HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUES OF AMERICA

The Junior League represents a serious endeavor on the part of young women to become active and constructive factors in the communities in which they live, to be intelligent citizens, and to assist in promoting human welfare. In addition to providing the member with channels of work and training for volunteer service, the Junior League helps her to realize two vital concepts: (1) that she is not an onlooker, but is herself a part of the community; (2) that the community, in turn, is not an isolated unit but part of the nation and of the world.

It was in 1901, at the beginning of a new era for American women, that the first Junior League was organized in New York. At that time Mary Harriman (Mrs. Chas. Carey Rumsey) and Nathalie Henderson (Mrs. Joseph Swan) realized what might be achieved if a group of young women were encouraged to take a more active part in some form of active service to their own neighborhoods through the settlement houses and other organizations in existence at the time.

Soon similar organizations to that in New York were formed in various other of the large cities—Boston, Brooklyn, Portland, Ore., Baltimore, Philadelphia and Chicago. In the spring of 1912 six of the seven Leagues then in existence held their first national conference in New York City. In 1921 the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., was founded by the thirty Leagues then in existence. Mrs. Willard Straight (Mrs. Leonard K. Elmhirst) was elected president and a Board of Directors was appointed and instructed to draw up a constitution.

After 1921 the Association grew rapidly until, in 1923, there were sixty-three Leagues. In order to establish a closer contact between the Leagues and the Association, the country was divided into six territories and in each a League member was appointed regional director to act as liaison officer between the Leagues of the region and the Association and to serve on the latter's Board of Directors. Now there are nine regions, in each of which the Leagues elect every second year a member to serve as their regional director.

At the time the Association was first formed most League activity was in the realm of social work but the Board of Directors, realizing the opportunities which would eventually offer themselves to Junior Leagues, set down in the constitution the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic fields as those in which Junior Leagues should interest their members.

Gradually the Leagues realized that a benevolent "doing for others" was not enough, that they must form a partnership with professional community workers to effect the improvement of conditions. To do this required knowledge. As evidence of this the first course for provisional members was established in 1921 and such a course, which includes an examination of the various forces at work in the community, has been a prerequisite for active membership since 1927. Originally League projects were large enterprises—convalescent homes, day nurseries, curative workshops and the like. It was discovered, however, that to support these undertakings a disproportionate amount of time and energy often was going into money-raising to the exclusion of the educational process of volunteer service. Today where Leagues have projects the recommended type is one in which the demonstration element is present, the choice being based on the needs of the individual community in the light of the interest and money-raising capabilities of the League.

The League's realization of the need for expert guidance in their welfare activities soon led to the establishment of a trained social work staff at the Association offices. Members of this staff were available for visits to Leagues to study the local situation and give advice. Similar service was then made available for Children's Theatre, Arts, Ways and Means and Publicity. The Association also publishes the Junior League Magazine, issued monthly to each Junior League member. At the present time the Association has 168 member Leagues, 160 in the United States proper, one in Honolulu, one in Mexico City, and six in Canada, comprising a total of some 46,000 members.

Annual Reports of Officers — 1947-1948

PRESIDENT

Twenty-five years ago a group of young women wishing to devote their time to social service work received a charter from the Association of Junior Leagues of America and began serving the community of Winston-Salem. A great many problems have arisen in the last quarter century and have been successfully solved by you, and I believe we can say today that without question the Junior League is still progressing. This continued development is due to your dependability and tireless efforts in fulfilling the responsibilities you have assumed as Junior League members. Fortunately it is not my duty to review the past twenty-five years, but to evaluate the work of only the past year.

To the Board as a group goes my praise for its leadership and my deepest appreciation for its cooperation and dependability. Each member has faithfully carried out his duties, and to each of you I would like to give my grateful thanks.

During this past year you have been represented at two Junior League Conferences. Mrs. Bailey Liipfert and your President attended the twenty-fifth Annual AJLA Conference at Coronado. The first Conference of Region V was held in Savannah in January and you sent Mrs. Clifton Pleasants and me.

As a matter of protection you have been advised to incorporate, and at the October meeting the Winston-Salem Junior League, Incorporated, accepted the charter and adopted the By-Laws as set out in its Year Book.

All the meetings have been well attended. The average attendance from April 1947 through March 1948 was ninety members.

Our financial status in the Community fund is good, and Mrs. Donovan and her committee assure you that you are protected for three years. However, since there is no more large surplus, it may be necessary to raise money within the next few years. The Administrative Budget, however, is barely adequate in spite of raising the dues last year, and therefore it is necessary to economize on all League administrative business.

Fourteen girls were taken into the League as Provisionals. The policies of open meetings and detailed admission blanks, introduced by Mrs. Follin and her committee, have proven most successful and they are to be continued.

Eight changes were made in the By-Laws. This large number is due mainly to the minor adjustments you had to make to comply with Minimum Standards set up at the Annual Conference.

The Educational program for the League members is of utmost importance, for is it not the object of the Junior League to "foster interest among its members in the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic conditions of the community?" The Education Committee, led by Mrs. Frank Hanes, chose this year the theme "Facing our Current Responsibilities." Five meetings were devoted to Community Affairs, and three to In-League business. The meeting "Sense and Dollars" presented by Dr. Harold Meyer and Mr. Arthur Jones, co-sponsored by the Leisure Time Division of the Community Council, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Junior League, has aroused interest in the recreational problems of Winston-Salem among many groups. This was one of your most important and effective undertakings this year, and I hope you will desire to continue it as an educational project.

The hard-working Hospitality Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Siewers, planned three beautiful and clever parties in addition to arranging the entertainment of two visitors—Miss Virginia Lee Comer, Arts Consultant of the AJLA staff, and Mrs. James Frazer, Director of Region V.

Seven articles with pictures were sent by Mrs. James Harrill and her committee to the National Magazine. From this material three items and one picture were used.

The Junior League News continued its well planned coverage of League activities as well as community problems and programs of interest to League members. More space was given this year to AJLA news, and a book review was added as a new feature.

Our Public Relations and publicity have been excellent. There were over one hundred news articles, and four editorials. Of these, fifteen were front page articles, and twenty-three were illustrated with pictures. In addition, you also had two full page feature articles in the Sunday paper. Good cooperation was received from the radio stations. We were honored by the local A.A.U.W.'s asking and receiving help from Mrs. Forester and her committee in organizing their Public Relations which they wished to pattern along the lines of the Junior League.

After careful consideration Mrs. Clifton Pleasants and your nominating committee recommended two new policies which you voted to accept; (1) the use of the straw ballot as an aid in making up the slate of officers, and (2) retaining one or more members of the Executive Committee for a second year in order to insure continuity of administration. These are two very sound theories, but only time will tell whether or not they are beneficial to the administration of your League.

Now we come to the report of our only year-around money making project—the Thrift Shop. Early in the year the quota was raised from $15.00 to $20.00 effective April 1948. During the summer an investigating committee was appointed to study the problems of the volunteer and financial systems which were faulty because of the rapid expansion of the business. The committee recommended that a second professional worker be employed as Shop Manager and Bookkeeper to supplement Mrs. Perry. Mrs. C. H. Bernard was employed in February to fill this position. Mrs. Gorrell and the Thrift Shop Committee have handled a difficult situation very wisely. Since the shop is your only source of income to support your community program, and since there still exists a volunteer problem. I am wondering if you sincerely wish to keep the Thrift Shop. Maybe you have become bored with it, and sometime in the future would like to change to another money making project. I suggest this not as an immediate change but as a problem which must be considered. The basic philosophy of the Junior League is free placement, and therefore no one should be asked to work in a job she dislikes.

