OBITUARY

Daniel Elijah Jacobs, known as "BIG JAKE", was the son of Frank Jacobs Sr. and the late Queenie Mae Branch Jacobs. He was born April 24, 1958 and departed this life February 23, 1995 after a brief illness.

Daniel became a member of First Calvary Baptist Church at an early age. He served on the Usher Board and sang in the Youth Choir. He was a part of the scouting program where he earned the ranking of Eagle Scout.

He attended Durham City Schools and was a graduate of Durham High School. Furthering his education, Daniel became a graduate of Winston Salem State University. He was drafted into professional football with the Seattle Seahawks, but due to a severe injury his career ended and he returned home.

He was employed with Duke Public Safety for twelve years, where he earned the ranking of "Sergeant". Daniel's joys were watching his son Frankey play ball, hunting, fishing, and bowling. He was a member of The Bull City Bowlers, and "Sergeant of Arms" in the Durham Connection Bowling Club where he will be truly missed.

Daniel's loving memories will be forever cherished by his wife, Mary T. Jacobs, a son, Frankey J. Jacobs of the home; his father, Frank Jacobs Sr.; his mother-in-law, Mary Turrentine; three brothers and a sister, Frank Jacobs Jr., Ervin Jacobs, Queen J. Harris, of Durham, North Carolina, and Eugene Jacobs, of Winston Salem, North Carolina; two aunts, Naomi Hudson of Raleigh, N.C. and Sadie Jacobs, Durham, N.C. one uncle, Norwood Jacobs of Durham, N.C. Four sister-in-laws, Maggie Jacobs, Linda Jacobs, Gerri Self, and Diedrea Turrentine. Two brother-in-laws, Aaron Turrentine III and Calvin Self. Two very special friends - Gary and Lou Rogers. And a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around him
And whispered "come with me".
With tearful eyes we watched him suffer.
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly.
We couldn't make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Working hands were laid to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

Charles Darden James, Jr. more affectionately known as "Chuckie" was born on October 28, 1947 in Wilson, North Carolina to Doris Freeman James and Charles Darden James, Sr. He entered into eternal rest on Thursday, August 5, 1993 in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

"Chuckie" received his primary education at Sam Vick Elementary School. He graduated from Charles H. Darden Senior High School in June of 1965. He always enjoyed the closeness and friendship that he and his classmates shared. "Chuckie" also attended North Carolina Central University for two years.

He enlisted in the United States Air Force and received an honorable discharge.

"Chuckie" entered into Holy Matrimony on July 31, 1981; to Josephine Hooper. From this union one daughter was born, Taryn Jadawn James, who preceded him in death.

He loved all kinds of music; and once was a member of the Cathedral Choir and Male Chorus of St. John A.M.E. Zion Church, which he had attended for many years.

He will always be remembered for his friendly, warm smile and beautiful tenor voice.

In addition to his wife, Josephine Hooper James of the home, and parents, Doris Freeman James of Newport, NC, and Charles Darden James, Sr. of Wilson, NC, he is survived by one daughter, Tascherra Sutton of Wilson, NC; one son, Scott Williams of Wilson, NC; one sister, Miss Susan Elizabeth James of Goldsboro, NC; one grandchild, Candice Williams of Wilson, NC; four aunts, four uncles, one niece, several cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Obituary

THE REVEREND RICHARD DONALD JAMES, SR., son of the late Moses and Irene Boykins James, was born November 29, 1911. He entered into his eternal rest on Wednesday, July 26, 1995.

His Christian discipleship began at an early age in Hackensack, NJ. In later years he moved to North Carolina where he joined First Calvary Baptist Church. As a member he served as deacon and superintendent of the Sunday School. He was called into the ministry whereas he accepted pastorship of Haw River Missionary Baptist Church from May 1962 to the present. Reverend James also served as president of the Sunday School Convention of the East Cedar Grove Association. He was past moderator of the New Hope Association and served as president of the Union Meeting of the New Hope Association. He was a member of the General Board of the General Baptist Convention, the National Baptist Convention USA and the Ministerial Alliance of Durham.

