Proverbs 18:24

"There are friends who pretend to be friends, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother." (RSV)

In times like these, we are thankful for the comfort of so many people who cared for Annie H. Goode and for her family. It is good to know that we do not stand alone, for "no man is an island, entire unto himself." We are part of the loving body of Christ. -- The Family

*There seems a shadow on the day,
Her smile no longer cheers;
A dimness on the stars at night,
Like eyes that look through tears.*

*Alone unto our Father's will
One thought that reconciled;
That He whose love exceedeth ours
Hath taken home His child*

And let her henceforth be
A messenger of love between

Obituary

Annie Hester Goode was born in Warren County, NC, June 1, 1920, the daughter of the late Horace and Catherine Goode. She departed this life and entered into the joy of the Lord on October 22, 1999.

After serving several years in the 318th Army Air Force, Pope Unit, Annie Goode was honorably discharged on July 2, 1946, at Fort Bragg, NC. She was decorated with the American Theater Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, and World War II Victory Medal. She then made her home in Durham, NC where she resided for more than 50 years. Always one to keep her sharp mind and loving hands busy, she was graduated from Durham Business College and DeShazor Beauty College. Annie Goode's love for helping and nursing others took her to the VA Hospital in Durham where she worked for more than 20 years in various capacities. She retired in 1983 as an Inhalation Therapist.

Aside from her work responsibilities, Annie Goode was a dedicated church worker. She loved the Lord and she loved White Rock Baptist Church where she was a member for more than 50 years. She was not only on the roll, but was an active member of the Tempie Whitted Sunday School Class, Missionary Circle, Gospel Choir, Addie Torrence District and was a in regular attendance at the Noon Day Prayer Group and Bible Study. Annie Goode rejoiced when she was added to the Deaconesses Board. She took this role seriously and served faithfully until ill health ended her service. Just a week ago, Annie Goode was honored (in absentia) by the White Rock Baptist Church Deaconesses Board and was named "Deaconess Emeritus."

Her activities in the community were numerous. Her Masonic affiliations included Drucilla Chapter #19, Order of the Eastern Star; University Assembly #218, Order of the Golden Circle, Cyrene Crusader, and Heroines of Jericho. Community organizations included the Forties Club; American Legion Women's Auxiliary; and the National Council of Negro Women. She organized and was the first president of the Fisher Heights Community Group.

Annie Goode never neglected her family. She was a good mother to "her child" Lena. She surrounded "her boys" and others with love. She always had more than enough energy, time, and joy for talking that gained her many friends and extended families during her life journey.

She leaves to celebrate a life of service: "her child," Lena; her "one and only" son-in-law, Rev. Cureton L. Johnson; "her boys," Paul and Cureton; her sister and confidante for over 40 years, Mary C. Thomas (Robert); a brother, Walter; "her granddaughter," Vernetta Alexander (Allen); a devoted nephew, Al Goode (Joyce); "her special nieces and nephews" from the Thomas and Horton families; devoted cousins Lee and Mildred Goode; Life long friends in Durham, NC, Special Friends at First Baptist Church and the Fayetteville Community.

We know that we have passed out of death into life. John 5:14

Dedication To My Dad

My name is Lee Merritt, Jr., the son of Lee Merritt Goode, Sr.

I found my dad to be very enriching, tolerant, intelligent, devoted, strong and kind in many ways. I know that we all have short comings and problems.

I found him to be positive and a man who had an educated demeanor.

I loved my dad very much and he was the greatest.

He was more than just my dad; he was an excellent role model for me to emulate during my youth. My dad and I had a strong bond

of love and I enjoyed his company.

Because of my dad, I have learned to avoid many situations that could have been detrimental to me.

I just want to say I loved him very much.

With All My Love,

Lee M. Goode, Jr.