The major work of the Legislative committee under Mrs. Butler has centered on the understanding and implication of AJLA Policy II. An excellent program at the March League meeting interpreting this policy and the proposed rewording caused a great deal of concern and interest among our members.

Local civic organizations were again asked to participate in the Provisional Study Course. Representatives from approximately thirty civic groups, Salem College, and the Junior League Provisionals attended the lectures planned by Mrs. Agnew Bahnson, Jr. and her assistants to fill the community need of educating our citizens for intelligent volunteer service.

Placement, the basis of the Junior League program, has been well planned and intelligently supervised. A new file named "Special Training, Interests, and Hobbies" has been set up and is a part of the permanent records of the Placement Chairman. Since the same placement cards had been in use for the past ten years a complete new set was filled out by Mrs. Liipfert. The Winston-Salem Junior League deserves to be proud of the record of 138 active members who filled a grand total of 643 volunteer jobs.

Last fall the League was asked to provide models for a series of fashion shows. This proved so successful, that you had numerous other requests and therefore your Fashion Show committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Morris, adopted the policy that this service would be available for ready-to-wear fashion shows of specialty shops and department stores. A standard fee was set, and the name "Junior League" was not to be used. A total of $597.50 has been gained from this service.

All of your money and the largest portion of your volunteer time has gone into promoting the development of the recreational and cultural arts fields. You have encouraged and participated in the work at the Carnegie Library, the Children's Theatre, and the Wachovia Museum, in addition to giving money to the Fairview Project, Radio Council, the Arts and Crafts Workshop, and the Piedmont Festival.

For the last three years you and the Community Chest have together been financing the Community Radio Council. This agency originally was introduced to Winston-Salem through the efforts of the Junior League. Last January saw the end of the time you were obligated to give money. However, because you believe the Junior League has a responsibility toward the Radio Council, and because the Community Chest does not consider the school broadcasts a project it can sponsor, you have voted to finance the children's programming division for the next two years. Mrs. Cayer and her committee should be congratulated on their work of the past year. The Children's Programming Division is a most important part of the Radio Council, and the League should make every effort to prevent it from being discontinued. In the meantime, though, you should consciously work towards another community or educational group assuming the responsibility. Until such time let us stay steadfastly behind the project.

In November the Children's Theatre presented an excellent performance of "Magic Horn" by Nicholson-Chorpenning to an audience of 2,357 school children. The group, led by Mrs. Huber Hanes, was asked by the Charlotte Junior League to troupe the play down there but was unable to arrange a suitable date. Every North Carolina League was invited to attend the performance.

Since the Library Commission and plans for the new library have been inactive, the work of the Junior League's library committee has been the condensation of thirteen classical books for a children's radio broadcast. Although this was not the original purpose of the committee, Miss Dyer and her group did an interesting and well executed job.

You sponsored the Civic Orchestra for two concerts and these two were very successful. However, it was advisable for another organization to assume the sponsorship when the performances were moved to the Reynolds Auditorium, for Mrs. Butler, her committee, and the League is not equipped to handle such a large ticket selling job.

A series of six very interesting story hours was presented in the Wachovia Museum by Mrs. Dure and the Junior League Museum Committee with an average attendance of sixty-five children. During this period a total of 562 children visited the Museum drawn from day camps and Bible study groups. The original stories by League girls centered around the museum exhibits, and extra features such as live animals and clay modeling added to the interest.

The Arts and Crafts Workshop program, financed by the League, has now completed its reorganization program, made necessary by (1) the sale of the Old West End School building and (2) the all too small appropriation given by the city. The visit of Hiss Virginia Lee Comer, AJLA Arts Consultant, was of utmost value in assisting us with this problem. Her suggestions have been followed and we can proudly say that the Workshop is again ready to offer a full program to the community. The Members of the Junior League, and also Mrs. Chester Marsh, deserve praise for the patience and interest shown during the long and difficult job of reorganizing the workshop. One of your wisest decisions made this past year was to extend the salary of the director for two additional years beyond your original commitment. Now that the reorganization is complete we must not forget the Arts and Crafts Workshop. It is still partially financed by you, and therefore you have a responsibility. The problem is to keep your responsibility in proper balance to that rightfully assumed by the community, and to encourage them to assume more responsibility.

In conclusion, now that our two major problems, the reorganization of the Arts and Crafts program, and the reorganization of the Thrift Shop are complete, we can look forward to a new year with a clean house. As I have urged before, you must not drop your interest in the Workshop, but assist in every way possible with the future development and coordination in the cultural field. We are pioneering in this field in Winston-Salem, and we must give it our active support.

It has been an honor and a liberal education to have served you. May I again thank each of you for your support and cooperation, and ask that it continue during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSIE EARLE LAWSON

VICE-PRESIDENT

Beginning with this year, the Vice-President has had two specific responsibilities which this report will record.

First, to lighten the load of the President of the League, the Vice-President has represented the Junior League at all community meetings to which the League has been invited. This involved regular Community Radio Council meetings, two Leisure Time Division meetings in regard to the Fairview Project, a Red Cross Emergency meeting, and a group called together in regard to the arrival of the Freedom Train.

Second, the Vice-President has met with the professional members of the League to maintain their contact with Junior League activities. At their request, monthly meetings have been held the night before the regular League meetings, at which time the agenda has been reviewed and a summary of the program has been given, if possible. The keen interest of the girls themselves in these meetings is an excellent indication of their value. This should definitely be maintained.

Respectfully submitted,

MOLLY WEEKS JOHNSON,

RECORDING SECRETARY

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc., has a total of 294 members, divided into the following classes of membership: Active 136, Sustaining 98, Non-resident 45, and Provisional 15.

During the past year there were ten regular and three called meetings of the Board of Directors, three meetings of the Executive Board, and nine regular and two called meetings of the League.

Minutes were recorded of all meetings, and typed copies were sent to the President. Copies of the minutes of the Board meetings were sent to those Board members who were absent.

The membership list was kept up-to-date, a complete list having been sent to Association headquarters in October, as well as all changes of address each month.

The 1948-1949 yearbook was, with the help of the Corresponding Secretary, compiled, edited, and distributed.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET VARDELL

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

During the year April 1st, 1947, through March, 1948, a total of 66 personal letters were written by the corresponding secretary. Of this number, 39 dealt with changes in membership status, and 27 with miscellaneous Junior League business. Most of the President's correspondence was handled by the office secretary, rather than by the Corresponding Secretary.

Correspondence concerning League membership status covered the granting of: 5 Non-resident memberships; 2 Active memberships; 2 Inter-League memberships; 1 resignation and; 11 transfers.

The following members were transferred from Winston-Salem: Mrs. Osborne Young to Raleigh; Mrs. Richard Lybrook to Richmond, Va.; Miss Mary Creech to Shreveport, La.; Mrs. William Steele to Raleigh; Mrs. Joe Dyer to Orlando, Fla.; and Mrs. Irving Brown to Oakland, Calif.

