From Honey To Honey

We spent many years together,
In good times and in bad;
But our good times outweighed
our bad times -- and for this I am so glad.

On May Twelth, Nineteen Ninety
Became our special day;
It was the day I said I do to you,
And I meant it in a special way.
I promised to stay here with you
Until death do us part,
And I kept my vow made to you,
for I meant it from my heart;

You always wanted what's best for me,
And you encouraged in every way.
I thank you for never giving up on me,
And that's why I'm, blessed today.

You stayed there right beside me,
And went wherever I went;
For you were a shadow of my life,
And it was a life well spent.

You beat me running this life journey,
You beat me to the gate;
But soon I'll walk that narrow way
to the street we call straight.
So long for now my honey,
I miss you all the more,
But until that time we meet again
on that far and distant shore,
I'll be on soon and that's for sure,
And we'll be together forevermore.

Your Loving Husband (Honey)

Miss Me -- But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your heads bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.

Not only was she a devoted wife and mother, she was also our best friend and confidant. She had a forgiving spirit and loved her enemies with grace, charm, and dignity. Her favorite hobby was shopping.

She is a member of the Hillside High School Class of 1957. She relocated to Newark, NJ with her husband, the late Roger Hoskins, and her three children. She furthered her education and received an AS Degree in Elementary Education at Essex County College in Newark, NJ. Irene received a B.A. Degree in Elementary Education at Jersey City State College in NJ. She was employed at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, NC until her retirement. Irene received numerous awards in both New Jersey and North Carolina.

Surviving to cherish her precious memories are her husband -- the Reverend Dr. Walter L. To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Obituary

Curtis Howe Hubbard, Sr. was born November 9, 1921 to James C. Sr. and Leah E. Hubbard in Hampton Virginia. Both parents as well as a sister, Mayola Dykes, brother, James C. Jr., and son Curtis H. Jr. preceded him in death.

His entire education from kindergarten through college was in Hampton, Virginia.

He served in the Army Air Corps from 1943 - 1946. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in 1950 and had a distinguished career until his retirement as Master Sargeant in 1970.

He re-entered hampton Institute and earned a BS in Teacher Education and a MA in Guidance Counseling. He taught Senior High School for four years while earning his Masters Degree. In 1976, he became director of Minority Affairs at Washington and Lee University. In 1979, he returned to teaching in the Hampton City Schools System and retired in 1983. He then taught first year architecture students at Hampton Institute until his final retirement in 1986.

After the death of his loving wife Selma in 1996, he moved to Cincinnati to be near his daughter and her family. He joined First Baptist Church of West College Hill and almost immediately began working tirelessly for the Lord. He served over the years as Chairman of Men's Day, as a member of the Nominating Committee, as a member of the Senior Usher Board, as a Sunday School Teacher, and Assistant Superintendant of the Sunday School. He attended Bible Study and headed a group of volunteers that visited a nursing home twice a week.

He was a proud member of the Greater Cincinnati Chapter of the Tuskegee Airmen and once served as it's president. He was also a proud alumnus of Hampton University and spent many, many hours extolling the virtues of attending that institution of higher learning.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a twin sister, Elaine Cooke; a daughter, Wilma Burton (Eugene); four grandchildren, Joy Daniels, Curtis, Jeffrey, Felicia Davis (Jack), four great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends. A special friend; Inez Bowyer.

He departed this life March 28, 2003, at Hospice of Cincinnati. We loved him, but God loved him best.

RESOLUTION

JACOB CARTWRIGHT HUBBARD

It is with profound sadness that we, the Durham-Chapel Hill Chapter of the National Hampton Alumni Association pay tribute to the passing of one of members, Mr. Jacob C. Hubbard.

Whereas, he was graduated from Hampton Institute in the Class of 1920 and served as the class leader in 1970 at the 50th anniversary and reunion of his class;

Whereas, he loved his Alma Mater and was active in the National Chapter, North Carolina Chapter and the Durham-Chapel Hill Chapter down through the years serving in many official capacities in all of these chapters;

Whereas, his presence at our meetings gave them humor and seriousness, and he was willing to help and share his experiences and talents;

Whereas, he was recipient of the National Hampton Alumni Special Award, and the "North Carolina Hamptonian of the Year" award in 1966 from the North Carolina Region;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved: That Mr. Jacob C. Hubbard was a dedicated, loyal and staunch supporter of Hampton Institute and our Alumni Association; he was a well known person in his field and among men wherever he went; and inasmuch as his contributions and helping hand to thousands in rural life, 4-H Clubs, Boy Scouts, as well as civic, religious, fraternal, business and recreational organizations in this community and other counties in Eastern North Carolina will long be remembered, The Durham-Chapel Hill Chapter joins with others in expressing our deepest sympathy to the members of his family, and it is our hope that they will be comforted in knowing that his memory will remain a choice possession for us and a multitude of friends who knew him as we did. While his work on Earth is ended, his influence and the benefits of what he contributed will live on in the hearts and lives of people and organizations to which he gave so much.

Respectfully submitted,

The members of the family wish to extend their sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy and deeds of assistance rendered by friends and neighbors during their bereavement.

