HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUES OF AMERICA

The Junior League represents a serious endeavor on the part of young women to become active and constructive factors in the communities in which they live, to be intelligent citizens, and to assist in promoting human welfare. In addition to providing the member with channels of work and training for volunteer service, the Junior League helps her to realize two vital concepts: (1) that she is not an onlooker, but is herself a part of the community; (2) that the community, in turn, is not an isolated unit but part of the nation and of the world.

It was in 1901, at the beginning of a new era for American women, that the first Junior League was organized in New York. At that time Mary Harriman (Mrs. Charles Carey Rumsey) and Nathalie Henderson (Mrs. Joseph Swan) realized what might be achieved if a group of young women were encouraged to take a more active part in some form of active service to their own neighborhoods through the settlement houses and other organizations in existence at the time.

Soon organizations similar to that in New York were formed in various other of the large cities—Boston, Brooklyn, Portland, Ore., Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Chicago. In the spring of 1912 six of the seven Leagues then in existence held their first national conference in New York City. In 1921 the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., was founded by the thirty Leagues then in existence. Mrs. Willard Straight (Mrs. Leonard K. Elmhirst) was elected President and a Board of Directors was appointed and instructed to draw up a constitution.

After 1921 the Association grew rapidly until, in 1923, there were sixty-three Leagues. In order to establish a closer contact between the Leagues and the Association, the country was divided into six territories and in each a League member was appointed Regional Director to act as liaison officer between the Leagues of the Region and the Association and to serve on the latter's Board of Directors. Now there are fourteen Regions, in each of which the Leagues elect every second year a member to serve as their Regional Director.

At the time the Association was first formed most League activity was in the realm of social work; but the Board of Directors, realizing the opportunities which would eventually offer themselves to Junior Leagues, set down in the constitution the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic fields as those in which Junior Leagues should interest their members.

Gradually the Leagues realized that a benevolent "doing for others" was not enough, that they must form a partnership with professional community workers to effect the improvement of conditions. To do this required knowledge. As evidence of this the first course for provisional members was established in 1921 and such a course, which includes an examination of the various forces at work in the community, has been a prerequisite for active membership since 1927. Originally League projects were large enterprises—convalescent homes, day nurseries, curative workshops and the like. It was discovered, however, that to support these undertakings a disproportionate amount of time and energy often was going into moneyraising to the exclusion of the educational process of volunteer service. Today where Leagues have projects the recommended type is one in which the demonstration element is present, the choice being based on the needs of the individual community in the light of the interest and money-raising capabilities of the League.

The League's realization of the need for expert guidance in its welfare activities soon led to the establishment of a trained social work staff at the Association's offices. Members of this staff were available for visits to Leagues to study the local situation and give advice. Similar service was then made available for Children's Theatre, Arts, Ways and Means, and Publicity. The Association also publishes the Junior League Magazine, issued semi-monthly to each Junior League member.

HISTORY OF WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

The Junior League of Winston-Salem had its beginning as the result of a meeting called by the late Mrs. J. Edward Johnson (former widow of Richard J. Reynolds, founder of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.) on January 13, 1923. About 40 young women met at her house at Reynolda. They were advised that they should devote time and energy to social service.

Mrs. Bess Gray Plumly called the group together a few weeks later, and the late Miss Marian Blair suggested that the group apply for membership in the Association of Junior Leagues of America.

In March, 1923, the Winston-Salem Junior League became the 46th in the Association and the first in North Carolina. The late Mrs. Lucy Hanes Chatham was the first president.

During the first five years the League was active in many projects such as opening a gift shop, sponsoring a pre-natal clinic, opening a Hospital for Incurables, operating a beauty parlor and forming a Children's Play Committee.

The next ten years show that the League was continually expanding into new fields. The Newssheet was begun and a placement system was put into effect. The League also continued operation of the Hospital for Incurables, opened a Rag Market (later the Thrift Shop) and helped organize the Civic Music Association. After the Hospital for Incurables was closed on June 1, 1937, the League assisted in the organization of the Mental Hygiene Society of Winston-Salem. The League also financed a Child Guidance Clinic which opened on November 1, 1937.

The next several years the League continued to sponsor and finance the Child Guidance Clinic. New projects included the Hall of History, presentation by the Junior Programs, Inc., and the bringing to town of four New York Dramas of the Contemporary Theatre Series. The League also joined with other interested community groups in forming the Children's Theatre Board.

In 1941 the League's program of planned expenditure of surplus was begun with $3,000 donated to the Red Cross War Fund, $1,000 given to the Library Fund of the Winston-Salem Teachers College, $5,000 given to the Family Service Agency for the establishment of a Child Placing Agency and $4,500 to the Community Council for the development of the Radio Plan.

In 1942 the Child Guidance Clinic was closed and in 1943 the gift shop was sold.

During the war years the League members devoted the major part of their volunteer service to war-related activities. Support of the Radio Council continued as well as a donation of $1,000 to the Wachovia Historical Society. A survey by Miss Virginia Lee Comer, AJLA Arts Consultant, showed a need for development and expression of the creative arts in our community. In 1945 the beauty parlor was sold. In 1945 the major portion of the League's surplus was donated to the community. The 400 shares of Reynolds B stock was divided as follows: 50 shares to the City-County Hospital, 50 shares to the War Memorial Building Fund, 120 shares to the Mental Hygiene Society and 180 shares to the City Library. The Junior League Hospital Building was deeded to the Winston-Salem Foundation.

The League entered the cultural field during these years by opening an Arts and Crafts workshop with Mrs. Chester Marsh as director. The League continued its financial support of the Radio Council and put aside $7,200 for the employment of a Community Arts Coordinator when the Arts Council proved its readiness to handle the money. The League also contributed $500 to the Piedmont Festival and sponsored a concert of the newly formed Winston-Salem Civic Orchestra.

In 1947 the city withdrew its support of the Arts and Crafts program and the League assumed the responsibility for the administration, financing and promotion of the workshop.

Support continued to the Symphony and the Piedmont Festival and in 1950 the League released the gift of $7,000 which it had held in trust for the Arts Council. In March of 1952, $3,000 was granted to the workshop and in 1951, the Arts Council established an Arts Center and moved in a building owned by the Winston-Salem Foundation. In March the League's financial contribution to the Arts Center was completed through coordination of fund raising for the Arts groups under the Arts Council.

In 1952 the League had as its project the Children's Activities Program at the new City-County Library. The League voted the Library $1,500 for the first year and limited the League's sponsorship to three years. The League also continued support of the Arts Council with a donation of $5,000.