The following members were transferred to Winston-Salem: Mrs. Philip Bolich from New York; Mrs. Byron Girard from Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Fred Cowden from Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Harry Parker and Mrs. Osborne Young from Raleigh, N. C.

The resignation of Mrs. Orman Kimbrough Jr. (Ellen Moore) was accepted.

The Corresponding Secretary assisted the Recording Secretary in publication of the 1948-49 year book.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH PIATT LEMLY

ASSISTANT TREASURER

The Winston-Salem Junior League held eight meetings in the year 1947-1948. The attendance at these meetings was as follows: April 96; May 93; June 75; October 94; November 71; January 97; February 97; March 90.

The bills for dues and fines were sent out on the first of April. All dues have been paid in full.

Respectfully submitted,

CORNELIA GARBER

Fifteen names were submitted to the Board of Directors, and all were elected. One candidate declined her invitation in order to continue her schooling. The 1947-1948 Provisional members are as follows: Ann Barber, Archer Bennett, Nancy Clendenin, Mrs. Dolph Clay (Jane Ferrell), Mrs. James Coan (Grace Gale), Mrs. Hiram Cody, Jr. (Polly Jacoby), Mrs. William Cody (Sophie Spivey), Mrs. James A. Gray, Jr. (Yvonne Jackson), Mrs. John Johnson (Elizabeth Claybaugh), Mrs. C. T. Leinbach, Jr. (Katherine Schwalbe), Mrs. Lawrence Reid (Eleanor Angus), Mary Stevens, Mrs. Gregg Thompson (Hazel Thomas), Mrs. John Wilsey (Lorraine Ellis).

BY-LAWS

The By-Laws Committee held two meetings and, from recommendations made by various committees and to comply with the minimum standards of AJLA, made eight changes in the By-Laws. There were changes made in the Articles on Membership, Officers, Board of Directors, Committees and Financial Arrangements.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAIRE HANES FOLLIN

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

"The Magic Horn" by Nicholson-Chorpenning was presented in Reynolds Auditorium November 20 and 21, 1947 to an audience of 2,357 school children.

The play was a legend of Charlemagne and Roland which included elements of historical value, fantasy, chivalry, romance and mystery. Recorded music was used in several scenes, and pantomime with music occurred at the beginning of the third act.

Approximately 2,000 hours were spent on construction and painting of the scenery by sixteen girls, and around 100 hours were spent on properties by five girls. Including scenery, properties, make-up and costumes, approximately 2,225 hours were spent by thirty girls. Rehearsal time for the actors consumed 950 hours. The total cost of this production, which was the first entertainment scheduled on the Children's Theatre Board series of programs, was $440.76.

On February 19, 1948, the Arts and Crafts Workshop sponsored Basil Milovsoroff and his marionettes, who gave a delightful performance of "The Fox and the Hare" in Wiley Auditorium. The Junior League financed this performance, and a profit of $16.95 was turned over to the Arts and Crafts Workshop.

CIVIC ORCHESTRA

The Junior League sponsored the first concert given by the Winston-Salem Civic Orchestra last fall. A committee of twelve members was formed to handle the details of the concert. Approximately thirty League girls worked on newspaper and radio publicity, made speeches at civic clubs, or sold tickets to help make the concert on November 23rd a success. Although Reynolds Auditorium was not crowded, the orchestra gave an excellent performance, which was received with enthusiasm by the audience.

After the first concert in Reynolds Auditorium, it was the combined opinion of the Civic Orchestra officers and the Junior League orchestra committee that the base of sponsorship for the orchestra should be broadened in order to fulfill the needs of the orchestra's expanded program. Therefore, in January the orchestra secured another sponsor for the remaining two concerts of the season, and the Junior League Civic Orchestra Committee was dissolved.

CULTURAL ARTS

The Cultural Arts program of the Junior League has had an interesting, if somewhat hectic year. In spite of the insecurity of lack of physical surroundings, the program has been carried on with enthusiasm and interest and gained increasingly in popularity. Classes have been held in schools, homes, and wherever a space could be found. Mrs. Chester Marsh has continued, with her outstanding ability and understanding, to carry on a program which at times was very discouraging.

The Arts and Crafts Workshop of the Winston-Salem Junior League was started in October 1945 as a result of a survey made the previous year. The Workshop was placed under the City Recreation Department and given space by the City in the old West End School building. The progress made during the first two years of operation far exceeded our greatest hopes and we felt with pride that our League project was giving a much needed program to the community.

In June of this year the old West End School building was sold by the city and our Arts and Crafts Workshop was without a home. The city made an appropriation of $1,000.00 for supplies for two years, but no provision was made for housing. Activities were immediately suspended, all equipment and supplies were stored, and the Workshop director was given office space in the City Recreation department in the City Hall.

Miss Virginia Lee Comer, the Cultural Arts Consultant of the AJLA was immediately called and came to Winston-Salem in July to discuss our program and its future. She met with the board and those in the community interested in the Workshop, and as a result brought out the following points:

1. That the League, if they wished to continue the program, should assume complete initiative for organizing a community group to continue the workshop (promoting, financing, administering, etc.).

2. That the League should complete the contract for financing the salary of the director.

3. That the League should assist those already interested in the workshop in taking part initiative for continuing the program.

Two call meetings were held following Miss Comer's visit. At this time the League voted to continue the salary of the director for three more years and to set up a citizen's committee to guide and finance the program. Thirty-two civic leaders met at a luncheon meeting called together by the Junior League and a steering committee was appointed to set up a permanent organization with officers and a board of directors, the purpose of this organization to be administration, financing and promotion of the Community Arts and Crafts Workshop. Mr. Charles Norfleet, as Chairman of this steering committee, has worked untiringly. A campaign was held in November for membership and tentative by-laws for an association were drawn up. In March a large community meeting was held in the Court House. Mr. Norfleet told of the success of the membership campaign. Permanent offices and a board of the community Arts and Crafts Association were elected, and a constitution was adopted. Also the announcement was made that a permanent home had been founded. All of this could not have been accomplished without the help and interest of the Garden Clubs, Little Theatre group, Music groups, and all the other organizations who gave their help and support. To the newspaper, particularly, do we owe thanks for the many articles and pictures.

In spite of the unsettled conditions of this past year, I would like to mention a few of the things which have been done under Mrs. Marsh's direction. Water color classes were held at radio station WTOB, Art appreciation lectures were arranged through the PTA, Craft classes were held at Gray High School, sewing and painting and leatherwork classes were held weekly in private homes, assistance was given to a state program of Arts and Crafts; help was given to leaders of Girl Scouts; flower arrangement classes for churches were held; an exhibit of early Moravian Crafts was given at the Wachovia Museum during the Piedmont Festival.

As a new League year begins the Arts and Crafts Workshop starts a new era firmly settled in a new home, directed by a competent board and backed not by the League alone, but by all of the community. There is much yet to be done and many years of education and work ahead. Let us continue to strive to make our Arts program a part of a community of which we can be proud.

EDUCATION

The theme, "Facing Our Current Responsibilities," was chosen by the Education Committee this year in an effort to stimulate the members' interest in both Junior League problems and community-wide affairs. The following outline covers the programs presented during the year:

May—Dr. Mark Depp	Racial Relations
June—Mrs. Chester Marsh	Wachovia Museum
October—Community Chest Movie	"This You Built"
November—Mrs. James Frazier	AJLA

January—Dr. Douglas Kelley	Avocational Interests
February—Dr. Harold Meyer, Mr. Arthur Jones	“Sense and Dollars” Recreation
March—Legislative Committee	Policy II
April—Celebration of Winston-Salem Junior League’s 25th Anniversary.

