To be able to smile in the storm,
To be watchful and careful and constant in prayer,
To be cautious to do no one harm.
To be useful and wanted, to live every day,
That whenever the bell tolls for you.
You'll be happy to say, though my end is at hand,
I've done all the good I could do.

~ The Obituary ~

Mrs. Floree McLaughlin departed this life on Monday, March 20, 2000 at Rex Convalescent Center, Raleigh, North Carolina, after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Mrs. McLaughlin was born on March 17, 1918 in Asheville, North Carolina, the daughter of Hattie Johnson Ferguson and Samuel Franklin Ferguson. She attended Hampton Institute and graduated from North Carolina Central University (then North Carolina College for Negroes), Durham, North Carolina in 1941.

She returned to her alma mater in 1947, where she spent the next thirty-six years working in several capacities. She retired as Assistant Registrar in 1983. Countless students who came through the doors of the Hoey Administration Building knew her affectionately as "Miss Mack" or "Mama Mack". Her care and involvement were nurturing and sustaining. Her influence was far-reaching and continuous as expressed by the students who kept in touch with her long after their departure from college.

She was a member of Asbury Temple United Methodist Church where she served faithfully until her health forced her to give up her church activities. She served as Financial Secretary, member of the Administrative Council, United Methodist Women, Nurture and Membership Care, and as a Class Leader.

She will be remembered always for her gifts of friendliness and communication. A warm smile of welcome, and cards that said she remembered occasions that you had forgotten. Telephone calls to wake you up, remind you, calm you down or help you celebrate, defined her as a goodwill ambassador and a source of strength to all whose lives she touched.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Gloria McAuley, (Tyrone), and Mrs. Rene Alston (Reggie) of Durham, North Carolina and Mrs. Adelle Kingsberry (Cleveland) of Raleigh, North Carolina; one sister, Mrs. Adelle Lafayette (William) of Silver Spring, Maryland; one uncle, Fred S. Johnson, (Marguerite) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; a loving sister-in-law, Mrs. Vivian McLaughlin (John) of Durham; seven grandsons, John Wilder (Vivian) of Greensboro, North Carolina, Lamont McAuley (Jacqueline), Kevin McAuley (Anita), Carlton McAuley, Timothy McLaughlin, and Brian McLaughlin, all of Durham, and Christopher Kingsberry of Raleigh; two granddaughters, Lisa Wilder and Amber Morgan of Durham; four great-granddaughters, two nephews, three nieces and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.

~ *Petition of the People ~

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Eternal God,

We praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labor.

We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you.

Especially we praise you for Floree McLaughlin, whom you have graciously received into your presence.

To all of these, grant your peace. Let perpetual light shine upon them; and help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

~ To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me ~

When I am gone, release me, let me go,

I have so many things to see and do;

You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess,

How much you gave me in happiness;

I thank you for the love each of you have shown,

But now it's time I must travel on alone.

So grieve a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust,

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,

So if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,

And if you listen within your heart, you'll hear all my love,

Around you, soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and "A WELCOME HOME."

In Memoriam

Death came quietly, and gave me gentle sleep,
To those that I leave behind, please don't you weep;
The good Lord giveth, and at times, He takes away,
Nothing on His earth, is forever here to stay.
Rejoice now and celebrate, the life He gave to me,
All things that happen, are surely meant to be.
When I was alive, you were all so dear,
If you just remember the good times,
You'll feel that I am near.

It's times like these, that weigh heavy on the heart,
Put a smile on your face, and make a brand new start.
Family and friends I loved, please don't you weep,
Death came quietly, and gave me gentle sleep.

Sympathy

I know what the caged bird feels, alas!
When the sun is bright on the upland slopes;
When the wind stirs soft through the springing grass
And the river flows like a stream of glass;
When the first bird sings and the first bud opes,
And the faint perfume from its chalice steals--
I know what the caged bird feels!

I know why the caged bird beats his wing
till its blood is red on the cruel bars;
For he must fly back to his perch and cling
When he fain would be on the bough a-swing;
And a pain still throbs in the old, old scars
And they pulse again with a keener sting--
I know why he beats his wing!

