OBITUARY

NETTIE LUCILE JOHNSON HANCOCK was born December 25, 1909 in Morganton, North Carolina. She was the first of three children of Lucious and Nettie Lytle Johnson. The family moved to Durham, North Carolina around 1919.

Lucile was educated in the Durham City Schools and was graduated from Hillside High School in 1926. Upon graduation from Hillside High School, she entered North Carolina College, now North Carolina Central University. She was graduated from North Carolina College with a B.S. Degree in Mathematics in 1930 Following graduation she became an educator in the Durham City Schools where she served faithfully, but her duties did not stop there; they extended in to the community where she helped as many people (both children and adults) as she could.

She later worked at the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company until retiring in the late 1970's.

Early in life Mrs. Hancock became a member of St. Joseph's AME Church where she served faithfully in many capacities until her health began to decline. She was a member of the Ladies Aid Society at St. St. Joseph's and served as secretary for several years.

Mrs. Hancock was a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

She leaves to mourn their loss her brother, Erwin Johnson and devoted niece, Jane Johnson with whom she resided until her departure from this life. Also surviving are a nephew, Arthur Johnson of Virginia a sister-in-law, Frieda S. Johnson of Raleigh, a niece, Connie J. Cheek and two nephews, James and Brian Johnson, all of Raleigh, and a host of loving and caring friends.

THE PEACE THAT SURPASSES UNDERSTANDING

Into the shadows where we could confide;
He just wanted me to walk closer to His side.
On the other shore of life's tide;
In His peace I now abide.

Like the sunshine after the rain;
Like peaceful rest that follows pain,
Like the soft refreshing dew,
Like rosey daybreak new.
Like a river deep and long,
With its current, creaseless, strong.
Like the planted seed must change it's form,
So must I to be reborn.

His eternal promises still ring true.
His peace He gave for me and you.
Safe in his arms on His gentle breast;
Free from all doubts and fears, I rest.

A Christian Father

A Christian father is special. Though he works hard every day. He will find the time to fix a toy, or teach a child to pray.

He has a patient, compassionate ear and a word of sound advice. He puts family needs before his own, though it cost a sacrifice.

He knows when to admonish, yet he knows how to forgive. He points his children to the gospel as the guide by which to live.

You'll know a Christian father, for his children all are glad, to have him as a father and proud to call him Dad.

Obituary

Sometimes things happen that make us ask, "Why God?" and all we can do is look to Him in faith - not understanding, just believing. I really think that this is one of those times. I don't understand the why, but one thing I do know is that God is still God and that He is needed now more than ever before.

Mr. Elvis C. "L.C." Handsome, son of Mittie and Lonzy Handsome, was born February 13, 1957 in Halifax County, NC. He departed this walk of life January 31, 2002 at his home.

He graduated from Weldon High School. He received several certifications from Tarboro Community College. He attended Elizabeth State University.

He retired from Kodak as a telemaintenance and dispatcher worker.

At an early age he joined Twilight Baptist Church; later in life he became a member of the Church of God of Prophecy, where he received his lay minister license. He served the church as a Sunday School teacher, Director of Men's Ministry Department, treasurer advisor and Food Bank Coordinator.

He was always an outgoing, caring person. He assisted where ever needed, and truly loved his family.

He was united in marriage to Jan Johnson on February 9, 1985, to this union three children were born, one of which Shaun Michael Handsome preceded him in death.

He was also preceded in death by one brother Earl Wayne Handsome.

He leaves to cherish his memory, His wife Mrs. Jan Handsome of the home; two daughters, Ashley and Kayla Handsome, both of the home; parents Mittie and Lonzy Handsome of Roanoke Rapids, NC, five sisters, Mrs Lottie Robinson (Herbert), Jessene Howard (Earnest), Mary Handsome, Leola Howard (Cornelius) all of Weldon, NC, and Ethel Rascoe (Ronald) of Raleigh, NC; three brothers, Thomas Handsome (Shirley), Donnell Handsome (Malinda), Marvin Handsome (Carolee) all of Weldon, NC; mother in law Pearl Riley Johnson, sister in law Sheila Barnes (Tony), brother in laws, Lawerence and Larry Johnson, all of Durham, NC; several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and a host of loving relatives and friends.

RESOLUTION

GILBERT E. HARDEN

With profound sorrow, the Durham Chapter of the Hampton Alumni Association and the National Hampton Alumni Association record the passing of one of our earnest and zealous members--GILBERT E. HARDEN.

