow of Efland, five daughters, Mrs. Cleopatra Mauney, Mrs. Margaret Shelley of Durham, Mrs. Goldie Hereford of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Cammie Walker of Atlanta, Ga. There are fourteen grand children and six great grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

AMAZING GRACE, HOW SWEET THE SOUND

Amazing grace how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that cross appear,
The hour I first believed!

Thro' my dangers, toils and snares,
I have already some;
'Tis grace has bro't me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

I AM BOUND FOR THE PROMISED LAND

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
Toward Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

Chorus
I am bound for the promised land,
I am bound for the promised land
Oh, who will come and go with me,
I am bound for the promised land.

O'er all those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day,
There God the Son of ever reigns,
And scatters night away.

When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in His bosom rest?

Filled with delight my raptured soul,
Would here no longer say;
Through Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

Mrs. MARGARET RUFFIN FAUCETTE, also known as "Maggie" Faucette, was born in 1822 in Hillsborough, North Carolina, and was the daughter of Jesse Ruffin (1806-March 1, 1901) and Rebecca "Becky" Norwood Ruffin (1808-1880). Her parents were married in 1829 in the manner in which slaves were married. Margaret Ruffin was married to William Faucette and they were parents of thirteen children. The children were: Jesse Faucette Norwood, Sallie Faucette Badie, Thomas Faucette, William "Bill" Faucette, Lindsey N. Faucette, Cornelia Faucette Mangum, Carolina Faucette Monroe, Annie Faucette, Beannie Poole Morgan, and Nannie Gazella Cooper. The children were born on the John W. Norwood (lawyer) plantation, now known as the Occaneechi Farm near Hillsborough in Orange County, North Carolina. Margaret Ruffin Faucette's ancestors were of the Occfanechi Indian tribe from the Indian reservation. She departed this life on October 21, 1920.

William Faucette, her husband, was a slave on the plantation of David Faucette in Orange County. When David Faucette died in 1824, William, a boy, was sold to Joseph Faucette for $100.00. He had a brother, Alexander Faucette, who was on Joseph Faucette's plantation. Alexander Faucette married Caroline McCully and they had seven sons and three daughters. The known children were: James Faucette, Major Faucette, Claude Faucette, Floyd Faucette, Frank Faucette, Edward Faucette, William F. Faucette, Annie Faucette, Mariah Faucette and Linda Faucette.

Jesse Faucette, Margaret Ruffin Faucette's oldest son, went with the Graham family to Georgia and took the name of Norwood. He married and lived in Atlanta and would come to Durham to visit his brother Henry and his family. Jesse's known children were: Ida Norwood, Maggie Norwood, John Norwood, Thomas "Tom" Norwood, Edward "Ed" Norwood, Fannie Norwood, George Norwood and Lucious Norwood..

Grandmother was not a field slave, but lived in the home of her mistress where she learned some of the finer things of life that her mistress enjoyed in the big house, such as the feel of fine silks and the use of crystal and china.

From observations and with very little tutoring, she taught herself to read, and the Bible was her constant companion. She was a devout Christian and sought every opportunity to let everyone with whom she came in contact know about the God she served, and tell of His goodness and sang of His praises.

Upon moving from Hillsborough to the station Durham, for a while she found lodging in the home of Mrs. Sallie Husband. Being a woman of prayer, she was found wherever there was a prayer meeting going on, this being any place that they could find -- often under a shed or grape harbor-- to praise God for His kindness, guidance and protection. She had a burning desire to have a definite place of worship, so in 1866 she invited Rev. Samuel "Daddy" Hunt, who was an early preacher to blacks in Durham, Mrs. Sallie Husband, Mr. Joshua Perry, Mr. Gos Lee and Mrs. Malissa Lee to come and have prayer meeting with her in her room.. it was there that WHITE ROCK BAPTIST CHURCH was born. They later moved in a frame building on

White Rock Baptist
Founder - Faucette

Pettigrew Street, and when this church was erected, it was Mrs. Margaret Ruffin Faucette who gave the first $1.00 towards the new building. When the building was completed, it was Mr. Gos Lee who suggested the name "White Rock" from a large white flint rock found in the yard in front of the church. Thus, the name WHITE ROCK BAPTIST CHURCH.

"Grandmother soon moved to live with her daughter, Mrs. Nannie G. Cooper, who was my mother," said Mrs. Nannie James Greene. "I had the privilege and pleasure of living briefly under her Christian influence during the early years of my life. It was my mother who related to me how grandmother professed faith in Christ at an early age and how people during and after slavery had to worship wherever and whenever they could, often under adverse circumstances."

"I was told as Dorcas in the Bible went around doing almsdeeds, so it was with grandmother. When there was sickness in the neighborhood, she mad soup and packed her basket, threw her shawl around her shoulders and away she would go to do her deeds of love and kindness. No grandchild, or young person visited her without receiving her blessing. The blessing was a kiss, a piece of candy that she had saved for such an occasion, or bread and butter with preserves, or a little cinnamon sprinkled on the bread and butter."

"I am happy to say that this bit of her hospitality has drifted down among her children and grandchild, and I hope it will continue to live on. Mother said grandmother had a song in her heart at all times as she sent about her work, she said these are some of the songs she sang:

"Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound"
"I'm Bound for the Promised Land"
A Charge to Keep I Have, A God to Glorify"
"Soon I Will Be Done With the Troubles of This World"
"Go Down Moses, Tell Ole Pharaoh to Let My People Go"

She passed the three score years and ten and reached the age of 98 years. Had two of her children lived a month longer they would have been centurions --100 years old. She was buried in the old Geer Cemetery located on Colonial Street and Camden Avenue off Avondale Avenue in Durham.