Two art exhibits were sponsored by the League in 1953 and recreational therapy was done in the Children's Wing of the Baptist Hospital. The next year showed the closing of the Thrift Shop and the beginning of our annual Rummage Sale.

In 1955 our three-year activity program for children was completed at the Public Library. The Recreational Therapy program at the Baptist Hospital was enlarged and the League continued to bring outstanding art exhibits to the Library. A new project was begun—providing the salary for a primary education teacher for the handicapped at the Children's Center.

During the next year the League strengthened existing projects and added to those services. A program for handicapped adults was begun and the therapy program at the hospital enlarged.

The Adult Handicapped program grew rapidly and the Hospital Therapy program was continued. The Cultural Arts Committee arranged a bus trip to Raleigh to tour the State Art Museum and $150 was offered as a purchase prize to the Gallery of Fine Arts in the name of the Junior League. A successful Rummage Sale was held as well as 5 marvelous productions of the play Sleeping Beauty.

In 1957 the League again contributed $5,000 to the Children's Center providing the school with a kindergarten teacher. An art exhibit drew 3,700 people and the Rummage Sale was a great success. Night meetings were begun for professional members and those unable to attend the morning meeting. Two brochures were printed—one dealing with Admissions policies and the other describing the community activities of the Winston-Salem Junior League.

The League continued to strengthen existing projects in 1958 by donating $2,000 a year for the next two years to provide an aide at the Children's Center, by buying a metal awning for the Pediatric Ward at the Baptist Hospital and by giving $1,155 to the Arts Council.

In 1959-60 the League accepted a new project by voting to pledge $26,000 over a three-year period for the restoration of Old Salem's Timothy Vogler Home, in which the League would establish Headquarters. The following year Regional Conference was held in Winston-Salem for the first time, Timothy Vogler was completed and $15,000 was paid toward the indebtedness to Old Salem. In 1961-62 the League produced its first Follies which netted $16,000 and the obligation to Old Salem was paid. In 1962-63 the League voted approval of two projects: one, $10,000 for remodeling the kitchen at Amos Cottage; and two, a $6,000 challenge gift for two years to the consolidated school system for an art supervisor. Sixteen oil paintings were done for the Pediatrics Floor at Baptist Hospital. Upon the completion of Forsyth Memorial Hospital in 1964, similar paintings were presented to this Pediatrics Floor.

In 1963-64 a visit from the AJLA consultant, Mrs. Nancy Vars, and many hours of study by the Project Finding Committee resulted in the approval of a Nature-Science Center for a three year project with $26,000 in financial support over the three year period and three members of the Board of Trustees. The Fortieth Anniversary was celebrated by the publication of an unusual and attractive new brochure, a dinner dance for the membership and a luncheon in honor of the charter members.

1964-65. The new Art Supervisor arrived and was assisted in his program by the Community Arts Committee whose efforts culminated in a delightful May Day Exhibit of scholastic art on Salem Square. Work began at the Nature-Science Center, which officially opened Spring, 1965. The Winston-Salem Civic Ballet was granted $700.00 for a Christmas production. A painting by a League artist was presented to the Department of Public Welfare for the children's waiting room. In April, at the recommendation of the Project Research Committee, the League voted to accept the offer of the Red Cross to assume full financial and volunteer responsibility of our long standing project in the Children's Play Room of the Baptist Hospital. The elections of Dewitt Cordell as Regional Director and Anne Strickland to the Regional Nominating Committee, are proof of our capable, competent leaders.

1965-66. One of the major innovations in the Winston-Salem Junior League was the complete revision of the Bylaws. New Admissions blanks were written and all Placement records were transferred to newly drafted cards. A bulk mail permit imprint was obtained, and a public address system was purchased for use by the Puppet Committee, who diligently adapted an authentic Salem story to their repertoire for the Bicentennial Celebration. Friends, who assisted the League during the year, were honored by the purchase of an Art Kit for the community to be housed at the Gallery of Fine Arts. Other offerings in the cultural arts field were the gift of Darrell Coon's "Georgia Spring Barn" to Mineral Springs Junior High School and a clothes line art show on Salem Square. The League produced "Tyll" for 4300 children and netted $15,237.00 on the Rummage Sale. $2,000 worth of tickets were acquired to the Bicentennial drama to give to families who might not be able to attend the drama otherwise. Initial plans were made to bring three performances of the Metropolitan Opera to Winston-Salem in 1967. The League voted $700 to promote the Christmas Ballet "Nutcracker" to be presented in December, 1967 by the School of the Arts and Civic Ballet. Continued support of the Nature-Science Center was expressed in the vote of $45,000 to be paid over a five year period.

1966-1967. Among the many activities of the Winston-Salem Junior League was the presentation of the Nutcracker Ballet in conjunction with the North Carolina School of the Arts and the Winston-Salem Civic Ballet. It was such a success that $700 was voted to promote it again next year. The Metropolitan Opera Company brought three operas to Winston-Salem in March. The total profit from that was $17,102.96 which was added to the Community Trust Account. The Rummage Sale was held in Memorial Coliseum and netted $10,209.00. Puppetry was expanded and two separate groups performed for approximately 3,800 children. Children's Theatre presented "Man in the Moon," which was enjoyed by 5,000 children. A painting was given to the School of the Arts in honor of those in the community who assisted with the League programs this year. The Purchase Prize was awarded to three graphics which were placed in Southwest Junior High School, and the Clothesline Art Exhibit was held again at Salem Square. Certificates were presented to those who participated. The League assisted Reynolda House,

Inc., which sponsored the Salvador Dali-Art-in-Jewels Exhibit. The proceeds benefited the Nature-Science Center and Reynolda House, Inc.

The possibilities of a Volunteer Service Bureau were studied throughout the year by Project Research. In May, this culminated in a League vote of $1,000 a year for three years for a Volunteer Service Bureau.

The Adult Handicapped Committee was dissolved in December, 1966 and the responsibility for the Poke-Easy Club was assumed by the City Recreation Department.

The League is pleased and proud that Dewitt Cordell was elected 2nd Vice-President of the Association.

