MY CREED

By KATHERINE BORING RONDTHALER

"I believe in Jesus Christ and trust Him with my life. And this is what He does for me:

He gives me strength to fight against sin.

He gives me power to make moral and social decisions on the right side.

He gives me ability to surrender my will to His.

He gives me confidence, patience and peace and a sense of closeness to Him through prayer.

He gives me freedom from fear.

He flashes for me the inner meaning of His Word.

He gives me abundant grace—a radiance plus.

He gives me happiness of heart—even in sorrow.

He gives me the grace to try to love all others.

He gives me serenity of spirit—freedom from worry.

He gives me the spiritual uplift for meditation.

He gives me the power to do "the impossible."

He shows me how to give of myself wholly into my work and into my personal contacts.

He often gives me the words that I should speak.

He gives me through every day a sense of His leading the way.

He gives me the joyful certainty that each morning is a new page, a fresh start.

He enriches my intellectual life by giving me an understanding of His breadth of view and of His own tolerance.

He takes away all fear of death.

He gives me the stabilizing certainty of life after death.

Not that I have attained, I have struggled towards. But all this is His abundance."

IN LOVING MEMORY
OF
ANNE SPAINHOUR MURRAY

WHAT WILL THEY HAVE?

Vividly I recall the upturned soil,
The bright blue skies above new-planted wheat,
My father driving home his mules from toil
Through patches of cool shade and sunny heat,
The pungent hay, made warm by noonday sun,
Then cooled by darkness, bordering on frost.
Brilliant colored threads the memories run
Of growing childhood, which cannot be lost.

What will they have who never knew the land;
Whose days are spent on wheels and pavement stone,
When life's hourglass is draining its last sand,
And flesh is clinging loosely to the bone?
So very much I wish them eyes to see
October's prelude to eternity.

--Anne Spainhour

WINSTON-SALEM WOMAN'S CLUB

HISTORY

The Winston-Salem Woman's Club was organized in 1919 and joined the State Federation in 1920.

Miss Adelaide Fries and fifteen women representing various clubs and organizations met on April 25, 1919. Mrs. Clarence Johnson was president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

On May 7, the first meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms on Liberty Street. One hundred and seventy-five women were present. The organization was perfected and Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler was elected President, and Mrs. Henry L. Riggins Vice-President.

Meetings were first held at the YWCA and in the Ballroom at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Membership grew to 380.

The present club house was purchased in 1925 and opened officially at a vesper service on Sunday, May 24, 1925.

Wednesday was designated as Club Day and the General Meeting was held the first Wednesday, the Garden Department the second, the Art and Literature the fourth and the Music Department the first Thursday.

In later years the Book Review Department, Friday Morning Book Club, Drama Group, Club of Little Gardens, Current Events, Tuesday Afternoon Book Club, Fine Arts, Literary Study Group, Bible group, Poetry Lovers, Art and the American Home, Tuesday Evening Service League, Duplicate Bridge, and Contract Bridge all met at the Club House as part of the Woman's Club.

In 1946 the Woman's Club made its final payment on the Club house. The deed of title is held in trust by the Winston-Salem Foundation.

In 1926 the Junior Woman's Club was organized as a small book club of eight members and was federated in 1929.

Membership in the Junior and Senior Woman's Club is by invitation and the current membership is 240.

The Garden Department and The Thursday Morning Music Club are both members of State and National Federations in their own right.

The Winston-Salem Woman's Club has maintained its membership in the State Federation from 1920-34 and from 1945- . In the 60's the membership was approximately 600.

The Club house is available for meetings, parties, recitals. At the present time the League of Women Voters maintains an office on the second floor. Other rooms are available.

THURSDAY MORNING MUSIC CLUB

NCFMC THEME: "NCFMC IN RETROSPECT ENRICHES CONTEMPORARY NCFMC"

The object of the Thursday Morning Music Club shall be to promote and encourage the growth and performance of all types of good music - with strong emphasis on American music and other projects of a musical nature - endorsed by the National and State Federations of Music Clubs, to which this Club belongs; and to cooperate with the Woman's Club in movements connected with the general welfare of the community, where music is concerned.

PROJECTS

Participation in National Scholarships and State Scholarships. Tangible Contributions to "Music in Hospitals". Definite interest in musical needs in the community. Maintaining a Woman's chorus to give community programs by using the media: Personal appearances, Public service. Support of public school music and promoting Junior participation. Promoting American music and International Music relations. The observance of National Music Week. Promoting interest in Winston-Salem Symphony. Promoting interest in string ensembles. Consistent interest in good musical broadcasts. To teach music to handicapped children at Goodwill. Help with music programs for the Concentrated Employment program for the Ex-offenders. Counseling for Ex-offenders.
