The M. W. Grand Master made to the Grand Lodge the following

COMMUNICATION:

To the most worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

BROTHERS,

In consequence of a resolution of this Grand Lodge, passed on December 5th, 1812, I have caused to be made and signed a Great Charter, constituting a Grand Lodge of the State of Tennessee. To effect this purpose, I have issued a Summons calling together in the town of Knoxville, on the 27th day of December next, a Convention of Masons, by delegates to be chosen from the regular constituted Lodges of the Craft in the State of Tennessee. I also appointed Deputies to instal into office the Grand Officers to be selected, and to deliver unto them this Great Charter and the book of our Constitutions, agreeable to the ancient land marks of our order : By virtue of which the jurisdiction heretofore exercised by us over the Tennessee Lodge, No. 40, in the town of Knoxville, Greenville Lodge, No. 43, in the town of Greenville, Newport Lodge, No. 50, in the town of Newport, Overton Lodge, No. 51, in the town of Rogersville, King Solomon Lodge, No. 52, in the town of Gallatin, Cumberland Lodge, No. 60, in the town of Nashville, and Western Star Lodge, No. 61, in the town of Port Royal ; is forever renounced and transferred to the Grand Lodge of the State of Tennessee.

In consequence of the Grand Lodge of the State of Tennessee being erected, the style of this Grand Lodge should hereafter be that of North Carolina only ; and not to include Tennessee.

Agreeably to resolutions passed by this Grand Lodge on the 5th day of December last, a committee was appointed to confer with Hiram Lodge, No. 40, relative to the building of a Masonic Hall for the use of the Craft in this City. That Conference was had, and a contract was made by the Craft, on our part, with brother William Jones of this town, of the other part, to complete buildings suitable for the Craft in future. Deeds of conveyance for a necessary quantity of land were duly executed; and I signed an order upon our Grand Treasurer for the sum of five hundred dollars to be paid on the part of this Grand Lodge. The work is in a progressive state.

Communications have been received from the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, the Grand Lodge of Connecticut, the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, the Grand Lodge of Virginia, and the Grand Lodge of Ohio. In these communications nothing is contained more than the usual business transacted by Grand Lodges—a particular detail of which is deemed unnecessary.

ROBERT WILLIAMS,

Grand Master.

*Raleigh, Nov. 27, A. L. }
5813, A. D. 1813. }*

Brother William Boylan, Grand Treasurer, stated that in conformity with a resolution of the grand Lodge, he had paid over to the contractor for erecting a Masonic Hall, the sum of five hundred dollars; and that a like sum, in obedience to the direction of the Grand Lodge, he had expended in the purchase, for the use of the Lodge, of five shares of stock, in the State Bank of North Carolina.

On motion of Brother William Boylan, a committee consisting of Brothers Calvin Jones, Alexander Lucas, and Daniel L. Barringer, was appointed to examine into the accounts of the G. Treasurer, and report to the next meeting.

On motion, Resolved, That the Treasurer of this Grand Lodge cause to be sold, in such way as he may deem most advisable, the buildings in which Jerusalem Lodge, No. 35, (Carteret) now demised, lately held their sittings; and that the proceeds of said sale, after having caused to be discharged all legal demands against Jerusalem Lodge aforesaid, he place among the other funds of the Grand Lodge.

Brother Bodenhamer was appointed to take into possession the charter, jewels, furniture and other property of Davie Lodge, Lexington, Rowan, which has lately demised.

The Secretary read the following communication from the Grand Lodge of Maryland, which was ordered to be printed with the proceedings.

“ Baltimore, 9th Nov. 1813.

“ SIR AND BROTHER,

“ I hasten to forward you a resolution of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, passed at their last

Grand Communication, held the 1st inst. that you may as soon as possible give the information contained in the resolution to the subordinate Lodges working under the jurisdiction of your Grand Lodge ; that they may be better enabled to defeat the schemes of a man, who evidently makes it his business to prey on the unwary of our order.

“ I am with respect, Sir, and Brother,

“ Your obedient servant,

“ A. DOBBIN, G. S.”

“ Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed to inform the Grand Lodges, in correspondence with this Grand Lodge, that there has lately appeared in this city a man who professes to be a Mason in the higher degrees, whose immoral and dishonest practices render him unworthy of a seat in any Lodge—He calls himself “ Charles de Cueta Maligni, Marquis de Montserat,” is about fifty-four years of age ; about six feet high ; dresses in black ; hair powdered and queued ; of uncommon genteel appearance, and supports the air and manners of a well bred, well educated gentleman ; in his speech mild, soft and persuasive, with the Spanish accent ; he professes to have an acquaintance with many of the first characters in this country.”

On motion of Brother Pearson, Ordered, that the sum of twelve dollars be appropriated for re-printing 100 copies of the bye-laws of this Grand Lodge.

No further business being on the table, an adjournment until Saturday fortnight was moved; and

The Lodge was closed, in solemn and usual form, amidst harmony and peace.

SATURDAY, DEC. 11, A. L. 5813.

The Grand Lodge met agreeably to adjournment, when were present, the NOTE.—It will be perceived that the foregoing list of officers and members of the several Lodges, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of North-Carolina, is very incomplete. In many cases the secretary had to go back several years to find any return from which a list could be made out. Hence he must earnestly impress upon the officers, particularly the secretaries of the Lodges, the propriety, necessity, and indeed duty, of making, without fail, an annual return of officers and members; stating also who have been initiated or in any wise advanced; what applications have been rejected; what members have withdrawn, or have died, been suspended or expelled; and in the last case under what charges.

(COMMUNICATION.)

GRAND LODGE OF OHIO,

Chillicothe, January 28, 5814.

B. W. SIR AND BROTHER,

I am directed by the Grand Lodge of Ohio to inform you that an attempt was made, in the beginning of the month of November last, by two persons, natives of Italy or Spain, to obtain money from this Grand Lodge, and from many of the brethren in this state, for the purpose, as they represented, of ransoming eight of their countrymen, who were captured and held in captivity by the Algerines. In their progress through the Eastern States they had succeeded in collecting very considerable sums of money by private subscription from many of the fraternity, and they also obtained a number of recommendations from respectable masons of the different states. A forged certificate of recommendation from the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, which they had in their possession, led to the discovery that they were prostituting our institution to fraudulent purposes, and the imposition was more fully ascertained by a letter from the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, dated the 29th of November last, to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, which declared that the certificate in question was an infamous forgery, by which time they had left this state. They also stated that they had received 300 dollars from the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, for assisting them in the object of their visit to this country.

I am also directed by the Grand Lodge to give such a description of their persons and manners as will enable you to recognize them if they should apply to you, or to any of the fraternity in your neighborhood for money for the above purpose, or for any other that they might propose. The one calls himself Antoni Lognito, and the other I. Knock—they are both of low stature, thick and stoutly made, blue eyes, fair hair, and like Spaniards generally of a swarthy complexion, and from the similarity of their appearance might be taken for brothers; they are very plausible and insinuating in their address, and appear every way qualified for the dishonest business in which they are engaged.

The object of the Grand Lodge of Ohio in making this communication to the Grand Lodge of North-Carolina, is to discharge a duty which it owes to the fraternity, and in performing which it has no other object in view, but that which ought to actuate every mason, in endeavoring to guard the fraternity against the insidious attempts of base and unworthy men, who may unfortunately have become members of an institution whose foundation is friendship and love, and whose superstructure is benevolence, charity and truth.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

R. W. Sir and Brother,

Your obedient humble servant,

R. KERCHEVAL, G. Sec'y.

Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of N. Carolina.

FINIS.