In February, the Junior League in conjunction with the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Leisure Time Division of the Community Council, sponsored Dr. Meyer, Professor of Sociology at the University of North Carolina and Director of the North Carolina Recreation Committee, and Mr. Jones, Area Director for the National Recreation Association, in the program "Sense and Dollars." The two speakers, well versed in the art of persuasive talk, and able to back each persuasive argument by actual fact, gave a splendid program. They spoke of the ideal Recreation program, other cities' projects, and many other worthwhile topics. Over 400 invitations were mailed to men and women in industries, clubs, schools, and the public was invited through press releases. The turn-out, despite snow and ice was gratifying.

Our other programs were well received by the League also, and this Committee wishes to take this opportunity to thank each member for their encouragement and responsiveness.

FASHION SHOW

The Junior League has furnished models for seven luncheon fashion shows at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. These shows have been put on by Montaldo's and Sosnik's, alternating in turn, and paying the League $50 per show for the volunteered service of these models.

Montaldo's preferred 10 models and Sosnik's eight. On each occasion the store responsible furnished the committee with a list of the persons they would be particularly interested in having for that show, certain ones being particularly suited for certain types of clothes. The committee talked with each one and arranged fittings for each. The members were very cooperative. Thirty-three gave their time, and 14 of these modeled two or more times.

Because of numerous requests, it was necessary to limit our modeling service; therefore, the following policy was passed, "that the Junior League continue to supply models for ready-to-wear fashion shows of specialty shops and department stores, that the fee be set at $10.00 per girl, with a minimum of five girls used, and that the name 'Junior League' not be used in any publicity."

The total income received from the fashion shows was $597.50.

HOSPITALITY

The Hospitality Committee worked with diligence and enthusiasm this year, and they hope the five affairs they planned were enjoyed by all.

The first was a "Coca-Cola Party" for all the Sustaining members given by the Board on May 29th. About fifty members were present. We had the party in the Old West End School Building so every one could visit the Workshop and see the exhibits.

On November 13th the Board entertained the fifteen Provisionals at a "Coffee" at the Forsyth Country Club. There were forty-four at this party, and it was a very nice and enjoyable occasion.

The Committee thinks the Annual Christmas Party was a real success. There were one hundred fifty-seven reservations made, and the same number were served. The banquet was held at the Old Town Club. The food was delicious, and the decorations were lovely and effective. The idea of cocktails served at the place of the banquet worked most satisfactorily. Each member brought a doll for the Toy Shop. Many compliments were extended to Hospitality Committee members for which please accept the thanks of the entire Committee.

There were two visitors during the year. Miss Virginia Lee Comer from A. J. L. A. was with us in August. Mrs. James Frazier—Regional Director from Atlanta—was here in November. Both visitors were entertained with dinner and cocktail parties. They apparently enjoyed their visits. Both stressed the importance of small and mixed group entertaining.

The year ends with a feeling of gratification and thanks on the part of the Hospitality Committee for the cooperation shown by the League in general.

We are happy to turn over to the next Hospitality Committee a balance of $25.00 along with our best wish wishes for a successful year.

LEGISLATIVE

Since the N. C. General Assembly was not in session during the past year, there was little activity in the field of legislation on a state level. Local issues, such as the city manager question, were brought to the attention of League members by announcements at meetings and articles in the newsheets.

The main work of the Legislative Committee was centered around policies formed by the A.J.L.A. Board. The emphasis was on Association Policy II which is to be re-worded at the annual conference in May.

During the fall and winter the Legislative Committee studied various questions in connection with Policy II and planned a program which was presented at the March meeting. In this presentation the committee attempted to interpret the present wording of Policy II and explain the proposed re-wording as presented to us by the A.J.L.A. Board.

The most encouraging result of the March meeting, and of the entire year, was the interest expressed by League members. Many members are greatly concerned about the implications and possible consequences of Policy II. They have indicated their desire to be fully informed about A.J.L.A. policies as well as state and local matters of interest.

Therefore, the Legislative Committee should be very active during the coming year because the whole field of legislation and its related subjects require a great deal of thought and study. The committee should be in close touch with our representatives in the N. C. General Assembly and with the regional director and the A.J.L.A. Board in order to give our own League members all of the information that they want and need before they can reach decisions about important legislative questions which directly or indirectly effect them as members of the Junior League.

LIBRARY

The work of the committee consisted of a very worthwhile project requested by the Radio Council—the condensation of books for narration. The program, broadcast over WAIR, Monday through Friday for 15 minutes each day, became important leisure-time listening for many boys and girls in the grade schools, and was therefore a community service. The series contained thirteen books, all favorites and accepted reading. Several individuals in the group have agreed to do a condensation, along with other community volunteers, for a second series.

Since its origination as a group to “educate the public for use of the library and understanding its needs,” the group has been able to do little because of the inactivity of the Library Commission. The committee will not be re-appointed in 1948-49; however, when prospects for building and for backing of the movement by the Commission are in evidence, there should again be a Library committee in the Junior League, which two years ago allocated a large sum for an educational director for the library. (It was felt generally by many persons concerned that this staff member should be employed only two years in advance of the building drive.)

MAGAZINE

Mrs. James Dawson continues as editor of our National Magazine. It is published monthly except during the Summer months, July, August and September.

Announcements of births, engagements, marriages and deaths have been sent in to the Tidings division of the Magazine from month to month. A complete file of all correspondence and magazines for the year has been kept.

Three items and one picture appeared during the year about Winston-Salem; one item in the May issue under Gleanings, about the 1946 Junior League play, "Alice in Wonderland," the other two in the November issue under "Hear Ye!" One about what Miss Diana Dyer wrote of the fifth Piedmont Festival and the other about Martha Martin's dress designing. The picture of Provisionals appeared in the March issue.

A complete report on the survey concerning "Books Bring Adventure" broadcasts prepared by Mrs. David Cayer was sent in with snapshots on August 29th and was acknowledged by a telephone call from Miss Gloria Chandler who praised the report and urged Mrs. Cayer to come to Chicago and appear with her on a radio panel discussion at an Institute for School Broadcasters.

On November 25th an article on the Provisional Lecture Course written by Mrs. Agnew Bahnson, Jr., was submitted along with pictures. One picture was used.

A newspaper account of Mrs. Linville Martin and Mrs. David Cayer being chosen by the Twin City Sentinel as two of the ten outstanding women of the year was submitted on February 5th.

Pictures of the 1947 Junior League play, "The Magic Horn," with appropriate captions were mailed to the Magazine on February 21st.

A picture with a short biography of Miss Diana Dyer, "Volunteer of the Year," written by Mrs. James Willis was sent February 26th.

Two other articles "Community Radio Facts" prepared by Mrs. Richard Shore and Mrs. Frank Borden Hanes' report on the meeting, "Recreation Sense and Dollars" were submitted March 2nd.

All material has been acknowledged.

MUSEUM

With pride I present the report of the Museum Committee.

