SCHOOL SONGS

Here's to Whitakers High School

Loyal and bold.

Here's to our banner of blue and gold.

Here's to former students of days gone by,

Singing the victory song of our old High.

The Whitakers High School is the best of all

Of all the rest we are the finest yet.

We are supreme in everything we do

And to our banner we will always be true.

We stand for honor, love, and loyalty

And to our schoolmates we will ever be.

So come on schoolmates let us give a yell,

Give a yell, to our old High

The Committee wishes to thank Enfield Academy for being such gracious hosts tonight, May 2, 1998.

A huge thank you to “my” committee members who helped me to make your night possible. I am sorry that some of our alumni assumed this was to be strictly a “fund” raiser. It is intended to be a “fun” raiser!

Gratitude is not the word for the information MinnieJo Fisher Gay has supplied us in this book. Most of us would never have known about some of the history without her research in places I didn't even know existed. The cover was designed by one of her daughters, June Gay Carlisle. MinnieJo's computer and my phone are being retired. They are “all used up”. Thank you Helen Vernon for the haunting music.

Heartfelt thanks also to Alumni who have made our two reunions a success. 272 Alumni, 212 spouses, one principal, thirteen teachers and spouses attended in 1990.

We have attending (at this printing) 340, including nine teachers, who were not alumni, one principal, 222 Alumni and 116 spouses and family. Two of the alumni were teachers.

The oldest Alumni, Lucy Belle Dixon Felton, class of 1923, and her sister, Cora Wilma Dixon Lucas, class of 1930 honor us with their attendance tonight. They were both unlocated in 1990.

A grateful thank you to the Whitakers School Alumni Assoc. Board members (especially the younger ones who will keep the association going) for accepting my request to help make some young peoples' dreams come true. With your help we can do good things for generations to come.

“Old friends are best friends”, Sincerely,

Vivian Worrell Chadwick
Chairperson/Treasurer

HISTORY

The first school in Whitakers was the Whitakers Academy opened by Elder Andrew J. Moore in 1876. It was co-educational. Elder Moore moved from Wilson to Whitakers where he established the Academy on what is now highway 301.

The one-story gable-front form with gable returns was a popular school-house design during this period and the lateral wing reflects a typical later addition. Moore operated this school for approximately 25 years. His homeplace is to the south of this residence.

In the late eighteen hundreds, Whitakers boasted of two one-room schools. On the Nash side a private school was operated by Mr. Tuck for several years. Jessie Cutchin, who later married W.T. Braswell, went from this school in 1890 to Greensboro Female College.