Mr. Harden was graduated from the Hampton Institute Trade School where he completed work in the Tailoring Department. He became identified with the alumni association and upon his coming to Durham he joined the Durham Chapter.

Mr. Harden was a staunch supporter of our program and has served as our treasurer for more than twenty years. He has been active in the local and state meetings and has attended many of our national meetings. His active interest in and his work with the association were not lessened until his illness.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the members of the Durham Chapter of the Hampton Alumni Association express their deepest sympathy to the members of the family with the hope that they will be comforted in knowing that his memory will still live on.

Obituary

MRS. ISABELLA M. HARDEN, daughter of the late James Wesley Moffitt and Mrs. Mattie Link Moffitt, was born in Guilford County. She departed this life on October 17, 1988 at the Durham County General Hospital.

She attended and graduated from Dudley High School, Greensboro, North Carolina, Bennett College for Women, Greensboro, North Carolina and North Carolina Central University, Durham.

On moving to Durham in 1935, Isabella joined St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church. She was an active member of the Ladies Aid Society, and Stewardess Board No. III.

She began her teaching career with the Durham City School System in 1935 at the East End School. Her last employment was with the Lyon Park School and E.K. Powe School. She was also very active in a variety of community organizations.

Belle, as she was called, loved her nieces and nephews. She played an important supportive role in their lives!

Her husband, Gilbert Harden, preceded her in death.

Survivors include, one sister, Mrs. Eunice Nelson of New York City; three brothers, Mr. James L. Moffitt, Sr., of Durham, Mr. David Moffitt and Mr. Robert Moffitt, both of Washington, D.C.; eight nephews, ten nieces, and a number of other relatives and friends.

"Others"

Lord, help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.

Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true
And know that all I'd do for you,
Must needs be done for others.

Let "self" be crucified and slain
And buried deep, and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again
Unless to live for others.

And when my work on earth is done
And my new work in heaven's begun
May I forget the crown I've won
While thinking still of others.

Others, Lord; yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like thee.

LIFE STORY OF
GOLDIE IONIA GREEN HARGETT

Goldie Ionia was born to the late Frank and Bettie King Green of New York City, N. Y. on April 24, 1394. After the death of her father, when she was a young child, her mother moved to Kinston, N. C. where she completed the public schools. Later she attended and graduated from Ingleside Seminary and Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia.

At an early age she was converted in the Kinston Free Will Baptist Church, where she served faithfully as a Sunday School teacher and choir member. She taught for several years in the public schools of Lenoir County and Winston-Salem, N. C.

In April 1921, Goldie Green and Nathaniel Everett Hargett of Kinston and Durham, N. C. were joined in holy matrimony. To this union, eight children were born; of whom, two of them survived. From the beginning up to the last moment of breath the matrimonial vows and religious family life prevailed. They formed a cooperative family team in business and community service which kept her busy all of her life.

She was a loving and faithful wife; a thoughtful and loving mother, not only to her children but all whom she knew.

Interested in religious, fraternal, and community life, she affiliated herself with many organizations. Some of which are: Magnolia Chapter 23 of the Order of Eastern Star, serving as Worthy Matron, and the Grand Chapter of Order of Eastern Star, Khalif Court No. 90, serving as Past Illustrious Commandress, The Imperial Court, Daughters of Isis, serving as Past Imperial Commandress; and organizer of the North Carolina Funeral Directors and Morticians Association and the Ladies Auxiliary of the North Carolina Funeral Directors and Morticians Association; Trustee of Kittrell College; a charter member of the Warnersville Coterie Club of which she was Past President; the Iota Phi Lambda Sorority; and others too numerous to mention.

She joined Bethel AME Church where she served in every area of church life serving as Trustee, Steward, Treasurer of Conference Branch Missionary Society, General Officer and Chairman of many church boards; member of Mack Stradford Club, Susie B. Dudley Club, Floral Club, Progressive Club and Pastors' Aid.

Her untimely passing is mourned by many among whom are her husband, N. E. Hargett, Sr.; N. Everett Hargett, Jr.; a daughter, Launa Hargett Greene; one grandson, Brian Greene; a devoted niece, Ernestine S. Bynum; and a nephew, John C. Scarborough, Jr.; three adopted daughters, Mrs. Adline Martin Hargett Scott of Arlington, Va., Mrs. Lettie Martin James of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Aleen M. Green of Washington, D. C. and a host of relatives and friends.