Attention was brought to the Museum in a big way in June when the League held its regular monthly meeting in the Old Chapel at Salem College. Following the meeting, a large part of the membership visited the museum. There actual demonstrations of the old crafts were being carried on as a part of the Piedmont Festival. During June and July a series of six story hours was presented to an average audience of sixty-five children, and during that period five hundred and sixty-two children visited the museum.

Original stories by League girls centered around exhibits in the museum and extra features such as a magician-ventriloquist, accordion player, real live baby faun and participation in clay modeling, added enormously to the occasions. Early planning assured us of large and varied audiences, our groups being drawn from YWCA and YMCA day camps, Fairview day camp and Bible Study groups. Enthusiastic and appreciative letters were received from the leaders of these groups and the whole story hour undertaking added up to a great success.

Two meetings with Mr. Van Nest Black who heads up a City-County Planning Commission for Winston-Salem brought to him the knowledge that the Junior League had a vital interest in any plan for the restoration of Salem, when his planning progressed that far.

This committee feels that though our effort was small, it was effective and very worth while.

NEWSHEET

Nine issues of The Junior League News were printed during the year 1947-48. Eight were published by the regular staff with one issue, April 1948, prepared by the Provisionals as a part of their training course.

In January 1948, Miss Sarah Clancy, because of full-time employment, resigned as editor and was replaced by Mrs. Edward S. Heefner, Jr.

Regular monthly newsheet staff meetings were held, at which time the staff discussed newsheet policies and received their assignments for the next issue of the paper.

The Junior League News continued its coverage of League committee activities and outstanding League programs, as well as community problems and programs of interest to League members. Publicity was also given to community drives such as Red Feather, Red Cross, Infantile Paralysis, T. B. Seals, etc. The newsheet tried to give more space to AJLA news this year and for several issues ran editorials on policies discussed at the Coronado Conference. A book review each issue was also a new feature.

An exchange of Newsheets was continued with approximately 15 Leagues throughout the United States and Canada.

NOMINATING

In addition to presenting slates for the election of the Admissions Committee, officers, and conference delegates, the 1947-48 Nominating Committee recommended two changes of policy, both of which were accepted and put into effect.

The first, concerning the straw ballot, came about after the President discovered at the Coronado Conference that Winston-Salem was the only League in Region 5 who did not use the straw ballot to help the Nominating Committee determine the slate. Our committee felt that even though it had been tried years ago and had been discarded, it was a necessary democratic process, particularly since our League uses a single slate. The recommendation to return to the straw ballot was made at the November board meeting, was applauded by the regional director who was present, and was unanimously passed by the board.

The ballot was held at the January meeting and immediately, the Nominating Committee proceeded, using the tabulation as a guide. The committee considered the straw vote extremely helpful in selecting the top officers; not so helpful in the case of the office for which thirty-seven names were submitted. A list of names receiving multiple preference, which for some reason were not used in the slate, was turned over to the executive board as suggestions for committee chairmen. The Nominating Committee hopes that as the membership becomes more accustomed to the use of the straw vote and more aware of their opportunity to have a part in choosing leaders, it will be of even more assistance to future committees.

The second recommendation resulted from a discussion of the advisability of instituting a fixed rotating executive board. Under this system, officers would be elected for a two-year term; three being elected each year, so that three experienced officers would always serve with three new ones. This would insure continuity of administration, a point which is stressed by AJLA; but in the opinion of the 1947-48 Nominating Committee, it would not be a practical procedure for our league for the following reasons:

It limits the number of girls in the leadership group too much.

Board experience should be spread out rather than concentrated.

It would very likely be difficult to secure girls who would agree to serve two years, and even if they agreed, circumstances could arise which would prevent their doing so.

It is conceivable that the nominating committee might make a poor choice.

The committee heartily approved of the idea of having at least one experienced member on the executive board and wished to establish a tradition to that effect; so after much thought, we recommended that the following sentence be added to the by-laws concerning nomination: "It shall be the duty of the Nominating Committee to insure continuity of administration by retaining one or more members of the executive board for two terms." The League passed this addition to the by-laws at the March meeting and it is our hope that this will encourage future committees to provide the executive board with some experienced members and at the same time, allow them the freedom of doing what seems best at the particular time involved.

The Nominating Committee held six meetings. The Chairman kept a scrapbook of all published material, and attended all Board meetings during the time that the committee was active.

PLACEMENT

All active members were interviewed in March 1947 by the out-going placement chairman and the incoming placement chairman. These interviews were made after contact had been made with all agencies and groups in town with whom our volunteers work, and a complete list of these jobs was offered our members. Through the year we have stressed dependability in volunteer service, and members were urged to make a change if they were dissatisfied with the work they were doing.

In November of this placement year each member was contacted in a mid-year check-up, and a mimeographed form was filled out concerning her volunteer work in the community. She was also asked her preference in work in order that she could be placed in a job in which she was most interested.

From this survey and the information on the permanent placement cards, a new file has been set up. This file is called "Special Training, Interests and Hobbies," and is to be considered a part of the permanent records of the Placement Chairman. A complete set of new Member's Placement Cards has been made, to replace the ones which had been in use for ten years.

During the year we have had 138 active members, of which 21 are employed, and 15 Provisional members, making a total membership available for volunteer jobs 153.

A total of 68 girls has served in the Thrift Shop on various committees, such as sales, personnel, marking, etc. Thirty-three of our members acted as models in fashion shows, with a chairman and co-chairman making a total of 35. Under the Recreation Commission, 30 members served in the Arts and Crafts Workshop in some capacity, and 14 members have worked in the centers as story tellers, dance instructors, etc., which makes a total of 44.

Nine members served on the Speakers Bureau in cooperation with the Radio and Arts and Crafts. Twenty-two served at the Museum during the year as story tellers, writers, guides, etc. Fifty of our girls have been active in helping with the Radio Council, and 75 more have expressed their willingness to serve as volunteers in this field. Active in helping at the Red Cross now are 12 volunteers serving as Staff Assistants, Motor Corps Drivers and in Home Service. Twenty-four members assisted with the Piedmont Festival. Six members sold poppies on Poppy Day. Twenty-four members assisted at the Toy Bureau.

Five of our members are now working with the Boy Scouts as Den Mothers, and 8 of our members are active in Girl Scout work at this time. Under Health and Welfare, one volunteer assists at a clinic, two at the T.B. Hospital, and five at the Family and Child Service Agency. Twenty-four members are serving at the Y.W.C.A., of which four are members of the Board. Seventy-five volunteers worked on the Children's Theatre production, 16 girls assisted in the sponsorship of the Community Orchestra, and 24 served on our Telephone Committee.

The above figures make a total of 390 volunteer jobs, and in addition to that, there are 253 more volunteer jobs being filled by our active volunteers in such jobs as: active church work, community boards and committees and the like, which makes a grand total of 138 active members of the Winston-Salem Junior League filling 643 volunteer jobs.

The cooperation and willingness of each League volunteer has made the duties of the placement chairman a pleasure, and it is with deep appreciation to all of you that I submit this report.