1967-1968. One of the innovations which took place this year was the revision of the board structure. The size of the Board of Directors was reduced and rearranged in order of Standing Committees (long-range administrative) and Special Committees (projects and money-raising activities). The Board's manuals and committee files were reworked. The League membership approved the termination of the League production of an annual play for the Children's Theatre Board series. The eligibility requirements for serving on the Admissions Committee were changed to require a member to be active for at least three years. The Finance Committee approved the AJLA recommended changes in our budget format. Our headquarters at Timothy Vogler was completely renewed with paint inside and out and many new necessary items were added. The Volunteer Bureau and the Nature-Science Center, both League projects, are growing in scope daily. The Puppet Committee revamped their lighting and technical equipment. 5,000 school children viewed the performances of "Puss in Boots" in October. The Nutcracker Ballet was performed for 6,000 children and adults. The Palettes Committee completed twelve paintings and presented them to the Child Guidance Clinic at Reynolda in May. The Clothesline Art Show was again held on Salem Square and 2,000 certificates of merit were awarded to the participants. The Rummage Sale was held in the Memorial Coliseum and netted $8,617.86. In honor of those in the community who assisted with the League programs this year, an antique Hepplewhite dining table was given to the John Vogler House. For the tenth year, a Purchase Prize was offered to the Winston-Salem Gallery of Contemporary Art for its February jury. A work of geometric sculpture, "Vecton V", by Donald Green of Fayetteville, N. C., was selected and will be presented to a new junior high school, Thomas Jefferson, when it opens this fall.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF BOARD, 1967-1968

WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

PRESIDENT — MRS. CLAY V. RING, JR.

The 45th year of the Winston-Salem Junior League is just now a matter of record. As I tried to put into words the 45th Annual Report it was indeed with mixed emotions . . . with awe at your capability and talent, and with deep and lasting gratitude for your support and friendship. It would be impossible to single out any individual or groups of individuals, because each of you, the Executive Committee, the Board members, and all committee members alike, as well as a truly loyal sustaining group, have made a lasting contribution to the League this year. Would that my words could exude the warmth that I feel as I say THANK YOU.

Yes, the 45th year is a matter of record, but the efforts of 1967-68 will not find their way to the League annals without having their impact on the future direction of the League. It has been a reflective year in many ways, a year of evaluation and appraisal — a most successful year, because each of you have made many astute and carefully thought-out decisions.

Among some of the innovations which have taken place this year is the revision of the board structure. In essence, we have just tidied up a bit, bringing the board in line with the bylaws, making the voting core of Standing Committees a bit smaller and less unwieldy, and placing our project committees in the category of "Special Committees", which is what they are anyway. We are thinking more of the Board as a place for experienced leadership since the League has become a business of more than minor proportions. But at the same time, as girls prove themselves interested and capable in their committee work, one-third new leadership yearly finds its way to the Board.

Additionally, Project Research, with the help of Advisory Planning, the Board, and sustaining advisors, took the giant step of terminating the play. Now the door is open for new ideas in the field of drama whenever and wherever Project Research may lead us. But after 40 years of play production, the League, with great nostalgia of course, decided that excellence was its aim, and that the Children's Theatre Board, a League off-spring, and professional theater, actually held the answers. The League is to be congratulated on its judgment in this area.

There was a tightening of the residency requirement for eligibility to the Admissions Committee. Like the Board, the Nominating and Admissions Committees are not essentially training grounds and should be made up of knowledgeable girls.

The word on societal trends which filtered down to us from AJLA to the President's Councils and on to the Boards is this: Admissions is an area where there are many opinions and procedures. But underlying all admissions there is a basic sameness, "selectivity." A candidate should possess certain standards of personality, education, and cultural background for the desired congeniality of the membership.

Last fall the League indicated an overwhelming desire to learn more about the role of the volunteer and the needs educationally in Forsyth County. Background material, resulting from an in-depth study of the Public Affairs Committee, along with many ideas and thoughts gleaned from those attending the group meetings is being assimilated for the League's use.

Another innovation has been a change in the format of the budget. Putting into vogue the last but largest bit of information she obtained from Finance Seminar two years ago, our treasurer finally took courage and the auditor in hand and came up with the newly revised budget. This, coupled with her expertly presented explanation of it all, has made Finance a clearly defined phrase in the Winston-Salem League.

Timothy Vogler has been completely renewed. Fresh paint inside and out, new coat racks, and many other necessary items, have added greatly to Headquarters. In addition, a current appraisal of all furnishings has been made.

A list of ages and birth dates has been carefully categorized, charted, and the procedure set up to facilitate the work of the Nominating Committee.

You have received a new and handsome brochure — a product of the talent of the Professional group, aided by the Public Relations Committee. These brochures, along with a note of thanks, have also gone to those people who befriended the League. The League's selection of an antique dining table for the John Vogler House also honored the friends of the League.

Especially worthwhile has been the re-working of the Board manuals and committee files. Each Board member has diligently tried to revise and revamp all of her committee's data in the light of the new AJLA handbook and to hand to the new Board only material which is pertinent.

Also, the Volunteer Bureau and the Nature-Science Center, both League projects and League "loves", are growing in scope daily, much to the credit of League effort. The Volunteer Bureau has become well established in the brief span of a year, and the Nature-Science Center is now looking ahead almost immediately to plans for growth and expansion, probably the most exciting progress yet for the Nature-Science Center. Our Palettes Committee has completed these delightful paintings on display tonight for the Child Guidance Clinic — which has been no small task. The Puppets have played to 11,000 enchanted children in the first three grades, and have ingeniously revamped their lighting and technical equipment. The Clothesline Art Show on Salem Square, under the direction of our Community Arts Committee, and in conjunction with our school system, awarded 2,000 certificates of merit. League volunteers gave workshops on the construction and manipulation of paper bag puppets to Special Education classes. The Nutcracker Ballet, traditional after only two years in Winston-Salem, was performed for 6,000 children and adults, and the promotion and ticket sales were under Junior League auspices. 5,000 school children enthusiastically viewed the performances of "Puss 'n Boots" in October as 66 League girls worked unstintingly to make the play a success. A most enjoyable social function for the membership was the cocktail dance in January, and melding the membership further in our one money raising activity of the year was the Rummage Sale in March. Nine issues of the Newssheet kept the League well informed with special emphasis on In-League Committees as well as areas of special interest in the community. The Provisionals incorporated their editorial and artistic abilities into the festive December issue. The Education Committee had such outstanding programs as MacLean Mitchell, whose topic was current events. An unusual and interesting piece of statuary was given to the new Thomas Jefferson Junior High School. The added impetus of strength and numbers of the sustainers enabled the League to broaden its programs in many placement areas — the Docent Program at Reynolda House, the Rummage Sale, the work at Amos Cottage and the Docent Program at the Gallery of Fine Arts. Sustaining members opened their houses for the coffees as well as the Provisional Course, and sustainers gave their assistance in an advisory capacity to various committees, with Virginia Pleasants serving as Sustaining Advisor to the Board.

