Daddy We Know

*You have taken your journey in the beautiful ship of rest
Far away from this world of sorrow, to the home of eternal bliss
God give us strength to bear it, courage to fight the blow.
For what it means to lose you daddy no one will ever know.*

*Memories are one thing death cannot steal.
Departing leaves a heartache only time will heal.
Some may forget you, now that you are gone.
But we will remember daddy, no matter how long.
The love you gave shall remain forever strong.*

SHE'S JUST LIKE THAT

(NOTE): (The following tribute was written in 1965 by John Carter Washington and was presented by F. Ruth Washington, Chairman of the Program Committee of which Mrs. Lillie McDade served for so long.)

I do not know when she was born;
And I have asked no one whereat,
I know she comforts the forlorn —
She's just like that.

She'll give a hand to those in need
Just as quickly as an eye can bat.
For anyone, she'll do a deed, —
She's just like that.

Once, when a neighbor's house needed fixing,
She cornered the owner, and there they sat!
She told him enough to start mortar mixing, —
She's just like that.

A child said another threw dirt in her face.
Both the dirt, and the children, she was looking right at.
So she put the wrong one right back in her place —
She's just like that.

A man took wood from a blind neighbor's yard;
He had loaded it up and started to scat!
"Put it right back," she scolded him hard —
She's just like that.

Now at this point, let us give three cheers,
And let our hands go pat pat pat.
For one who loved us all these years —
She's just like that.

Let's due respect, and honor give;
Wave each banner; tip each hat.
Queen Lillie McDade, long may she live.
She's just like that.

Her birthday now we celebrate.
For 'tis in this month, we learned from a chat.
Though she is so humble; she is yet so great.
Ain't she just like that?

Some say MISS LILLIE is growing old;
But age does not matter, I'll tell you flat.
Her heart is young, and her voice is likegold,
She's just like that.

As president of this organization,
Through all these years she has made us fat
With the elements of consolation—
You know she's just like that.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD CIRCLE, founded by her
Is proud to talk — not from under its hat; —
And boast of the good work MISS LILLIE has done —
She's just like that.

Now while we thus honor Mrs. Lillie McDade,
She still walks upon God's green grassy mat.
We must praise our Redeemer, and be glad that He made her just like that.

C.; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Alma Hughes of Durham, North Carolina; nieces, nephews and other relatives, also Misses Lucille and Mary Bryant Baines and Mrs. Maybelle McNeil, who are among her many devoted friends.

*Blessed are they who love Him and they who keep His word;
They shall enter into the city and dwell in the house of the Lord;
And oh, the joy of knowing, as the Lord's redeemed can know,
While often sad and lonely, through this earthly life they go,
There shall be no more sickness, there shall be more pain;
There shall be no more parting, loved from the loved again;
There shall be no more weeping, kneeling beside earth's biers;
There shall be no more dying, through the eternal years!*

The family gratefully acknowledges and deeply appreciates the many acts of kindness shown them during their hour of sorrow and the beautiful flowers, the cards, telegrams and many other expressions of sympathy and concern.