PROVISIONAL

To educate our members for intelligent volunteer service and to fill a public need simultaneously was the aim of this year's Provisional Course. Beginning October 13 and continuing through October 30, the series of lecture study courses, "Patterns of Progress" was made available to the 15 Provisional members. Others taking advantage of this series were 18 members of a sociology class at Salem and representatives from approximately 30 civic groups in Winston-Salem. This participation came as the result of letters of invitation and an outline of the series that was sent out to about 75 local organizations early in the fall. Mr. George Chandler served as moderator for the lectures; Mr. Chester Davis, Mr. Harry Krusz, and Mr. Chandler served as an advisory committee; and the speakers consisted of business and professional men and women judged to have superior capabilities in their fields. This group was entertained at dinner in October.

After the study course each Provisional was responsible for writing a research paper on subjects suggested by the study course. Several that proved of particular interest were "Our antiquated library and our library needs"; "Our 1947 Negro population and what we are doing to meet this challenge, "The housing shortage in our community and how it is affecting both physical and spiritual growth"; "What we have and should have for a well-rounded health program in our community"; and "The complexities of public and private security."

In addition, the Provisionals were given an eight-hour radio course in January; worked with the League production of their children's theatre play; manned the Christmas Toy Shop for one day; were responsible for the Newssheet for April; spent eight hours each at the Thrift Shop; and before the Provisional year is over will have had instruction at the Arts and Crafts Workshop and will have spent eight hours volunteer time there.

Placement interviews will be given the Provisionals in October.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

A schedule for the years publicity was planned at the first meeting of the Public Relations Committee in April and we discussed how to interpret all phases of the League's program so that community understanding, interest and support would result.

Interviews with the local newspaper staffs assured us they were eager to discuss any ideas on feature stories and greatly interested in anything the League does that would make a news story of interest to the public.

This year there were over 100 news articles and four editorials about Junior League and its activities carried in the Journal and the Sentinel. Of these, 15 were front page articles and 23 were illustrated with pictures. There were two full page feature articles in the Sunday paper, one on the Arts and Crafts Workshop and one on the Children's Theatre. Mention of the Junior League was made in two other Sunday full page articles.

This year the League received a tremendous amount of publicity due to the crisis arising around the Arts and Crafts Workshop and during this, articles appeared regularly on the front page. Splendid articles and excellent publicity for the League resulted.

Other articles on Children's Theatre, Civic Orchestra, Museum, Radio, Provisionals and every League activity were in both papers. All these clippings have been filed in a scrapbook for a permanent record.

At intervals throughout the year, those who were responsible for articles were thanked for their cooperation which was outstanding in every instance.

Excellent cooperation was given by the local radio stations by including special notices in their news broadcasts for the Fashion Shows, Arts and Crafts and the Provisional Lectures.

The Committee was asked to help the Piedmont Festival Public Relations Committee in calling civic clubs to enlist their support in selling tickets. All the members of the Committee helped with this.

The AAUW asked and received help from the Committee in organizing their Public Relations which they wished to pattern along the lines of the Junior League.

RADIO

For the past three years, the Junior League has contributed to the financial support as well as to the volunteer services of the Radio Council. It has promoted a cooperative community service program in which there has been no sharp division of assigned duties and responsibilities, no artificial separations, and each organization has supplemented and amplified the other's productive efforts.

The following report is a comprehensive survey and analysis of the work of the Radio Committee of the Junior League and the Radio Council of which active and sustaining members of the Junior League have assisted with every phase of the project.

The actual broadcasting times allotted weekly to the Radio Council by the local stations in the public interest are:

1. Community agency, campaign and citizenship programs for adults. Weekly program, WAIR, 15 or 30 minutes.

2. Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Weekly during school year. WAIR. 30 minutes.

3. School broadcasts, stressing the value of radio as an adjunct to education and encouraging teachers to realize that radio can supplement the teaching of art. Books Bring Adventure, weekly, September to January, WSJS, a transcribed series based on children's books, for Grades 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. Correlation is sent weekly before each broadcast to teachers of city and county schools to be used as a guide to preparation for listening and as correlation with school subjects.

Storytime weekly, January to June, WSJS. Stories with applicable value to character development, politeness and kindness for pre-school, kindergarten and Grades 1, 2 and 3, adapted and narrated by Mildred Cayer, with musical backgrounds and accompaniment by B. C. Dunford, Jr., pianist and Director of Music for WSJS.

"Musical Notes," weekly, January to June, WTOB, for Grades 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8. Radio scripts are prepared and narrated with a transcribed music by the Music Appreciation Class of Reynolds High School, under the supervision of Robert Mayer, teacher, and Elizabeth Trotman, WTOB, staff. Correlation as for other school broadcasts is prepared by Children's Programming Committee when advance information is given the committee concerning the broadcasts. This correlation was distributed until second week in March.

4. Out-of-School Broadcasts: "Saturday Playhouse," every Saturday, WSJS, fifteen minutes of story presented by the Community Radio Players, fifteen minutes of Children's Chorus under direction of radio station.

"Book of the Week," Monday through Friday, during winter, WAIR. Planned by the Junior League Library Committee in cooperation with radio. Adaptations and narrations by volunteers. Another series is being prepared.

"Tips for Teen-Agers," nine weeks, 5 minutes, WTOB. Recreation Department news prepared and narrated by Edna Sprunt Petty and Sara Joyce Munden.

A Radio Workshop teaches radio discrimination, evaluation and cooperative group activity with the sharing of responsibility. Radio stations offer access to their studios and equipment and their staff members assist Radio Council members.

A workshop was conducted for the Junior League Provisionals and the public was invited to attend the sessions also.

First Session: WAIR. Purpose of Radio Council—Mildred Cayer; Spot Writing and Reading—Doris Pardington. Auditions—Class. Auditions transcribed.

Second: WAIR. Playback of Auditions; Criticisms—Grace Coan. Correlation, Purpose and Approach—Mildred Cayer. "Books Bring Adventure, Storytime, Musical Notes." Sound effects—M. M. Hauser.

Third: WTOB. Radio acting—Elizabeth Trotman; Studio technique and practice—Betty Johnson; Studio production, scripts and parts assigned, rehearsal—Betty Johnson, Douglas Angel, Bob St. Lawrence.

Fourth: WSJS. Rehearsal. Transcriptions cut.

Fifth: WSJS. Playback of transcriptions. Criticism of productions.

A Radio Workshop will be conducted for the YWCA's Hobby House for teen-age co-ed students who have requested the workshop as a part of the annual spring session conducted by the Y-Teen Department. Classes will be conducted at each of the three local radio stations.

Requests for Assistance: Direct aid has been given in organizational planning of Radio Councils to the Junior Leagues of High Point, N. C., Durham, N. C. and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., all of whom desire to duplicate in some degree our activities. Organizational kits and correlation for school broadcasts have been mailed upon request to all parts of the U. S., to Canada, and to England.

National Recognition: Institute for Education By Radio, Columbus, Ohio; chairman served on panel for Radio Production Councils with Allen Miller, Director of the Rocky Mountain Radio Council of Denver, and Parker Wheatley, Director of the Lowell Institute Cooperative Broadcasting Council of Boston. This discussion appears in the book that has been published about the proceedings of this Seventeenth Institute under the auspices of the Ohio State University, by the University of Chicago Press. Invitation from Gloria Chandler to chairman to serve on panel at School Broadcasters Conference, Chicago (unable to accept). Survey Committee for FM Radio Operation: Mrs. Bruce Williams, a member, by invitation. National Board of Directors for Junior Town Meeting: Mrs. Bruce Williams, a member by invitation.