His first marriage was to Cara Baldwin and nine children were born to this union. His first wife, Cara, and two sons, Moses and Robert, preceded him in death. He then married Marjorie Burnette and one son was born of this union.

He worked at American Tobacco Company for forty-three years. While being employed with American, he served as secretary of Local Union No. 208. After retirement he continued to be involved with his civic duties.

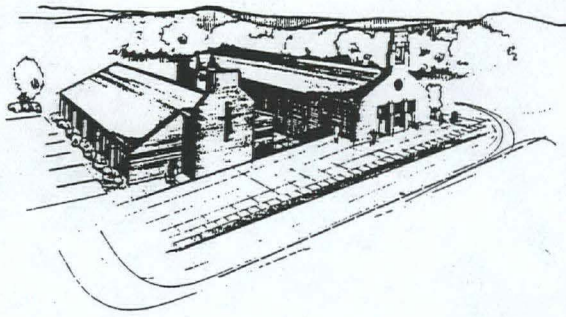

His educational background included completing public schools in Hackensack, NJ. After entering the ministry, he attended Shaw University Divinity School Seminary Without Walls, Raleigh, NC. He also took courses at North Carolina Central University, Durham, NC.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his wife, Mrs. Majorie B. James; four daughters, Mrs. Irene Jones, Mrs. Mary Evans and Mrs. Catherine Bolden, all of Durham, NC and Mrs. Patricia Blanks of Dover, DE; four sons, Mr. Richard D. James, Jr., Mr. Arthur L. James and Mr. Raymond E. James all of Durham, NC and Mr. Frederick James of Burlington, NC; one stepson, Mr. Carlton Burnette; seventeen grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren; three sons-in-law; two daughters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; two sisters-in-law and a host of neices, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

"Crossing The Bar"

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea;
Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark;
For tho' from out sure borne of time and place
The flood may bear me far!
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT FOR REVEREND RICHARD D. JAMES, SR.

JULY 30, 1995

Reverend Richard D. James, the late pastor of Haw River Baptist Church, came to Durham, North Carolina as a young man and affiliated with First Calvary Baptist Church. He was talented and aggressive with a knowledge of the Bible. He was appointed Superintendent of the Sunday School, a position which he held until he became a deacon.

In this capacity as a deacon, he was elected treasurer of the church. Wherever he went he represented First Calvary in a Christlike way. He was very active in the ministers and Deacons Union, The Fifth District Sunday School Union and the East Cedar Grove Association. In every way he was a devoted Christian.

Later he was called to the ministry and very soon was called to pastor the Haw River Baptist Church where he did a marvelous job in fostering missions and Christian Education.

Though he was pastoring Haw River Baptist Church, he never forgot First Calvary, always returning at intervals to appear on programs and to attend funerals of deceased members. Yes, he fought a good fight and he kept the faith. Indeed the world has been made better because Reverend Richard James passed this way.

"He counted not his life dear unto himself, that he might lift Godward his brother."

Obituary

Edith Payne James, daughter of Elnora Walden Payne and the late Lafayette Payne, was born in Norfolk, Virginia on November 12, 1925. She departed this life January 14, 1990. She was married to Charles Darden James, Sr. on June 15, 1953 and to this union a daughter, Susan, was born.

Mrs. James graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in Norfolk and completed her undergraduate studies at North Carolina College in Durham. She received the master's degree in Business Education at New York University. She began her teaching career at the Charles H. Darden High School in 1951. Later, she held the position of guidance counselor at James B. Hunt High School. She retired after more than 30 years of service in the teaching profession.

Mrs. James was also a funeral director having been licensed by the N. C. State Board of Mortuary Science.

Mrs. James joined St. John AME Zion Church where she was a loyal and faithful member. She sang with the Cathedral Choir and was a member of the Emma C. Clement Missionary Society having served as its illustrious president for several years. She also served in the capacity of church clerk in charge of bulletins and programs.