Her smile and kind words brightened many and she lived her life as a lighthouse standing by life's sea.

Biographical Sketch

Such was the life of Nathaniel Everett Hargett, Jr., son of the late Nathaniel Everett Hargett, Sr. and Goldie Green Hargett , born December 26, 1927, in Durham, North Carolina. It was late Saturday evening, October 19, 2002, at Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital, Greensboro, North Carolina, when Everett was called "to walk through the valley of the shadow of death...and fear no evil."

Everett's parents relocated to Greensboro, where he grew into a fine young man, always well mannered and respectful to everyone. "Everett"' as he was affectionately called, was a graduate of the renowned Palmer Insitute, Sedalia, North Carolina, and was the chaffeur for Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, President of the school.

He further enhanced his education by receiving his Doctorate of Divinity from Allen University, Columbia, South Carolina, and received additional degrees from North Carolina A&T State University, Greensboro, North Carolina, Delaware State University, Dover, Delaware and from the Gupton-Jones School of Mortuary Science.

Having been prepared academically and having experience in the mortuary business, Everett became chairman of Hargett Funeral Service, Inc., one of the many businesses owned by the family. He owned and operated funeral establishments in Asheboro, Burlington, Chapel Hill, Concord, Greensboro, High Point, Mebane, Reidsville, Siler City and Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The proliferation of these establishments began through the diligence and hard work of his grandfather, the late Joseph C. Hargett, more than 100 years ago. The motto of the company depicts the spirit of their entrepreneurship, "A Family Tradition of Caring Service Since 1888 Where Sympathy Expresses Itself."

Dr. Hargett was a member of many professional, civic, and fraternal organizations, and received numerous awards, including: Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Certificate of Special Acknowledgement; North Carolina State Mortuary Science Degree, Edgecombe Technical College, Special Recognition, New Truth, Doctor of Divinity, 1971; New Truth, Certificate of Ordination, 1971; North Carolina Chapter of American College of Surgeons, Certificate for Transportation of the Injured; TrusteeEmeritus, Certificate of Appointment, African Methodist Episcopal Church; Certificate of Appreciation, City of Greensboro; North Carolina State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors in Embalming, 1958; The Directors of Society of the National Conference & Examiners of Morticians & Embalming, 1965; Certificate of Award by Scottish Rite Masonry; Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Membership Certificate, May 10 1949; Award from United Supreme Council 33°, 1953; Supreme Council, Grand Orient 33°, 1982; Imperial Council, 1946; Winston Mutual Life Award Director's Club, 1984; Certificate of Achievement, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, 1967; Lifetime Membership in National Geographic Society; Master Scuba Diver; Award from North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission; Solo, Cessner 172, February 13, 1973; and Century Club Member, YMCA.

Everett, a man of great distinction, also, had a love for God and was a member of Bethel AME Church, the family church. Dr. Hargett was full of humor, no faux or pretentious character. He exemplified a sincere legacy, one of a kind, and a giving spirit. And will always be remembered as "a man with a heart of gold."

He was predeceased in death by his parents and sister, Mrs. Launa Iona Hargett Greene. We as a family have love for one another, and will continue to nurture our strength of spirit, and trust in God. We know He is omnipresent and cares for us. Our prayer is that we will continue to use Him as our shield whenever sudden loss or misfortune falls our way, as it sometimes will.

Dr. Hargett leaves his legacy of love and precious memories to: the devoted and loving Mrs. Teena Hargett; a beloved son, N.E. Hargett, III; nephew, Brian H. Greene; cousins, J.C. "Skeepie" Scarborough, III, (Queen) Doris Bell Willie Banks, Charles Banks, Roxanne Banks, and Thelma Banks Johnson, The staff at Hargett Funeral Service, Inc. and a host of other relatives and numerous friends.

"Crossing the Bar"

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep
To fall for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

For though from out our borne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

L'ENVOY

When Earth's last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded, and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it-
lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of All Good Workmen shall put us to work anew.

And those that were good shall be happy:
they shall sit in a golden chair;
They shall splash at a ten-league canvas with brushes of comets' hair

They shall find real stains to draw from Magdelene, Peter and Paul;
They shall work for an age at a sitting and never be tired at all.

And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame.
But each for the joy of the working, and
each, in the separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees it for the God of Things as They are.

Rudyard Kipling (1892)