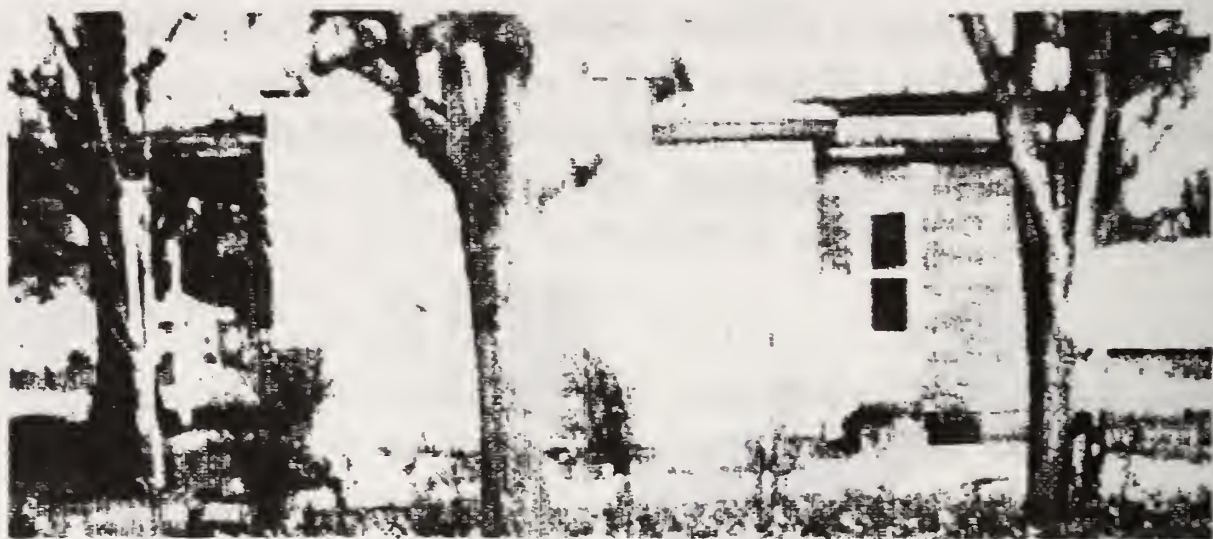

On the Nash side, perhaps a little west of the town limits, was another one-room building in which many Whitakers citizens received their early training in the early nineteen hundreds. Mrs. Mamie White Tyler and Miss Mollie Wheeless were among the teachers in the new school.

On the Edgecombe side, the wooden structure was located on the banks of an old canal. Here Mamie Cutchin, who later became the wife of Archelaus Braswell, began teaching in 1888. She was followed by Jennie Cutchin.

Other teachers included Cornelia Moore, who married Jarrett White, Miss Nannie Battle, and Miss Routh Battle.

The Edgecombe School was moved a few Blocks eastward to Hwy 44, the Weaver farm, the 413 Main St. lot and later became the home of the second wife of Henry Weaver, Mrs. Mollie Weaver. Miss Lillie Pittman was an outstanding teacher here in 1900.

The first public school building was a long rambling wood structure a few blocks south of the old Academy in Nash Co. 1909 was the first year Whitakers had a graded public school and Mr. Singletary was principal. Other principals, in the memory of those who attended the school, 1909-1922, are Mr. Settle and Mr Jarrett White.

This building later became a home and the pump house stood for many years until demolished and a new brick home was built.

We are trying to identify these students. Johnny Dixon is one of them, born 1906, Alma Dickens (1904). Her sister, Ethel Dickens (Mobley) is another. Two of their brothers, Jake Dickens, born 1905 and Kirby Dickens born 1908. These lived on Main Street in Whitakers.

Another view of the school shown behind Isabelle Taylor, born 1885 and Irma V. Carlisle, born 1890. They did not attend this school but did attend Moore's Academy and finished there. Isabelle married Henry A Braswell and Irma married Dr. J. C. Ray and was the mother of Will Bond Ray. Isabell is the mother of Helen Braswell Vernon and Annie Mae Braswell Wright.

Notes from Lucy Nunnery Payne as she spoke May 12, 1990

By 1915 growth had occurred to the extent that a principal had charge of the school; there were seven or eight teachers. Lucy Nunnery Payne was in first grade then and when she reached sixth grade her class was assigned to the large room over the drug store, now Whitakers Medical Center, due to the overflow at school. This group spent their seventh grade there. County Supervisor, Carrie B. Wilson, administered examinations to determine their eligibility to enter high school in the fall.

The new brick two story building was completed in September, 1922. L.S. Inscoe was County Superintendent and described it as the finest, also the most expensive, school building erected in Nash County at that date. Van Ward McGhee, Principal, taught math and science. Teachers, Agnes Jarvis McGhee, Miss Hudson; two years later, Miss Parker

1923 Graduates: James Carl Loftin, Jeff Askew, Alma Dickens, Margaret Draughon, Bessie Faircloth, Naomi Landen, Lorelle Taylor, Elizabeth Price, Sarah Taylor, Cora White, Katie Fountain, Jacob Winstead and Lucy Bell Dixon. Some of these are shown in the picture of the group of students not identified.

Some of the principals in the, "30"s were Mr. Ormond, H. L. Hendricks, and W.C. Hopkins through 1950, Paul Hudson. Curtis Crissman was the principal in 1951 and was followed by Dan Lane in 1954, W. R. Walker, Maurice Collins, Robert Horne and lastly, Mr. Gurley, ending in 1963. High school students went to Red Oak in Nash County and North Edgecombe at Leggetts. The Elementary program was carried on for three years by four teachers. Jean Barnhill taught first and second grades; Maxine Wimer Moore, third and fourth grades; Virginia Gerrock Reid, seventh and eighth grades. Lucy Nunnery Payne had fifth and sixth grades along with the responsibility of being principal. A part-time secretary, a bus driver, a janitor and a lunchroom worker completed the staff.