I know why the caged bird sings, ah me,
When his wing is bruised and his bosom sore,--
When he beats his bars and would be free;
It is not a carol of joy or glee,
But a prayer that he sends from his heart's deep sore,
But a plea, that upward to Heaven he flings--
I know why the caged bird sings!

Obituary

*God saw the road was getting rough
The hill was hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are past
The ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*

Early Tuesday afternoon, October 20, 1987, God looked from the portals of Glory, and whispered gently in the precious ears of Mrs. Beatrice Novella McLean McLean, and said, "that's enough my child, come home."

She was the daughter of the late James Turner and Catherine Johnson McLean of Lillington, N.C., born in Harnett County, Lillington, N.C. on February 14, 1900.

She completed her education in the Harnett County School System where she received the highest education available, and passed the Merit Examination for Teachers.

On February 7, 1917, she was married to the late Samuel D. McLean of Lillington, N.C., with whom she enjoyed 71 years of marriage. To this union, three children were born. She was a loving wife, mother, and mother to so many more.

Mrs. McLean joined Cedar Grove A.M.E. Zion Church, Lillington, N.C. at twelve years of age, under the pastorate of the late Rev. J.G. Siler and worked untiringly in many capacities including Sunday School teacher, Stewardess, Choir member, and leader of the Sunshine Band. Later, after moving to Raleigh, N.C., she joined Rush Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church under the late Presiding Elder W.W. Long. There she was a member of the Metropolitan Choir, Class Leader, and worked with the youth in the church.

In 1936, she and her family moved to Durham, N.C., where she became a total part in the church at St. Mark A.M.E. Zion under the pastorate of the late Rev. S.P. Perry. She remained true to God, devoted to her pastors, and dutiful to her church. Known as "Mama Bea", some of her responsibilities were: a spiritual advisor, member of the King's Daughters Club, Prayer Partner, Deaconess, Class Leader, Amanda Wallace Bible Class, and the S.P. Perry Builders Club. She was also a member of the Plum Street Community Club. She was recognized as "Mother of the Year" in 1968.

Mama Bea was highly respected and loved by all who knew her, by her kind words, her beautiful smile, and her unfading love and concern for others. Like her Master, she touched many lives with her good deeds. She blessed many hearts because of her kind words. She lifted many people closer to God through her own consecrated life.

She leaves to mourn: two sons, Melvin McClain, New York, New York, and Theodore R. McClain, Durham, N.C.; one daughter, Thelma M. Bullock, Durham, N.C.; two adopted daughters, Clara McLean Crump, and Alda McAllister McCullers, Raleigh, N.C.; eight grandchildren, Eddie Stalling, New York, New York, Linda Jubert, Indianapolis, Indiana, James T. Lane, Elder Bernard McClain, Brenda McClain Salahuddin and Timothy Crump, Durham, N.C., Sergeant First Class Dewey Bullock, stationed in Virginia, Charles McCullers, Raleigh, N.C.; sixteen great grandchildren, and one great great granddaughter. She also leaves one sister, Lottie McMiller, Fayetteville, N.C.; one brother, Rev. Duncan McClain, Lillington, N.C.; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Others

*"Lord help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray
My prayer shall be of others.
And when my work on earth is done
And my new work in heaven's begun
May I forget the crown I've won
While thinking still of others."*

MRS. ZERA COZART LYON, the daughter of the late Louis and Carrie Glenn Cozart, was born December 12, 1899 in Granville County, North Carolina. She succumbed Saturday evening, October 27, 1984 at 11:32 p.m. as the result of an automobile accident with her daughters, Bertha and Carolyn.

She was married to the late Herbert Lyon and resided in Granville County and reared her family. In 1940 the family moved to New Hill, North Carolina. Mr. Lyon preceded her in death fifteen years ago.

The later years of her life were spent among her children. She assisted them in rearing their children, enabling her children to fulfill their goals in life.

