BAKER'S CEMETERY

Location: This cemetery is located about 37 miles west of Mt. Mourné, on the Charlotte-Statesville highway. It is isolated but can be easily found by inquiring in the neighborhood.

Note: While the above may have been true in 1939, it is not at this time, (1971) as Lake Norman now covers this site. Markers were removed to Centre Church Cemetery. Too, I feel fairly confident that all are not enumerated in this list, as Rev. Thompson was buried here, later marker is at Centre.

TOPRENCE, OR BAKER CEMETERY---IREDELL COUNTY, N. C.

Oct. 1916. Just this side of Davidspa Creek back some distance behind an old house on right side of the road that juts out to the right after you leave Mt. Mourns. The burying ground is about a quarter of a mile from the road and is surrounded by a stone wall with an iron gate. Many unmarked graves.

* Oct. 9, 1971--The typist (Mrs. L. T.), copying these records, feels fairly certain that this old cemetery is the one and same that is now undulated by Lake Norman, and some markers were removed to Centre Presbyterian Church near Mt. Morne, and placed. If correct, then Rev. Thompson was also buried at this Baker Cemetery, and removed.

MOUNT HEBRON LUTHERAN CHURCH CEMETERY (Mt. Herman)

Location: Leave Statesville on # 70 toward Asheville, after driving about 7 miles you come to a cross road (McCadam) close to Celeste Hinkle School. Turn northwest and go 2 miles.

Condition: Fair

 Mrs. Charpentier lists this church as Mt. Herman, which must be correct, as Statesville Tele. directory lists it as such. Her listings were made in 1971. She had listed some of these, as shown in ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL CHURCH---IREDELL COUNTY, N. C.

Not far from Shepherd's Cross Roads. Organized Feb. 24, 1856, but services were held in the different homes from about 1800. The session book is in the home of Mr. Pinkney Shinn who lives and keeps a store near the burial place. The chimney only of the first church stands near the graveyard. The present church is near Mr. Shinn's store. Many unlettered stones.

*- Mr. Shinn is now deceased (1971) , but members of his family still live in this area .