THERE'S SUNSHINE IN A SMILE

*Life is a mixture
of sunshine and rain,
Laughter and pleasure,
teardrops and pain,
All days can't be bright,
but it's certainly true,
There was never a cloud
the sun didn't shine through—
So just keep on smiling
whatever betide you,
Secure in the knowledge
God is always beside you,
And you'll find when you smile
your day will be brighter
And all of your burdens
will seem so much lighter—
For each time you smile
you will find it is true
Somebody, somewhere
will smile back at you,
And nothing on earth
can make life more worthwhile
Than the sunshine and warmth
of a beautiful smile.*

MRS. BETTY WILSON GOODLOE

O B I T U A R Y

For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand.
2 Timothy 4:6

Mrs. Betty Wilson Goodloe, 119 Masondale Avenue, Durham, North Carolina died at her home early Sunday morning, June 2, 1991 after many months of declining health.

Mrs. Goodloe, a native of Baltimore, Maryland, was born December 5, 1900 to the late Peter Mitchell Wilson and Emma Jackson Wilson. After graduating at age 16, as valedictorian of her high school class, she attended Norman School and Business College. She completed her schooling in 1918, graduating as a highly skilled grammarian, office administrator and stenographer.

Through her great uncles, who were among the founders of the Southern Aid Life Insurance Company in Richmond, VA, she was placed in her first business position at North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. During her tenure, she became executive secretary and attained the job title, Editor of the Whetstone.

She married young executive, Joseph W. Goodloe in 1936. After marriage, she took leave from North Carolina Mutual employment. A daughter, Betty Jo, was born and it was several years before Mrs. Goodloe returned to work. In 1948 she accepted a position as Secretary to the President, at the then North Carolina College. She served two presidents: Dr. A. Elder and Dr. Samuel Massey.

Mrs. Goodloe was a person devoted to private charitable acts. If someone was in need, especially a college student, she was always willing to lend assistance. If a child needed a special contribution for his/her personal development, she always gave it. In support of her husband's civic work, she took a personal interest in the welfare of young people living at the Central Orphanage.

She loved nature and all helpless creatures, even stranded birds and squirrels could find help at her door.

After retirement, Mrs. Goodloe became active in the Durham Arts Council and the Senior Citizens Coordinating Council. She was serving as secretary to the council in 1979, when her husband was disabled by a severe stroke.

Giving up all activities, Mrs. Goodloe served as her husbands's loyal companion until his death in November 1990. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, who taught that style, substance, and duty are all necessary for the well-lived life.

Mrs. Goodloe is survived by her daughter, Betty Jo Goodloe Cook, two grandsons, William Edward Merritt IV and Joseph Goodloe Cook, and a son-in-law, Willie Cook, all of whom reside in Berkley, California; a nephew, James Wilson Henson of Philadelphia, a great niece, Mrs. April Henson Moses, two great great nieces, Melanie and Amy Moses, a great great Nephew, John Moses and several cousins.

Someone has said that the remarkable thing about great human beings is that they live on long after their hearts stop beating. Believing this to be true, we know that Mrs. Goodloe lives on in so many ways.

I Do Not Go Alone

*If Death should beckon me with outstretched hand
And whisper softly of "An Unknown Land
I shall not be afraid to go,
Although the path I do not know
I take Death's hand without a fear
For He who safely brought me here,
Will also take me safely back
And although in many things I lack
He will not let me go alone
Into the "Valley That's Unknown"
So I reach out and take Death's hand
And journey to the "Promised Land"!*

Death Came Quickly

*Death came quickly and gave me gentle sleep.
To those that I leave behind, please don't you weep,
The good Lord giveth and at times, He takes away.

*Rejoice now and celebrate, the life he gave to me,
All things that happen, are surely meant to be,
When I was alive, you were all so dear,
If you remember the good times, you'll feel that I am near.*

*It's times like these, that weigh heavy on the heart,
Put a smile on your face, and make a brand new start.
Family and friends I loved, please don't you weep,
Death came quickly and gave me gentle sleep.*