Each day unless the weather is bad
You'll see walking down the street
A gentleman, tall and neatly dressed
From his head down to his feet.

It may be in the early morn
Or sometime the afternoon
But if perchance he's a wee bit late
Keep watching, you'll see him soon.

He likes to take his daily walks
When the weather is bright and fair
Because it makes him feel so fit
After breathing the clean fresh air.

He also likes to stop and chat
With friends who pass his way
Exchanging words with those he meet
Helps to brighten up his day.

So if you chance to meet this man
When he's on his daily walk
Just holler out a "Cheerie Hello"
If you don't have time to talk.

Lorenzo A. Lynch, Minister

OBITUARY

JAMES MADISON HUBBARD, SR. was born in Clinton, North Carolina on November 26, 1892. He was the seventh child of Unus and Alice Hubbard.

His life-long devotion to the principles of the Christian religion began in his home town when he was 13 years of age.

At 16 young Hubbard left Clinton to enroll in the Joseph K. Brick School in Enfield. Upon finishing this institution he came to Durham to enter what was then the National Religious Training School and Chautauqua.

His move to Durham in 1912 marked the beginning of his association with the late Dr. James E. Shepard, the founder of what is now North Carolina Central University. A brief period of teaching school in Burgaw, North Carolina preceded his studies in the School of Dentistry at Howard University.

In 1922, Dr. Hubbard returned to Durham to begin the practice of dentistry. In 1923, he was married to the late Miss Ethel Grissell Hubbard. That year also, he joined White Rock Baptist Church to begin nearly half a century of service as Sunday School teacher, Superintendent of the Sunday School (1930-1951), Assistant Chairman of the Trustee Board, and in 1971, as Anniversary Speaker.

Dr. Hubbard's impact upon the civic and religious life of Durham transcended his dedicated activities at White Rock Baptist Church and North Carolina Central University. These institutions provided a springboard from which his influence broadened into national channels. He organized the North Carolina Central University's National Alumni Association. He was instrumental in the organization of the James E. Shepard Memorial Foundation, an organization that has helped many students to obtain a college education. For many years he served as President of these organizations.

Dr. Hubbard was the second Negro to serve on the North Carolina Central University's Board of Trustees. He was responsible for the inauguration of Founder's Day at the University. His devotion to his University as a Trustee is reflected in his service for 11 years as Secretary of the Board of Trustees and later as Vice Chairman. During the period of the University's most extensive physical expansion, Dr. Hubbard served as Chairman of the Board's Building Committee.

North Carolina Central University's appreciation for Dr. Hubbard was demonstrated during his lifetime, first, by awarding him the degree of Doctor of Humanities, and afterwards, in naming the University's new James Madison Hubbard Chemistry Building in his honor.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was the Greek letter organization that commended his loyalty for many years. He served the fraternity in many capacities, notably as Polemarch at the local level and Provincial Polemarch at the regional level.

He is survived by three sons: Dr. James M. Hubbard, Jr. of Los Angeles, California; Mr. Thomas R. Hubbard of Baltimore, Maryland and Mr. Robert R. Faison of New York City, New York; four grandchildren: Mr. James M. Hubbard, III, Miss Linda R. Hubbard, Mr. Phillip C. Hubbard of Los Angeles, California and Miss Jill G. "MAY THE LIFE SHE LIVED SPEAK FOR HER"

Leah Ellis Hubbard, oldest daughter of the late William and Mary Carter, was born July 1, 1890 in Natural Bridge - Rockbridge County, Virginia. Leah (fondly known as "Lady") quietly slipped away on Sunday morning, April 27, 1986 at her residence, 23 Frissell Street.

She was married to the late James C. Hubbard of Natural Bridge. Out of this union four children were born.

In 1911 the Hubbards moved to Hampton and resided on the campus of Hampton Institute where Mr. Hubbard was employed in the Upholstery Department of the Trade School.

Mrs. Hubbard joined Zion Baptist Church under the pastorate of Dr. A.A. Graham and remained an active and dedicated member until her illness. She was a member of the Missionary Society and the former Busy Bee Sewing Circle of Zion. Leah was a staunch supporter of all activities of Zion that enhanced spiritual growth. In 1983 she was recognized as one of the oldest members of the church. She had been employed as a seamstress in the Housekeeping Department at Hampton Institute and retired from that employment.

Lady was loved by all in her community and was a loyal friend to all her neighbors. She was well known as an away-from-home mother to many students attending Hampton Institute, many having lived in her home.

Her memory shall be cherished by two daughters, Mayola H. Dykes and Elaine H. Cooke, at home; one son, Curtis Hubbard, Hampton; two sisters, Mrs. Elaine Gainor and Mrs. Bessie M. Shirley of Washington, D.C.; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Selma Hubbard of Hampton; two grandchildren; four great grandchildren; several neices and nephews and a community of friends.

that shall never be forgotten
by those who knew and loved her.

AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

"The experience of life nearly always works toward the confirmation of faith. --It is the total significance of life that it reveals God to man; and life only can do this; neither thought, nor demonstration, nor miracle, but only life, weaving its threads of daily toil and trial and joy into a pattern on which, at last, is inscribed the name of "God".