In recalling some of the events of 1967-68 it serves to remind us that we are an active and educable group of volunteers, bent on being well-informed, contributing members of the community.

We have shared our experience with other Leagues in Region XIII in the areas of revision of board manuals, yearbooks, by-laws, societal trends, Children's Theater, the arts, and Admissions.

We have broadened our horizons by sending delegates to conferences and workshops. Last spring the theme of Annual Conference in Montreal was "The New Forces Molding the Volunteer." At Regional Conference in Sea Island in November "Health and Welfare in the Community" was discussed. We put on our itinerary a puppet workshop in Canada and a Children's Theatre Conference in New York City. After Christmas we had delegates attend a seminar on Volunteer Bureaus in Newport News and recently an Education Workshop in Charlotte — all absolute gems for exchanges of ideas and sources of seeing new directions for the volunteer.

In essence the League has given of itself and has gained immeasurably through the learning experiences of this past year. And so I commend you for what the League has accomplished during 1967-68.

Rather than end this report with unanswered questions such as, what is the volunteer's role in the future, will we merely train our members if suitable projects do not present themselves, and will government programs usurp the initiative of the private sector? I would say to you that since the beginning of time there have been unmet needs, questions to be answered, and problems to be solved. There will continue to be challenging areas where the Junior League, because of its very nature, can and should make a contribution. And secondly, I would say to you that selectivity is our strength. All things are not for all people regardless of what the trend seems to be today. The Junior League, with its ability and training, can strive to bring excellence into situations, and to dispel gracefully mediocrity.

I think that in the last decade our nation has seen a retrogression of humanity and an atrophy of culture and decorum. The very tenets of competition and ambition upon which our country has thrived are at present being compromised, and frequently we find ourselves being apologetic for the so-called inequalities we possess. The Junior League has the par excellence that sets it apart and empowers it to combat this retrogression.

The Winston-Salem Junior League has never been an organization of the times but rather one that is far ahead of its time. We have always had the ability to discern between the "trends" of the times and the mores. For these reasons we have never made decisions in haste but rather with painstaking deliberation. We should continue in this safe and sure vein, always aware of the totality of things about us and yet set apart by our inequality.

Our selectivity will not isolate us from community involvement but instead will enable us to focus on the larger community picture in a more knowledgeable way. No longer will we be able to pioneer per se, but rather will our projects and efforts be carried out cooperatively with other groups in the community. But in my opinion, as we encounter almost a cult for the common man, we must not allow it to be degraded to the "commonness" of man. We can remain in the vanguard by having well-trained and well-informed League members affect the many facets of community life through both individual and League involvement. Necessarily we must have a working knowledge of the local community as well as the state and nation. Those who are able to create are rare while those unable to create are numerous. It is up to the Junior League to educate and to develop the greatest potential of its members and to use its combined strength to have an urgently meaningful effect on the community. The community respects the Junior League, and for that reason we should always be mindful that what we do connotes excellence. We should keep in mind that what the League does is not nearly as important as what the League is. As a League we should maintain our emphasis on selectivity — inequality if you must — and only thusly can the ingenuity and creativity of the Junior League have its impact.

I cannot relinquish the gavel to Sally without remembering that Debbie handed it to me. Her legacy has been invaluable this year. And now as I hand the League-in-Trust to Sally, I could not do so with more confidence, because she possesses the qualities that the Winston-Salem Junior League would require of its President — and as an added bonus she's SALLY!

Respectfully submitted,
Ann Ring

VICE PRESIDENT

Professional members of the Junior League of Winston-Salem held one Placement meeting and seven regular meetings during 1967-68. The January meeting was cancelled due to a sleet storm.

Members attended the regular annual meeting in May.

As often as possible professionals had the same program as the membership meetings. Refreshments were served at most meetings. Three meetings were held in the homes of professional members, one at Timothy Vogler House, one at the Gallery of Contemporary Arts, one at the Nature-Science Center, and one at the Old Salem Reception Center. Average attendance was 25.

Professional members have completed a new brochure for the Public Relations Committee.

At the direction of the President, the Vice President conducted Board Orientation and served on the Advisory Planning, Project Research and Education Committees.

It has been a pleasure to serve as Vice President and to work with the professional members.

RECORDING SECRETARY

The Junior League of Winston-Salem held eight regular meetings from September 1967 to May 1968. In February, coffees were held in the homes of members, in lieu of a membership meeting. There were nine regular Board meetings and one meeting for Board Orientation. The Executive Committee met twelve times and once by telephone. Minutes of these meetings were recorded and a copy sent to the President. Copies of all Board and Membership meetings were sent to the President and the Regional Director. Board members received monthly reminders of Board meetings.

Annual reports were proofread and turned over to the Yearbook Chairman.

ADVISORY PLANNING

The Advisory Planning Committee had a very busy year in its intensive studies of six assignments referred to it by the Board. Recommendations were made and approved by the Board on the following:

1. That the Admissions Chairman not inform her committee as to who the new Provisionals are prior to their announcement to the membership.
2. That the Rummage Sale be held in March.
3. That the timing of the Board-elected member of the Nominating Committee remain as it is.
4. That a League member have been active in the Winston-Salem League for three years to be eligible to serve on the Admissions Committee.
5. That the Board ask the Project Research Committee to determine a termination of the League's yearly production of a play, as well as begin a study of possible drama areas in education for the League to consider.
6. That the size of the Board of Directors be reduced and rearranged in order of Standing Committees, which are the long-term administrative committees; and Special Committees, which are the projects and money-raising activities committees. Telephone and Yearbook Chairmen will be appointed, but will not serve on the Board.

My sincere thanks to Dottie Crone, Aurelia Eller, Vaughn Owen, Sally Ruffin, Bunky Stockton and Eleanor Vance for contributing so much so willingly to this committee's work. You made it a most enjoyable and rewarding year.

ARRANGEMENTS

In May, the committee helped the 1966-1967 Arrangements Committee with the reception following the preview of the Dali Jewel Exhibit at Reynolda House.

The annual December luncheon took place at Forsyth Country Club on December 6 and was attended by 195 members. Christmas trees with paper mache' ornaments made by the committee members decorated the tables, and all were sold.

A cocktail dance was held on January 26 at Forsyth Country Club and 313 people attended.

The Spring luncheon, honoring new actives, was held on April 2. Straw flowers in velvet pots were used to decorate the tables at Forsyth Country Club and were sold.

Plans were made for the refreshment hour following the Annual Meeting on May 14, honoring the new provisionals.