She was an active member of the Gamma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and a member of the Wilson-Rocky Mount-Tarboro Chapter of The Links, Inc.

Mrs. James dedicated her life to her family, her students and her friends. As an educator, she touched the lives of many young persons of Wilson and Wilson County always inspiring and guiding them to greater heights. Her warm smile and genuine concern endeared her to all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Charles Darden James, Sr.; her daughter, Ms. Susan Elizabeth James of the home; a stepson, Charles Darden James, Jr. of Wilson; her mother, Mrs. Elnora W. Payne of Norfolk, Virginia; two sisters, Mrs. Elnora P. Green of Norfolk, Virginia and Mrs. Yvonne P. Davis of Elmira, New York; a granddaughter, Sherle L. James of the home; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and many devoted friends.

*In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away;
Our hearts were almost broken, we wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peaceful, free from pain;
How could we wish you back with us to suffer that again;
It broke our hearts to lose you; but you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you the day God took you home.*

The Obituary

Mrs. Helen Virginia Brown James, the fifth child out of twelve children born to the union of Gilbert Dawson Brown and Nancy Nickens Brown was born May 31, 1914 in Bressler, Pennsylvania.

Helen graduated from the former Swatara High School in Oberlin, Pennsylvania. Upon graduation she attended Mercy Douglas Hospital School of Nursing in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she received a Registered Nurse Diploma. Helen having a desire to continue her studies attended the University Pennsylvania and the University of Michigan where she graduated with her Nursing degree in Public Health Nursing.

Helen attended and was baptized at an early age into the fellowship of the Mount Zion Baptist Church in Steelton, Pennsylvania. After relocating to Goldsboro, North Carolina, she became a member of the First African Baptist Church where she served as chairman of the Health Club.

Helen began her career in Public Health Nursing for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where she worked until she met and married the tall and handsome 2nd Lieutenant Randall Roland James II who was stationed at Fort Indiantown Gap Military Reservation in Annville, Pennsylvania.

God blessed their union with two daughters, Nancy Elizabeth and Sondra Kaye and one son, Randall Roland III.

In the mid 1950's Helen along with her husband and children relocated to Randall's hometown of Wilson, North Carolina where she continued her nursing career as head nurse at the Mercy Hospital. Upon moving to Goldsboro, Helen became employed at Cherry Hospital where she was the Director of Geriatrics until her retirement in 1980.

Helen was a loving and kind daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. Upon the death of her mother in 1941, she became a Mother figure in her family who gave unselfishly to her siblings only desiring to see them happy even at her own expense.

As a wife and mother her price was far above rubies, her husband's heart could safely trust in her and her children do arise up and call her blessed.

Her grandchildren will always cherish the love and kindness that she so lavishly showered upon each and everyone of them. They will never forget going to Grandmom's after school where their delicious dinner was always waiting; for cooking was one of Helen's joys.

Her nieces and nephews were always excited when Aunt Helen and her family came to Pennsylvania for visits. She had a way of making each of them feel special as she passed out slices of Country Ham, North Carolina Bar-B-Que and Pork Skins and Cracklin.

With the "Battle" fought and the "Victory Won", Helen exchanged her cross for a crown on Wednesday, May 19, 1999 at Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

In Loving Memory

Helen Virginia Brown James
1914-1999

"I shall not be afraid to go into this land I do not know. I will go without fear to Him who blessed me while I was here. As I reach out and take His hand, I am not alone. Remember, there are our loved ones who have gone before to meet me as I pass through the door."

The family acknowledges with grateful hearts the many acts of kindness and love shown during our bereavement. May God richly bless each of you.

*Love,
The Helen B. James & Family*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a card, a flower or sat in a chair. Perhaps you weren't even there, but had us in your prayers. Whatever you have done is greatly appreciated and may God continue to richly bless each and everyone of you.

In Memoriam

*There is a vacancy in our home,
An emptiness, a void;
One of our loved ones has been,
Called unto the Lord.
Deepest sympathy cannot express,
This loss to which we gain;
Of a mother, grandmother, sister,
And a very loving friend.*
