A NEW DAY

"Dusk falls ... and I close my eyes
To wake to a bright new tomorrow.
Gone are .. the labors of life,
the futility of strife, and the lingering trauma of sorrow,
Dawn breaks ... and I clearly see
A new day of Heavenly creation
Fresh with new hope, renewed faith and good cheer and the Promise of eternal salvation."

Alyce Peaks Little, devoted mother and active resident, dies at 74

BY ELIZABETH B. SHERMAN

news@heraldsun.com; 419-6630

Durham lost a devoted mother, an active resident and a champion bowler Saturday.

Alyce Peaks Little, 74, of 301 Nelson St., died Saturday morning in Durham Regional Hospital after a four-month battle with cancer.

LITTLE

Ms. Little was born on April 7, 1929, in Durham to the late Hattie Shaw Peaks and Theodore Roosevelt Peaks. She was educated in Durham County Public Schools.

Denise L. Harrington, Ms. Little's daughter, said her mother's greatest accomplishment was "being a divorced woman, building her own house, and just surviving on her own, being divorced and having two children."

In 1979, 30 years after graduating from high school, Ms. Little graduated from N.C. Central University.

Ms. Little worked at NCCU for 25 years. While there, she also served as an adviser for the university's cheerleading squad and the collegiate chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

After retiring from the university in 1992, Ms. Little continued to volunteer with the Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, serving on the board and in many leadership roles, including treasurer. According to a friend and neighbor, Mudy Stone, Ms. Little was instrumental in getting the Durham Alumnae Delta House Inc. and was an adviser of the collegiate chapter for 15 years.

In 1997, Ms. Little began working for the Durham Police Department's records office. She "was one of the most dedicated workers down there," said Durham police Chief Steve Chalmers.

She "brought something different and unique to the organization," Chief Chalmers said, noting that she was the department's oldest employee and was considered something of a "mother figure" among her coworkers.

In addition, Ms. Little was a member of the District 4 Partners Against Crime and volunteered annually for the Duke Children's Classic charity golf tournament.

Chief Chalmers said he remembered her as always active and that she seemed to be much younger than her 74 years. "She had that youthful charisma about herself," he said. "She will never be replaced."

Throughout her life, Ms. Little enjoyed and excelled in sports, playing basketball during high school. She was an avid fan of basketball and football, especially the NCCU Eagles. Ms. Little also bowled for more than 30 years and coached children's bowling teams for 20 years.

Her sister, Gertrude P. Burnett, said the two regularly bowled together and were the first African Americans to win the city of Durham's bowling tournament. They also competed in bowling tournaments around the country from 1969 to 2001.

Ms. Little enjoyed traveling, as well, and went to France, Germany and Jamaica with her family.

"I can recall a trip we all took to Jamaica and we rented a villa," said her son-in-law, the Rev. Everett Harrington. "There was a dog who had had some puppies, and she didn't realize that and petted it. It snapped at her and she started chasing it around with a stick and saying she was going to get it. We videotaped that, and watching it still makes me laugh and laugh."

Ms. Little is survived by her siblings Clarabell Amos, 80;

Gertrude P. Burnett, 70; Hattie Mebane, 68; James Peaks, 65; Barbara Peaks Berry, 64; and Dorothy Johnson, 62; all of Durham. She also is survived by her children, Denise L. Harrington of Alpharetta, Ga., and Terrence Orlando Little of Yanceyville; two grandsons, Everett Harrington Jr. and Krestian Harrington; and one great-grandson, Cameron E. Q. Harrington.

A wake will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Mount Vernon Baptist Church. Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Mount Vernon Baptist Church. Arrangements are by Scarborough and Hargett Funeral Home.

--ACKNOWLEDGEMENT--

The FAMILY gratefully acknowledges and deeply appreciates the many acts of kindness extended to them during the illness and subsequent period of their bereavement.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU!

* * * * *

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears.

Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love.

You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it is time I traveled on alone.

So, grieve awhile for me; if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for awhile that we must part, so cherish the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near and if you listen with your heart.

You'll hear my love around you, soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home."

In Memoriam

*In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you fade away;
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain;
How could we wish you back with us;
To suffer that again?
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*
