

CEMETERY RECORDS OF
MECKLENBURG COUNTY
IN THE CUSTODY OF THE
STATE HEADQUARTERS,
COLONIAL DAMES OF AMERICA
WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

Z.3.7N

The Cemeteries of Mecklenburg County with graves dating before 1860 and including the founding dates of the churches are as follows: They are known as the "Seven Original Churches." To substantiate the fact that Mecklenburg was founded by Scot, Irish and Welsh settlers, all seven are Presbyterian Churches:

Steel Creek Church	1751
Sugar Creek Church	1755
Hopewell Church	1755
Providence Church	1760
Philadelphia Church (Mint Hill)	1770
Sardis Church	1790
Sharon Church	1831

Old Settlers Cemet behind the first Presbyterian Church and two blocks from the square in the heart of Charlotte, is known as "the Old Cemetery" altho' it is not one of the ~~original~~ seven original Churches. It is true however, there are several small churches not included in the seven but dates superseded 1860.

Bethel Presbyterian Church in Northern Mecklenburg, Route one,
Davidson, founded in 1829

Mallard Creek Presbyterian Church, northeastern Mecklenburg.

Ramoth Presbyterian Church
Huntersville, Mecklenburg County

Harrison Methodist Church 1785

May I also note that several of the churches among the first seven had private burial grounds either connecting or close by the churches.

A History of the Burial Ground
of the oldest churches in Mecklenburg would not be complete without mentioning the fact that some of the oldest and most historic churches were originally in what was known as Mecklenburg County but has now been annexed to either Cabarrus or Iredale Counties. These,
however, are being included in the present Cabarrus and Iredale Counties and have, therefore, been researched by Colonial Dame ~~Chapters~~ ^{COMUS.} of these counties. In mentioning them, we do so because some one doing research for Old Mecklenburg may wonder what became of their Mecklenburg Ancestors.

These churches, formerly in Mecklenburg, are as follows:

Poplar Tent Presbyterian Church
founded in 1762 (now Cabarrus)

Rocky River Presbyterian Church
founded in 1751

Centre Presbyterian Church,
(now Surdale County) founded in 1765

St John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, founded in 1745 (now Cabarrus County)

Possibly there are others
formerly in Mecklenburg but now annexed to adjoining counties
but will all be included in the research from these counties.