We wish to thank all the members of this committee for their hard work and cooperation. They made this year a most pleasant one.

Respectfully submitted,

BYLAWS

The Bylaws Committee studied and, when necessary, acted upon those questions referred by committee chairmen and the Board of Directors. Throughout the year the committee kept in close touch with the Advisory Planning Committee, and this was invaluable. The Bylaws chairman also served as Parliamentarian.

The following changes were submitted to the Regional Director and to the Board, before being mailed to the membership and approved at the January membership meeting:

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

October 19th through 27th, 1967, the Junior League presented twelve performances of "Puss In Boots" by Madge Miller. The play was enthusiastically viewed by over five thousand school children from kindergarten through third grade.

Sixty-six Leaguers generously contributed their time and talents to making "Puss" a rousing success. Doris Pardington was our able director and Chris Ringham gave us valuable technical advice. Our total costs were $686.43 of which $600.00 was paid to the League by the Children's Theatre Board.

A Children's Theatre Workshop was held in September, 1967, for the League provisionals, acquainting them with all phases of production. Mrs. Robert McCuiston kindly spoke about the history of the Jr. League's Children's Theatre productions and Mrs. Thomas Thompson described the evolution of and current programs of the Children's Theatre Board, Inc.

Frances Stockton was chairman of the Play Reading Committee and Sally Harper was League representative to the Children's Theatre Board. League representatives attended the Southeastern Theatre Conference, held in Greensboro March 2, 3, 4, 1967.

Many of the Junior League costumes are now stored at Summit School; properties, reference books and scenery at Timothy Vogler.

Frances Stockton and I thank all the girls who worked so unstintingly to make "Puss In Boots" a success.

CHRISTMAS BALLET

Three performances of The Nutcracker Ballet were presented at Reynolds Auditorium on December 9th and 10th by the Dance Department of the North Carolina School of the Arts, in cooperation with the Junior League of Winston-Salem. The Junior League Ballet Committee was in charge of paid promotion and ticket sales, and $700 was allocated by the League for this part of the production. Eighteen volunteers spent approximately 350 hours on this project. Figured on the basis of 5,996 paid admissions to the three performances, 2,923 adults and 3,073 children saw the production.

It was indeed a pleasure to be able to assist the School of the Arts in this Christmas event which, after only two years, has become a tradition in Winston-Salem. As evident at each performance, these dancers are talented, well disciplined and dedicated to their art, and their enthusiasm has earned them and their instructors great respect in this community.

COMMUNITY ARTS

For the tenth year, a Purchase Prize was offered to the Winston-Salem Gallery of Contemporary Art for its February jury. A work of geometric sculpture, "Vecton V", by Donald Green of Fayetteville, N. C., was selected and will be presented to a new junior high, Thomas Jefferson, when it opens in the fall. The sculpture will be on display at the Parkland Gallery during the summer. A special setting has been arranged in the lobby of the Thomas Jefferson School featuring a permanent base and special lighting.

In May, this committee held a clothesline art exhibit in Salem Square. In co-operation with the Art Department of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System, we assisted with the promotion and the display of art work done by classes in twenty-six junior and senior high schools. Certificates of merit were given to each exhibiting artist and the outdoor showing was enjoyed by many people during the day. Members of the Community Arts Committee worked with Mr. Antony Swider, School Art Supervisor, in planning the exhibit, and served as hostesses during the show.

In November, a request was made by Mr. Jesse Reece for volunteers to participate in a pilot program which the Arts Council is planning for the seventh grades in the city/county schools. We were able to provide these girls for him and are anticipating the results of this endeavor. A member of Community Arts also attended the Arts Council Board meetings as a representative of the League.

This has been a most interesting year "in the arts" and the members of this committee have been very cooperative and helpful in making these projects successful.

DALI ART-IN-JEWELS EXHIBITION

Reynolda House, Inc. played host to the fabulous Salvador Dali Art-In-Jewels Exhibition beginning Saturday, May 13 through Sunday, May 28, 1967. Hours were Monday through Saturday, 10-6 and Sunday 2 to 6 the first week and May 22-27, 2-9 p.m. and Sunday the 28, 2-6 p.m. Admission was $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students.

This exhibit has been critically acclaimed the world over. The jewels have been executed by Alemany and Co. in closest collaboration with Dali. It is said that the Dali jewels have again raised the jewelers craft to high art. The collection has been valued at close to two million dollars and was on loan through the courtesy of The Owen Cheatham Foundation. The local showing was presented by Reynolda House, Inc. for the benefit of Reynolda House and the Nature-Science Center.

Over 3,000 attended the showing of the jewels.

A preview party was held May 12 from 8 until 12 for the opening of the exhibition.

The Junior League was in charge of executing all plans for the preview and showing.

I would like to express my most sincere thanks and appreciation to the Dali Committee, Mrs. Thomas Rice our advisor, and the Junior League for their support in making this activity a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Sue Ferrell

EDUCATION

The Education Committee planned a wide range of programs this year. They were designed to both enlighten and entertain our membership and I feel our goal was obtained.

In September, our delegates to conference reported on their trip to Montreal.

For the October meeting we had representatives from the Repertory Theatre to bring us up to date on their activities. Since they were unable to stay for the Professional meeting we arranged a program to demonstrate the Art Kit.

Then in November, we had what was perhaps the highlight of this committee's contribution this year when Mr. McLean Mitchell spoke to the League on current events. His comments concerning Far Eastern Affairs was well organized and interestingly presented.

The Combined Regional Meeting, attended by four of our members, suggested that we use talent of other Leagues. In December we tried this idea by inviting the "Checks", a singing group from the High Point League, and the result was wonderful. They were not able to repeat for our professionals so we planned a special meeting at the Nature-Science Center, including a planetarium program.

Mr. Frank Horton of Old Salem gave us a glimpse with slides of the "Southern Furniture" in January.

As a special treat, our Public Affairs Committee studied our education structure and some In-League interest and presented their findings at our February Coffees.

In March, Dr. Rachael Meschan spoke on "Preparing Your Children For Marriage". Her talk included information relative to what our children are receiving in this area through public schools. In this case, we again followed the suggestions made during the Combined Regional Meeting and Dr. Meschan opened the floor for questions and answers at the completion of her presentation.

As a result of special interest shown during the February Coffees, the Volunteer Bureau brought us up to date on their activities at our April meeting.