New Equipment: A playback which simplifies auditioning our transcribed programs, preparing correlation for "Books Bring Adventure," and demonstrating the use of radio with teacher guides.

Sets of Correlation: Two files have been placed in the Junior League office for correlation on school broadcasts.

Changes: The Radio Council will continue its present organization with all projects and committees represented except:

1. Executive Secretary—Mrs. Bruce Williams' resignation became effective March 1st. The Central desk will carry one staff member, Betty Stonestreet, secretary-stenographer, who will help conduct, with lay chairmen as advisors, the workshops and all adult programming, projects and activities.

2. Organizational set-up of Children's Programming. The Community Chest does not consider the school broadcasts a project they can sponsor. Result: Within the Junior League there is a group of well-trained and interested volunteers who, along with community-wide volunteers, can continue the work of school broadcasts with stenographic help, etc. The Junior League will supply the necessary materials such as, transcriptions, paper, stencils, etc. The responsibility for Children's Programming, financial and administrative, will be carried by the League for the next two years. The Children's Programming Committee will continue to be under the departmental heads of the Radio Council. Committee Chairmen were announced in the March issue of the Junior League News.

This decision was reached after consulting Miss Virginia Lee Comer and Miss Dorothy Greer of AJLA.

Planning for the Future: The Committee on Correlation for "Books Bring Adventure" is now working on Series IV, "Growing Up," which will be presented in the fall over WSJS. Correlation materials will be compiled into booklet form for the first time.

Plans for transcribing the "Storytime" series and for making available these transcriptions for sale to other Leagues are being formulated. The delegates to the Conference at French Lick will take transcriptions and correlations for the exhibition there.

Conclusions: The secret to our continued success is joint participation. The Radio Committee of the Junior League and the Radio Council is concerned with the quality rather than the quantity of programs presented.

The Radio Council is an asset to the radio stations and a natural means of communication for interpreting the community to itself. It enriches community life, provides an opportunity for youth to develop talents, thus helping in character building.

Our main endeavor is to coordinate, strengthen and improve our local radio programs in the public interest. Our year-round program is devoted to interpreting the community to itself, to arousing community interest in its welfare, health and cultural programs and to demonstrating educational radio.

THRIFT SHOP

This has been a year of change at the Thrift Shop. Realizing that our business was increasing every month, the Committee's main project was to reorganize the actual operating system in order to assure a more profitable, efficient business. Our first step forward was taken in June at which time the Junior League voted to increase the members' quota requirement from $15.00 to $20.00 per year. In doing this, the Committee felt that the Shop would have a safeguard against inflation in the coming year.

In November, an Investigating Committee composed of six girls not familiar with the Thrift Shop was appointed by the Board to study the volunteer and financial system then in operation at the Shop. After six weeks of careful investigation, this Committee reported that the business was expanding too rapidly to continue operating under the existing set-up. The Committee strongly recommended that another professional worker be employed as the Shop Manager and Bookkeeper to supplement Mrs. Perry who would be in charge of all sales and marking. This recommendation was accepted by the Board and by the Thrift Shop Committee, and on February 19th Mrs. C. H. Bernard was employed to fill this position. It was also recommended that the number of volunteers used at the shop be reduced, thus making a more efficient, business-like and closer-knit organization.

Throughout the year, merchandise has been given to the following agencies or charities: The Goodwill Industries, the Tenth Street Mission, Methodist Children's Home, Salvation Army, Negro YMCA, The United Federation of Churches Overseas Clothing Drive, and a box of clothing to the children of Cagliari, Sardinia.

The League has been informed about its Thrift Shop by articles in each Newssheet and a short skit was presented at the May meeting to demonstrate the type of merchandise desired at the Shop. Our commission business has grown beyond all expectations in the past year, and we are now concentrating on the quality of merchandise taken in rather than the quantity. At present, we have 300 commission customers, exclusive of League members, and we feel that there is still a large undeveloped field for promotion along this line.

The sales for 1947-48 amounted to $13,059.38. The operating expenses totaled $9,213.24, showing a net profit of 3,846.15 with no outstanding debts. We have turned over to the Junior League our budgeted amount of $2,500, and in accordance with AJLA have kept the balance in reserve to cover our running expenses.

I want to take this opportunity to thank every member of my committee, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Bernard and the volunteers for their loyal support and cooperation at the Thrift Shop. I am sure that the year ahead will offer the biggest challenge and opportunity that the Thrift Shop has known since its beginning in 1941.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGUERITE W. GORRELL

WAYS AND MEANS

The Ways and Means Committee's duties include making and adjusting a yearly budget and the responsibility of recommending to the Board any changes in financial policy.

The committee felt that the present League projects are amply protected for a period of three years as required by A.J.L.A. and that no money raising program is necessary at this time. In the event a new project is started, it will then be necessary to consider ways of securing additional funds.

$597.50 was realized this year from furnishing models for fashion shows. $350.00 of this amount was given to the Arts and Crafts Association for their drive to raise funds.

All dues and fines were collected except in one instance and, due to the circumstances, the Board voted to make an exception of this case until a later date.

The budget for 1948-49 was drawn up and approved.

Respectfully submitted,

SARA E. DONOVAN, Treasurer

(8) A requirement that the books of each League shall be kept in accordance with sound accounting practices; that the community funds and administrative funds of each League shall be carried in separate accounts; and that a copy of the audited balance sheet (statement of assets and liabilities) and profit and loss statement (statement of income and expense) shall be distributed to each member of the League.

(9) A requirement that the Board of each League shall present to the membership all proposed major program activities for ratification.

POLICY B

(1) The course for provisional members of all Leagues shall include all topics covered in the Association's basic provisional course. Each League shall send to the Association annually, for evaluation and criticism, an outline of its Provisional course as soon as reasonably possible after the completion thereof.

(2) The Placement Committee of each League shall keep as nearly as possible uniform records concerning the activities of the members under its supervision.

(3) No individual League shall associate itself with or endorse any welfare or other similar project, program or activity which does not meet accepted standards in its field.

(4) All money-raising, on the part of individual Leagues, shall be consistent with standards of dignity and good taste and in keeping with the laws and customs of the community.

(5) Each League shall send to the Association annually a copy of its audited annual statement.

C. No League membership list shall be given to the public or made public, except on those publications issued to members; limited lists may be given to co-operating organizations where there shall be an advantage to the program of the Leagues.

D. Leagues shall not allow their members to use the Junior League name commercially for personal benefit.

E. League members delinquent in paying indebtedness to the A.J.L.A. shall be considered under the rules governing members in arrears in their local dues.

F. Every Junior League has the right to decide its course of action on a local or state public question, provided the action taken by that League (1) is compatible with the stated purposes of the Junior Leagues; (2) does not adversely affect any other League; (3) and is not contrary to the policies of the Association. A Junior League may only take the same action on a national issue as (a) action taken by the Association pursuant to Association Policy II; and (b) action taken by a national organization of which a League's project is a member, with respect to such a project. No Junior League may take public action unless it has previously set up machinery for arriving at such action through a specific study of the problem involved, and of the pertinent legislative or administrative measures.

G. No Junior League, unless the Association delegates the power to a given League, shall hold or sponsor a Junior League group meeting in connection with conferences or institutes of other national or international organizations.

