

FOY CEMETERY

(80 Interments)

Foy Cemetery was located on property owned by the Foy family, and was used by the African American community before the land was sold to Smith Reynolds Airport. There is no documentation that the graves were ever relocated.

Foy Cemetery is not Evergreen Cemetery. The last documented burial in Foy Cemetery was in 1919, and Evergreen was founded in 1928. Burials between 1928 and 1944 with a Foy reference would have been in the old Evergreen Cemetery, located on Foy property that was sold to the airport. Both are located on Smith Reynolds Airport grounds.