We, the grandchildren, great grands, and great great grandchildren of this Christian woman are happy to the fullest extent to have this opportunity to honor our grandmother tonight as one of the founders of White Rock Baptist Church.. Her Christian influence will ever live on in us. She lit the torch of that great church and has passed it on to us with the words "carry on." As long as there is a White Rock Baptist Church, the name MARGARET RUFFIN FAUCETTE will live. It is the desire and determination of her descendants to do their part to help it continue to live.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took his hand when I heard His call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savoured much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Paul McLean Faucette was a man tall in both stature and character.

Although he had a quiet and somewhat shy demeanor, he had a keen mind and wry sense of humor. A man of faith, he was born to Cecelia Gladys Faucette and Henry Martin Faucette, on July 19, 1928, in Durham, North Carolina. At a very young age, Paul accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at White Rock Baptist Church in Durham, North Carolina by Reverend Miles Mark Fisher. It is significant to note, White Rock was founded in the living room of the home of Paul's grandmother, Margaret Faucette.

After graduating from Hillside High School, Paul proudly served his country by enlisting in the United States Army in 1948. After completing his four year tour of duty, Paul enrolled at A&T State University in Greensboro, North Carolina, where he graduated in 1957 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering. While in college, Paul met his future wife Myrtle Olivine Cunningham. Paul and Myrtle were wed on August 30, 1959, in the Church of the Redeemer, in Greensboro, North Carolina. The couple later moved to San Diego, California where they took jobs and excelled in their respective professions, Myrtle, in education and Paul in the aerospace industry.

Two sons, Brian and Anthony, were born to this union. With a young family to raise and revere in the knowledge of faith and love of the Lord, the family became active members of All Saints Episcopal Church in San Diego where both sons served as altar boys. The eldest son, Brian Faucette, graduated from Point Loma Nazarene University, where he majored in music and computer science. Anthony Faucette, graduated from San Diego State University. Following graduation, Anthony entered and graduated from the San Diego County Sheriff's Academy. Shortly afterwards, while assigned as a sheriff, to the George Bailey Detention Facility, in 1994, Anthony died from an unexpected illness. Only two years later, Paul's beloved wife of thirty-seven years, Myrtle, also died.

Several years later, the Lord saw fit in His will and through some dear friends, to introduce Paul to Olivia Gilliam. Olivia became a new joy and blessing in Paul's life. Paul and Olivia developed a wonderful, loving and caring relationship that brought together two families, Paul's and Olivia's, as only the Lord could have done. Paul began worshiping with Olivia at Christ United Presbyterian Church in San Diego where he eventually joined and became an active member. Paul and Olivia's faith, love and relationship saw them through several of Paul's illnesses including a kidney transplant in 2003. Unfortunately, Paul's health again began to fail, but not before he had time to get his affairs in order and make peace with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Paul died peacefully at home, surrounded by loved ones, on Friday, February 2, 2007. He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Brian Faucette; companion, Olivia Gilliam and her family; sisters, Mary Faucette Way, Mattie Faucette Hall, Mildred Faucette Jones (Carl) and Cecilia Faucette Cook; brother, Henry Louis Faucette (Paulette), as well as many nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Durham, North Carolina

Biography

A. Marie Faulk was born July 30, 1905 in Hertford, North Carolina. Her parents were the late Hiram Faulk and Auzulia Mitchell Faulk of Perquimans County, North Carolina. Marie started grade school in Wilson, NC and attended a normal school in Henderson, NC. Her mother met Dr. James Shepard (founder of North Carolina Central University) at the Lott Carey Convention in 1919 and informed him that she was looking for a school for her daughter who was now in the eighth grade. So, instead of returning to Henderson, Marie's mother accepted Dr. Shepard's invitation to have her daughter attend the State Normal School in Durham to complete grade school. While in Durham, Marie also completed the two-year teacher training program (the National Training School). Marie taught several places in North Carolina before returning to Durham in 1931 to work and continue her education. While working as a teacher, Marie attended summer school and extension programs at Winston-Salem State University, Hampton University and NCCU, earning her undergraduate degree in 1941 from North Carolina College. Marie served the state of North Carolina and the Durham Community as an educator for over 40 years, with thirty-nine of those years at Lyon Park School, before retiring in 1971.

Marie has been a member of St. Joseph's AME Church for over 50 years. She served as Sunday School teacher and superintendent. She was also affiliated with the Ladies Aide Club and Lay Organization. On June 11, 1955, Marie was initiated into the Durham graduate chapter (Alpha Zeta Omega) of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She has the distinct title of a Golden Soror since she has been a member of the sorority for over 51 years. Marie has served the Durham Community as a volunteer at the YWCA, Duke Hospital, and the Lincoln Hospital.

For many years Marie's birthday has been a day of celebration with friends. "Thank You Marie" for your unconditional friendship and love.

In Memoriam

God saw the road had gotten rough,
With the hills too hard to climb, as he traveled alone.
So He gently closed his loving eyes.
And whispered; "Peace be thine."

It's sweet to think we will meet again,
Where parting will be no more;
And we know the one we love,
Has only gone on before.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days but fill each waking hour in useful ways.*

*Reach out your hand in Comfort and in Cheer
And I, in turn, will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*
