Our Object

"The object of this Club shall be to promote and encourage education, literature, the sciences and arts; to take part in civic affairs affecting the public interest; and to participate in movements connected with the general welfare of the community."

Motto

"The Union of All for the Good of All."

Salute to the Flag of North Carolina

(RIGHT arm extended straight out with palm up)

I salute the flag of North Carolina, and pledge to the North State, love, loyalty and faith.

Collect of Club of America

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses,
straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all.

And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

Article XI – Amendments

These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds majority of those present, providing the proposed amendment has been submitted at the previous general meeting.

Woman's Club of Winston-Salem

Our Club History

GFWC-North Carolina was founded @ Salem College May 26-27, 1902, with 7 clubs forming the nucleus of the Federation: Sorosis, Round Table, & Embroidery all of W-S; NC Sorosis of Wilmington; the Goldsboro Woman's Club; the Circulation Book Club of Salisbury and the Alpha Club of Statesville.

Now for some FACTS about The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem:

April, 1919 – our club met to discuss the organization for a club in WS

May 7, 1919 – 160 women signed the membership roster and elected Mrs. Howard Rondthaler as President of the Woman's Club of Winston-Salem.

During the first 2 years, the membership grew to 321 and a headline in the local Sentinel read under the daily question section: “How Can one get membership in the Woman's Club?”

From 1920 – 1934 – our club was a member of the State Federation and the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

During the first four years of the club, membership soared to 555.

1924 the "Mrs. Cicero Tise House" was purchased for $67,500 and became known as the Woman's Club House.

To maintain mortgage, pay interest and insurance, at least $5,000 was needed to be raised yearly.

During the late 1920s, as the older members aged, they dropped out and new members were afraid to join the club.

1930, 31 people endorsed a note to borrow $30,000 to pay off the indebtedness for the Tise House.

1931 Six past presidents banded together to save the Club and the clubhouse.

Times were bleak and dark for our club during the early 1930s.

1934, Our Club relinquished our state and national federation memberships due to the burden of debt for the club house.

1935, the loan on our Club House was more than the active members could carry, and they were faced with the loss of the Club House.

Some people in the community came to the club's rescue – 21 persons reduced the debt from $23,700 to $6,000 and the deed of title was transferred to the Winston-Salem Foundation (which made the Woman's Club of W-S one of the very earliest clients of the W-S Foundation).

1945 The club once again took up membership in the State Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation of Women's Clubs in the United States

July 25, 1946 The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem made its last payment on the debt for the Tise House (aka Woman's Club House) and became happy owners of the clubhouse.

To quote from Peggie Corby's history of our club: "The years passed – membership changed.....As we approached the year 2000 our membership had dropped so low that we could no longer meet the necessary expenses for looking after the Club House."

2000 – The decision was made to sell the club house. The deed was held by the W-S Foundation for the Woman's Club of W-S. Therefore, when the club house was sold the money from that sale was to be held by the Winston-Salem Foundation for the Woman's Club of W-S. The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem would give directions to the Foundation as to where the interest from the house sell should be given.

2002 – Our club began to grow in membership again

During the Spring of 2002, our President, Phebe Kirkman, brought it to our attention that the interest from the sale of our Club House had accumulated to be a considerable sum being held in our name by the W-S Foundation. Our club at that time made the decision to start the process to endow a Scholarship @ Salem College. We recognized Salem College as being a college primarily for women where women of our community could continue their educational goals at the Fler Center. Salem College was also the location of where the GFWC-NC was founded, and the husband of our Club's founding President, Ms. Howard Ronthaler, was President of Salem College from 1909-1949.

Spring, 2011, marked the 92nd year of our Woman's Club of Winston-Salem. Our most ambitious project and accomplishment for this past decade being our $100,000 Endowed Scholarship Commitment to Salem College had been accomplished.

Additionally, The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem supports many projects in our Community such as University of NC School of the Arts with a Scholarship yearly, Hospice, our Thursday Morning Music Club, SECU House, Forsyth Public Library, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Boys & Girls Home of N.C., and the W-S Rescue Mission

Our life members in the GFWC of NC are: Christine Bangle, Lydia Clark, Peggie Corby, Algie Crutchfield, Mary Davis, Wava Howard, Phebe Kirkman and Marliyn Rollins. These women have inspired and sustained us during our rebuilding time in the 2000-2010 decade.

During our September, 2012, Club Meeting, we agreed to begin another ambitious project and establish an Endowed Scholarship @ Forsyth Technical Community College. We have many exciting programs scheduled for our 2012-2013 year with lots of opportunities for Club Membership enlargement and enrichment.