Being chairman of this committee has been a pleasant experience and I want to express my sincere thanks to all of our committee members who worked so enthusiastically.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Bremer

FINANCE

The Finance Committee, composed of seven members, met in March to prepare the proposed budget for 1968-69 and to approve the AJLA recommended changes in our budget format. It was also agreed that $1,000 in the Administrative checking account would be transferred to the Administrative Contingency Fund.

Several additional items were budgeted during the year. In May $3,000 was granted to the Volunteer Bureau, with $1,000 given each year over a three year period. A $700 grant to the Nutcracker Ballet continued the League interest in this project.

The Palette Committee was reinstated with $200 to provide paintings for the Child Guidance Clinic. A Washington-New York art tour was made possible for the Forsyth County Coordinator of Art Education through $150 matched by the North Carolina Art Society.

In March the League voted to terminate our annual production of a play for the Children's Theatre Board. As a League project for the year 1968-69 it was decided to grant the Children's Theatre Board $3,900 for securing a professional company to fill the League program of this series.

The net profit of the Rummage Sale was $8,617.86. Once again the League finances are in excellent standing.

Mary Nell Humes

FUNBOOK

The Funbook Committee consisting of thirty-four members planned, compiled and distributed 1,710 Funbooks during the year 1967-1968. From September through May, 190 books per month were delivered to Baptist Hospital, Forsyth Memorial Hospital, Kate Bitting Reynolds Hospital, the Children's Center, Amos Cottage, and the Health and Welfare Department.

A planning meeting was held in May at which time committee members received their assignments. Five meetings to assemble the books were held during the year. Each book contained at least eight pages which was planned in accordance with the special holiday season of that month. In addition, new crayons and crayon boxes were given to Baptist Hospital.

The agencies to which the Funbooks were delivered, greeted them enthusiastically, and complimented the committee for the original and entertaining ideas which they contained. Amos Cottage requested five additional books per month this year.

I wish to extend hearty thanks to the entire Funbook Committee for their enthusiasm, faithfulness, and hard work. Because of the pleasure the books have given to the children, I hope each member feels that the time given to this part of her year's volunteer work has been well worthwhile.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Neill

HEADQUARTERS

The seven regularly scheduled volunteers and eight substitutes at Headquarters this year have worked for almost every Junior League committee, typing, mimeographing, and sending out bulk mailings. Jane McNair, Vice Chairman, has scheduled hostesses from our office staff for all of the Junior League Board meetings this year.

Our Sustaining Advisory Committee, with Mrs. Earl Slick as Chairman, has added a pewter coffee set, trays, and lamps to Headquarters. Mrs. William Spach fixed two new dried arrangements. Old Salem has painted the Timothy Vogler House, inside and out, and has built storage shelves for the basement and coat racks for the front hall.

My deepest appreciation to all of the members of this committee for working so hard in order to meet the many deadlines during the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Frances Vogler

MAGAZINE AND YEARBOOK

The Magazine and Yearbook Committee received no requests this year for articles concerning our League or League activities. The Junior League Magazines for this year have been bound and placed at Headquarters.

This committee has kept an up-to-date file of the membership containing each member's name, address, telephone number, birthday, and husband's occupation. All this information was verified during placement interviews.

The Magazine and Yearbook Committee compiled and edited the Yearbook. The incoming chairman, Mrs. Thomas Connors, assisted the committee. Copies of the Yearbook were sent to the following: AJLA office, Regional Director, Regional Nominating Committee, each League in Region XIII, the League's local lawyer and auditor, and each active, sustaining, and provisional member of the Winston-Salem Junior League.

Carolyn Carter

NATURE-SCIENCE CENTER

The 1967-68 season at the Nature-Science Center has been one of progress in the development of the program and plans of the Center. The League can be proud of its sustained impetus in its project. In addition to the $10,000 from the community trust account, the League this year has provided the Center with 25 volunteers, 5 board members, 3 officers and over 40 hours of service training to 19 provisionals. A regular monthly article in the Newssheet was aimed at keeping the membership informed of the Center's activities and progress.

The development of existing programs and the initiation of new ones has been the hallmark of the year's growth. Acceleration of the training program for planetarium operators has resulted in greatly increased availability of planetarium shows, and the addition of regularly scheduled volunteer receptionist-guides has facilitated group tours of the Center as has the publishing of a correlation sheet used by teachers, scout masters and other leaders of groups. An innovation of community-wide interest was the series of three film-illustrated-lectures by nationally known naturalists. Another new program is the series of pre-school classes on seasonal adaptations of animals in fall, winter and spring. The hero of the event is Benjamin Bunny who has been fondled by 1,874 preschoolers with spring classes still to go.

The staff at the Center was augmented this fall with the addition of Mr. Ed Thompson, the new Curator of Exhibits. In January, the school system appointed a liaison to coordinate the schools' program with activities at the Center.

Financial participation in the Center in addition to the League includes City and County funds and a $1,500 grant from the Devotion Foundation of Springfield, Illinois for mounted specimens by the renowned Carl Ackley. The membership drive has netted about $10,000 thus far, the proceeds of which are applied to general operating expenses.

It is impossible to chronicle, even in brief synopsis, a year's activities at the Center without noting the possibilities for growth and expansion that lie ahead. Concrete plans for the future are now in progress that could make the year 1968-69 the most exciting yet for the Nature-Science Center.

Respectfully submitted,
Sally Ruffin

NEWS SHEET

The 1967-1968 Newssheet staff published eight issues and assisted the Provisionals in publishing a special Christmas magazine. In addition to the membership, the Newssheet circulation included AJLA, Region XIII presidents and Newssheet editors, regional director and nominating committee, 40 advertisers, and interested individuals.

Each committee's appointed liaison to the Newssheet provided close contact for better news coverage. The addition to the staff of an advertising-business manager, who was responsible for all advertising solicitation and copy editing, billing and book-keeping, freed the editor and assistant editor to concentrate entirely on Newssheet content and layout.

In addition to regular standing columns, "Did You Know," "Welcome Transfer," "Party Line," and "Emphasis Sustainer," a factual feature highlighting selected League committees, was included monthly. Along with transmitting the news of regular League business, events, and humorous happenings, the staff devoted special attention to community affairs of particular concern to the Junior League.

The editors are grateful to a thoroughly dependable and capable literary, advertising, and artist staff for their enthusiastic efforts to keep the League membership well informed.

NOMINATING

The Nominating Committee met ten times to handle the following business: 1) Selecting two nominees for election of the 5th member of the Nominating Committee by the Board; 2) Selecting delegates and observers to Regional Conference; 3) Drawing up the slate of officers for 1968-1969 using the Straw Ballot as a guide; 4) Presenting to the League the names of four members, two of whom were elected to attend Annual Conference.