H. Junior League members shall refrain from the practice of using their membership in the League in endorsements for charitable purposes.

I. No Junior League nor Junior League member shall give out Association publicity over the radio or in print without consulting the Association. Because of the effect on Junior League publicity in general, no Junior League nor member representing the Junior League shall broadcast mentioning the Junior League, on a national or area hook-up or a program to be recorded for transmission beyond the community area, without consulting the Association.

J. Any use of the Junior League name in connection with publicity shall include the complete name of the League, and not merely the words "Junior League."

K. Junior Leagues shall not endorse commercial products or concerns.

L. Leagues shall encourage their members to educate themselves in all legislative, political, governmental, and controversial movements which affect the life of their communities and their countries and they should endeavor to stimulate their members to exercise their citizenship intelligently.

M. Because it is important that interpretation of Association program and policy be accurate, persons speaking on those subjects at League meetings, Provisional meetings, or to other groups, should use current material made available by the A.J.L.A. The regional directors and the members of the staff have access to factual data on all Leagues. Therefore, clearance with them is always advisable when Leagues exchange information on major questions of Association policy and League program.

ASSOCIATION PROCEDURES APPLYING TO ALL LEAGUES

INTER-LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURE

Privileges

A member of any League who is subject to constant change of residence may have an inter-League card which shall give her membership privileges for a period of from six months to one year (which may be extended at the discretion of the board of the League to which she has an inter-League card). An inter-League member shall have all privileges of membership except the right to vote or hold office, or any special club privileges offered in the League of the city in which she is temporarily living. In the case of provisional members, the course shall be taken in the city in which the inter-League member is temporarily living.

Dues

The dues of an inter-League member shall be paid to her home League for the class of membership to which she belongs. In addition the League to which she is temporarily attached may charge the actual cost of her membership.

Arranging Inter-League Membership

a. A member desiring an inter-League card shall notify the secretary of the League to which she belongs.

b. The secretary and treasurer of the League shall prepare a written statement of the member's record. This statement shall be submitted to the board of the League, who shall pass a resolution that the member is in good standing.* This resolution must be adopted by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the board.

c. The League secretary shall forward on the inter-League card a copy of the statement as adopted to the secretary of the League with which the member desires to be temporarily affiliated.

d. Inter-League membership shall become effective upon the acceptance of the inter-League card by the Board of Directors of the League with which the member wishes to be temporarily affiliated. This League shall notify the member, her former League, and the Association headquarters within fifteen days of the date the inter-League card is accepted.

e. When the period of inter-League membership expires, the inter-League membership card shall be filled out by the secretary of the League with which the member has been temporarily affiliated and returned to the League in which she retains membership.

Procedure to Transfer Members — Time for Transferring

Leagues may accept transfers except between October 1st and December 1st and should send transfer cards to reach Association headquarters before October 15th. Transfer cards received at headquarters after October 15th will not be accepted until December 1st, but during this period Leagues may extend guest privileges to members whose applications await action.

A member desiring to transfer notifies the Recording Secretary of her League who ascertains from the A.J.L.A. Directory the dates when dues become payable in the League to which the transfer is requested and advises the member when to apply for a transfer to avoid duplication of League dues, if possible.

Dues for Transferring Members

Association Dues—A transferring member is liable for Association dues only once during the Association's fiscal year, April 1st to April 1st.

League Dues—After her transfer has been accepted, a transferring member is liable for dues to the League to which she transfers when they next become payable, but the amount of Association dues should be deducted if the member has paid dues to the League from which she has transferred within the Association's fiscal year. Those whose transfers have not been accepted by October 1st are liable for dues in their home Leagues.

*Good standing means that the member must have successfully met the work requirements of the League and must have paid all installments of her dues in full for the fiscal year in which her application transfer is made.

Procedure for Leagues from which Transfer is Made

The Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer are responsible for filling in the information regarding the member's record called for by the transfer card supplied by the Association. Complete information is urgently requested.

This statement is submitted to the Board of the League which passes a resolution by a two-thirds vote that the transferring member is in good standing. The transfer card in toto is then forwarded to the secretary of the new League. Until the record of acceptance is received from the new League the member's name is retained on the membership list.

When a member has paid her dues since April 1st and her transfer is accepted by the League before October 1st, the treasurer of her first League forwards the amount of the Association dues to the new League.

Procedure for League to which Transfer is Made

The Board of Directors or executive committee of any League shall accept a transfer unless the member has no right to transfer under the provision of the Association By-Laws, Article XI, Section 3, a and b.

Transfers are accepted in order of application except that applications of members under forty may have precedence over sustaining members.

Transfers are effective upon acceptance by the Board of Directors or executive committee of the League to which transfer is being made. Within fifteen days of the date of acceptance, the secretary of the League shall notify (1) the members, (2) the treasurer's office at Association headquarters and (3) the member's former League, using the transfer cards supplied by the Association.

Transferring Members

A member awaiting acceptance of her transfer remains a member of the League from which she is transferring.

A transferred member must conform to the regulations of the League in which she is enrolled.

All members who have transferred to a League from which membership in the Association is subsequently withdrawn shall have the privilege of returning to non-resident membership in their former Leagues.

guests are entitled to the special rate of $3 daily, extended by the hotel. They should register at the Junior League office. Nurses for children may be secured through the hotel. The usual charge is $1.00 an hour. Guests are requested to state the time they would like the nurse to arrive and about how long she will be required.

Cars may be stored at a nearby garage for $2.00 per night.

Reservations

In writing for information or to make a reservation, always address Guest Room Hostess, Association of the Junior Leagues of America, The Waldorf-Astoria, New York 22, N. Y.

Reservations should be made as far in advance as possible and cancellations should be wired immediately. This not only protects the Association against financial loss, but prevents turning away other members. Reservations received by wire are answered by Western Union collect. Requests should include name of League to which member belongs.

It is possible to assign the best accommodations only if the exact date of arrival and the maximum length of stay are known in advance. It is often impossible to retain rooms longer than the time specified in the reservation because they are usually reserved for the very day they are to be vacated.

Registration

8:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.: Take the West elevators direct to the Junior League office on the 19th floor to register.

10:00 P.M. to 8:00 A.M.: Register at the front desk of the hotel.

Length of Stay

Because of the great demand for accommodations, it has become necessary to limit the length of stay to one month for members, and two weeks for guests, who are put up by members.

Eligible Guests

Friends and relatives of members may be put up for a period not exceeding two weeks and may stay for a month if accompanied by members. Written authorization from a League member is required for putting up guests. Members may put up members of their immediate family without restriction as to numbers (husbands, children, parents, brothers and sisters). They may have five additional guest cards per year. Members should write to headquarters for the necessary form to be filled out for non-members who cannot be accepted until this form is received. (No form is necessary for members or non-members who accompany members.) When bringing guests, it is well to send their names in advance to insure the holding of messages and communications received at the hotel previous to arrival.

Meals

The Junior League Lounge, Dining Room and Terrace are situated on the 20th Floor, West side. Meals are served daily, except Sundays, as follows:

Breakfast—8:00 to 10:30 A. M. 55c and up.

Bills are mailed to guests after their departure unless they prefer to pay before leaving. Only U. S. Currency, checks on U. S. Banks or checks on Canadian Banks payable in U. S. funds can be accepted.