We cherish many of her experiences and advice she passed on to us as guidelines for a worthy life. Without a doubt, we will miss her. She will not be just a memory, but a living presence as precious memories linger with us.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Carrie Lyon Smith of Apex, North Carolina and Mrs. Lucy Lyon McNeil of Raleigh, North Carolina; four sons, Merman Haywood Lyon of Apex, North Carolina, John Herbert Lyon and Tommy Lee Lyon, both of Jersey City, North Carolina, and Louis Edwards of Raleigh, North Carolina; three sisters, Raney Thorpe and Ola Mae Evans, both of Oxford, North Carolina and Goldie Turrentine of Durham, North Carolina; three brothers, Elvin Cozart of Pottstown, Pennsylvania, Pender Cozart of Durham, North Carolina and Carl Cozart of Butner, North Carolina; four granddaughters; eighteen grandsons; nine great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

A Tribute to Zera Lyon

We have known the warmth of mother's gentle kiss and sister's sweet embrace will be sorely missed

Their lives were a song sung with joy and pride
Yes, they'll be waiting for us on the other side

God shows us His mercy, Always He will care
He'll give us grace sufficient for this grief we bear
Sheila Smith McKoy

LILLIE BERTHA RUTH LYON RICHARDSON was born July 4, 1925 in Granville County, North Carolina. She departed this life, Saturday, October 27, 1984.

She was educated in the Granville County and Wake County public schools. She became a member of Mount Vernon Baptist Church of Creedmoor at an early age and served diligently and tirelessly. Bertha sang as a member of the Mount Vernon Choir until she moved to the Friendship Community. Although not a member of Christian Chapel, she served without restraint and was a member of Choir Number 2 and the Gospel Choir. She became President of the Gospel Choir and worked as a Deaconette and with the Missionaries.

She was a member of the Lyons Sisters singing group. The Sisters held annual programs at Mount Vernon to raise money for the church. They also participated in other programs to benefit their community. Until her last, she had traveled many roads to sing praises of our Lord. Those duties she performed cheerfully and faithfully. ## When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while—
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile:
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days.
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die.
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Helen Steiner Rice

I've Done My Work

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die:

I've done my work,
I've sung my song,
And I shall go where I belong;
The Lord has willed it so.

He knows my heart and every thought,
He knows what pain and joy I've brought;
And by His love I shall be taught,
The way to Him I know.

He knows my soul so weak and blind,
So full of fears of mortal mind,
And he will lead and I shall find
The way to Him I know.

He guides my steps and He knows best
He will not harm where it is blest
And so good night, I'll take my rest
Where sweet wild roses grow.

Lucious Marie McLean, was born September 26, 1945 in Durham, North Carolina to the late Sidney and Alma Steele.

At an early age, she joined St. John Baptist Church and later moved her membership to Greater Saint Paul Baptist Church.

She received her education in the Durham Public School System. She was a graduate of Hillside High School Class of 1965.

In the early 70's, Marie dedicated her life to the education of children. She was a Teacher's Aide in the Durham Public School System for over twenty years. She was active in numerous educational and civic organizations including the North Carolina Association of Educators/National Educators Association (NCAE/NEA) and Southern Economic Justice Program (SEJ). Marie was a member of Star of Hope #659, Order of Eastern Star Prince Hall Affiliated and a past Worthy Matron.

Marie departed this life on Sunday, October 7, 2001. She is survived by her husband, Connell McLean, Sr.; two sons, Connell McLean, Jr. of Greensboro, N.C. and Antonio Steele of Durham, N.C. One sister, Libby Johnson of Rougemont, N.C.; two grandchildren, Connell McLean, III and Destiny McLean; one daughter-in-law, Daphne Garland McLean; and one brother-in-law, Richard (R.J.) Johnson. One aunt, three uncles, two great aunts, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God had laid you see;
I took his hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play;
The task I left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day. If parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow; My life has been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loves one touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief;
Lift up your hearts, peace to thee,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

*Through Faith and Prayer our burdens take flight
And our load of care becomes bearably light
And our heavy hearts are lifted above,
To be healed by the balm of God's Wonderful love.
The tears in our eyes will be dried by the hand
Of a loving Father who understands.*