Lists of persons eligible to serve on the Nominating and Admissions Committees were presented to the League and elections were conducted according to the Standing Rules governing the procedure.

Everyone should be so fortunate, at least once before they're 40, to have a committee like I did. What a pleasure!!

PALETTES

Palettes was reactivated this year after receiving a request for twelve paintings from the Child Guidance Clinic at Reynolda for their waiting room and hallways.

The committee was formed in May, 1967, and workshops began in September. Meeting two mornings a month, the twelve paintings were completed in April and presented to the Child Guidance Clinic in May, 1968.

We wish to thank all of the participating artists who made this project a pleasure.

PLACEMENT

Placement interviews were held in May at the home of Mrs. Thomas Davis. Prior to that League committees and agencies in the community were contacted to determine their needs for volunteer service for the coming year, and this information was compiled into a placement brochure. The brochure was mailed to each active member one week before the interviews.

During the summer letters were sent to each League committee listing members who had signed up for these committees, and to thirteen community agencies regularly served by the League.

Letters to sustaining members were mailed requesting their help at Reynolda House, Amos Cottage, the Rummage Sale, or in any other way they wished to serve. The response was very rewarding. In addition to this the sustainers again provided Christmas gifts for the staff at Amos Cottage, under the guidance of Mary Neil Rice, Hostess Committee Chairman, and Betsy Glenn, Sustaining Chairman.

In January letters were mailed to sustainers for whom we do not have placement records, requesting them to inform us of their League and community work. Hopefully the records will be complete in the near future.

Each member should be commended for her cooperation and willingness to serve, and I would like to give a special thanks to the girls who served on my committee. They helped make this a very enjoyable and rewarding year for me.

Respectfully submitted,
Suzanne Simpson

PROJECT RESEARCH

This year the Project Research Committee was primarily concerned with looking into present and past projects and areas of interest for the future.

After much study and with careful consideration of all the findings of Advisory Planning, the Project Research Committee recommended that the League terminate its production of an annual play for the Children's Theatre Board series. Facts pertinent to this decision were mailed to all the members previous to the January meeting. A panel discussion was presented at two meetings to clarify the considerations of termination. The following motion was presented in January and approved by the membership in March:

"The Project Research Committee moves that the Junior League terminate its production of an annual play for the Children's Theatre Board series. Since the Children's Theatre Board budget for the 1968-69 season has already been approved by The Arts Council, under the assumption that the League would produce its play, we also move, that the League give Children's Theatre Board $3,900, so that they may secure a professional company for this program of their series."

The League has had a long and pleasant association with the Children's Theatre Board and will continue to have a representative serve on their board. They have also indicated that League volunteers will be needed more than ever this next year.

Because of the long history of the League in children's theatre and a continuing interest in this field, Advisory Planning recommended that Project Research begin a study of possible drama areas in education. A committee was assigned to talk to people knowledgeable in the field of drama. It is hoped that future committees will pursue this study in depth.

At the February "coffees" Project Research asked the membership to indicate their interests for possible future projects. The members expressed an overwhelming interest in the field of education.

In April the committee recommended that a Junior League Palettes Committee be commissioned for the year 1968-69 to do appropriate paintings for the new Red Cross building, and that the sum of $200 be allocated for this purpose. This motion was approved by the membership in May.

During the year the committee considered several requests from the community, none of which qualified completely for a Junior League project. We also visited the Volunteer Bureau to learn how the League could best continue their support of this project.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the members of this committee and our President, Ann Ring, for their availability and wise counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy G. Elberson

PROVISIONAL

Following pre-acceptance interviews, designed to give each Provisional an understanding of Junior League opportunities and obligations, 27 accepted the invitation to membership.

Basic Orientation was completed in two days in June. Afterwards, four girls resigned in good standing, five requested transfers, one became inter-League, and seventeen remained for the Provisional Course.

After the Provisionals' summer and fall attendance at the Community Lecture Series and field trips, League membership meetings and workshops, and after having completed in-League placement; the Provisional Committee felt that all had become acquainted with the major areas of League interest.

The Provisionals and the Provisional Committee enjoyed having the Active Transfers attend the Community Lecture Series.

The Provisionals were honored at the April luncheon meeting and presented to the membership as new active members.

The Provisional Committee is indebted to those sustaining and active members who contributed in so many ways to the success of the Provisional Course and to community leaders whose knowledge and assistance were invaluable.

The Provisional Committee was proud . . . "to have borne a trust which could have been decisive in determining the success of 'their' Provisionals' League careers."

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

The newly formed Public Affairs Committee replaced the Special Education Committee of last year. The committee presented a questionnaire to the League in October to determine the subject in which the members were most interested. Education ranked highest. Therefore the committee researched the subject "Volunteers in Education."

The paper was presented at ten coffees for actives, one coffee for professionals, and five coffees for the sustainers in February, by two members of the Public Affairs Committee at each coffee. This was followed by group discussion. The committee was pleased with the response to the information given, and felt there is a strong interest in our League's role in education and welfare. Also information was obtained for the Project Research Committee concerning the League's part in the drama field and possible new projects.

The chairman of this committee and one other member served as representatives of the League on the Volunteer Bureau

Board. The Junior League as a contributing group both financially and administratively, as well as with volunteers, may be proud of the progress the Volunteer Bureau has made in its first year.

Respectfully submitted,
Audrey Oliver

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Public Relations Committee has strived to maintain and improve good public relations with the community and within the League.

Community relations have been maintained by the traditional "Thank you" from the League to individuals, organizations, and business firms, who have assisted the League program during the year. This year our committee voted to give $300 to Old Salem for the purchase of an antique Hepplewhite table, which has been placed in the John Vogler House. A handwritten thank you note was sent to those we thanked, telling them of the table, and that the John Vogler House would be open one day in April in their honor, so that they might see the table.

The newspaper, radio, and television stations have been most cooperative, and have given our year's program excellent coverage. Monthly meetings, Regional, National, and special Conferences, Children's Theatre, Rummage Sale, Community Arts, and Puppets have received generous support from the different mediums.

An attractive new brochure was put out this year by our professional group. It was mailed to all Junior Leagues, various community groups and distributed at the annual meeting.

Our suggestion box, Timothy Tattler, has been made available at each League meeting to receive suggestions from members.

The yearly scrapbook, including all newspaper clippings concerning the League and its members was kept up-to-date.

My thanks and appreciation go to an outstanding and conscientious committee. Working with them has been a pleasure.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Lu Whaling

PUPPETRY

Our year began last May with a roar — Dragon's roar — at the Annual Meeting when "Jack" and "Dragon" did a skit to promote the clothes-line exhibit and our outdoor performances of both puppet shows at the Timothy Vogler House.

The new committee held its first meeting in May to make plans for the year. Our group of 21 puppeteers was divided into two troupes and a school workshop group. Ann Hensel was appointed to do the scheduling.

In July the co-chairmen attended the Puppeteers of America Festival in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.

Both troupes met again in September for a workshop and the casting of both shows, "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "The Hungriest Dragon in Town."

During the fall the committee purchased a tape recorder and taped all the music for both plays. "The Carrousel Waltz" was adopted as theme music for all League puppet productions. Also, during the fall, a new lighting system was designed and built. The committee felt this a good year to upgrade its technical equipment since we did not have to bear the expense of mounting a new show this year.

In November, a production of "Jack and the Beanstalk" was presented for the Piedmont Craftsmen Fair.

Both troupes received invaluable help and direction from Mrs. Robert Kerr who has been a professional puppeteer.

"The Hungriest Dragon in Town" began its season in December and trouped to 20 schools from that time until March. Also during December this group presented its play for the Jaycees' Christmas Party for underprivileged children. "Jack" trouped to 21 schools throughout January, February and March. Correlation sheets were mailed to the schools before every performance.

Each group trouped one day a week for approximately eight weeks. Three different schools were reached each trouping day. Both troupes combined gave 42 performances to approximately eleven thousand children. This included public elementary schools, parochial schools, selected kindergartens, Day Care centers, and the Children's Center for the handicapped.

The hard work and active interest of the entire committee made this a most successful and enjoyable year.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Rummage Sale was held March 22nd and 23rd at the Memorial Coliseum. This was the second year the Sale was held at the Coliseum. The majority of girls who responded to questionnaires last year were in favor of having the Sale there again. A major effort was made this year to create a situation which would alleviate the customer traffic jams that were so bad last year. We moved large furniture and appliances and hose downstairs which left our hallways virtually clear. Twenty cash registers and money boxes were scattered throughout the Coliseum instead of the traditional six in the front. This system seemed to work quite well and police were able to check customers leaving with greater efficiency.

An all out effort was made to entice husbands to work at the Sale. A "work list" of about thirty jobs was posted and all were filled. These men were invaluable in taking up money, assisting at cash registers and bagging.

Our quota was raised to $40.00 this year and was exceptional — both in quality and quantity. It was marked again by a system of set prices. Four prizes were offered for the most rummage, and these were won by Erline Parnell, Carolyn Carter, Ann Miller and Lou Johnson.

Our customers, Friday night, seemed to be fewer in number, but Coliseum officials thought we had almost as many as last year. Proceeds were up from last year's opening night. Saturday was very light in financial intake, giving us a gross of $13,811.71. There are many reasons posed for the further decrease of income, but none appear to apply to set-up or rummage offered. Leftovers went to Goodwill and ESR.

We felt that the Sale was a huge success in that everyone seemed busy but happy. Our committee chairmen were so organized and efficient that this has been called one of the smoothest sales ever. Our chairmen were so good we often wondered if we were needed at all. A special thanks to last year's Chairman, Dottie Crone, who took on much more than her share of responsibility in helping us supervise the Sale. And, of course, our sincere gratitude to all of you who made the Sale possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Peggy Guthrie

TELEPHONE

The Telephone Committee had requests for its services on three occasions this year.

During the week of April 29 calls were made serving a two-fold purpose. League members were asked to support the Dali Art-in-Jewel exhibition and calls were made to sustainers to determine any changes of names, addresses, or phone numbers for the new year book.

During the first week in October all members were advised of the dress rehearsal of the Children's Theatre play "Puss In Boots" on October 18.

On October 2 active members were contacted to advise them of the October 3 membership meeting. This was due to a delay in mail delivery of the Newssheet.

On March 20 Board members were informed of the dates for the meetings of the April Board meeting and the joint Board meeting. They were requested to prepare annual reports and procedure sheets for their respective committees.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Edwards

TRANSFER

The Winston-Salem Junior League received 22 transfers this year. Ten transfers completed the Community Course with the provisionals.

Each transfer was contacted by phone or letter shortly after her arrival in Winston-Salem. The transfers have been introduced individually at League meetings and through the Newssheet by an article and a picture. They were also taken to each League meeting by a member of the committee.

In March the Transfer Committee gave a cocktail party in honor of the transfers and their husbands. The present and incoming Executive Committees and Provisional Chairman were also included.

Being Transfer Chairman has indeed been a delightful job. It has been a real pleasure to welcome such attractive girls to our League and to work with my most willing and helpful committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Adrian Shore

Reservations cannot be accepted more than three months in advance. In case of cancellation, an immediate wire is requested.

Cancellations made less than 24 hours in advance will be billed at full rate. This not only protects the Association against loss, but prevents the turning away of members who otherwise could be accommodated.

Since there are so few rooms in the Junior League section, it is only possible to assign the best accommodations when the exact dates of arrival and departure are known in advance. Registration

8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. — Upon arrival, please take the West elevators and go directly to the guest room desk in the AJLA office on the 19th floor to register.

9:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. — Upon arrival, kindly register at the front desk of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Length of Stay

Because of the great demand for accommodations, it has been found necessary to limit the length of stay to one month each six months.

AJLA Departure Time 12 noon

Those retaining their rooms after departure hour will be charged for another day. Due to heavy bookings, we are unable to promise that accommodations always will be assigned immediately upon arrival.

Eligible Guests (other than League members)

Members of immediate families (husbands, children, parents, brothers and sisters) may be accommodated for a period not exceeding two weeks when the League rooms are not otherwise occupied. If accompanied by a League member the period is extended to one month.

Written authorization from a League member is REQUIRED for reservations of members of her family. Members are requested to write AJLA for the necessary form to be filled out in advance of making family reservations. No form is necessary, however, if the member accompanies her family.

Guests other than League members (or their immediate families) may be accommodated only when accompanied by a League member. League members need not request a form in advance when accompanying non-members. The daughters of Junior League members may be accompanied by friends when sponsored in accordance with established procedures.

MEMBERS SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY UNPAID INDEBTEDNESS INCURRED BY GUESTS INTRODUCED BY THEM. Members of individual Leagues, who are delinquent in paying any indebtedness to the Association, shall be considered in arrears in their dues to their own League. (By-laws, Article II-B, Section 4.)