1920 a bond issue was voted in to finance the erection of a modern brick two-story building. From 1923-1938, elementary and secondary departments were located in this structure.

By 1939 the enrollment had grown to such an extent that more space was needed, and a separate brick building was completed for high school pupils.

This building is used by Enfield Academy as the Grammar School Building.

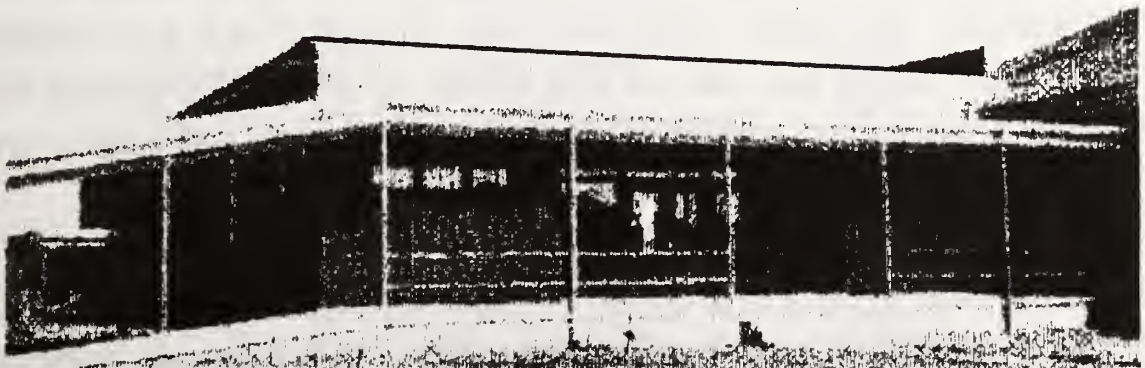

In 1939 a gymnasium was completed. This was a W.P.A. project.

About 1942, due to immigration of students to Rocky Mount City Schools, the Battleboro High School was closed and those students came to Whitakers High School. They were a welcomed addition to our school and many new and lasting friendships were formed.

In 1957 Whitakers School had a faculty of seven teachers in the elementary grades, a piano teacher, who also trained the high school glee club, and five high school teachers. They had a school secretary, a lunch room manager with two assistants, and a janitor and his assistants. There were 226 elementary students and 84 high school students. Five buses provided transportation. Spacious and well-kept grounds added to the attractive appearance of the school.

In 1944 an Agriculture building was erected. Ag. teachers during this time were T. H. LeCroy followed by R. M. Bunn and others. About 1948 a "Train A Farmer" program for Veterans of W.W. II , was conducted in the Ag. building and Mr. Bunn was assisted in this program by Norman Gay, Jr. There was also a new program to teach the preservation of foods. Canning in cans was done in a building on the premises. This building can be seen at the back of the Gymnasium between the gymnasium and Agriculture building.

The Auditorium built in 1956 was demolished in 1997

Whitakers School closed with Nash students going to Red Oak and Edgecombe students going to North Edgecombe at Leggett. Those students from 1964 down graduated from other schools.

This was the beginning of integration. Enfield Academy purchased the building and land. The News and Observer, Friday, December 8, 1967 states "Final agreement in the sale of surplus school property by the Nash County Board of Education to the Enfield Academy at a price of $10,000."

"The academy is a three-year-old institution (formed in 1965) with about 100 students in grades one through eight and a faculty of seven. The Whitakers School property was declared surplus after consolidation of Nash Schools in 1966."

The old gymnasium was torn down in 1991. The new metal gym. has been built on the lot beside the two story brick building. Open house is scheduled in May 1998, to allow those who wish to do so, to go through the two story building for one last time. It is scheduled to be torn down and a new metal building will take its place. Many of us have fond memories here and will be sorry to see it go.

We remember Uncle Lee Whitaker, the black janitor, firing the coal furnace which heated the water for the heat to push up through the radiators into the rooms. The old coal bin was torn down when the auditorium was built in 1956 and a new method of heat was installed. If you look closely you will still see pieces of coal on the ground slightly embedded. In the picture of the building you can see smoke coming from the chimney.

There used to be a Bus Garage where the wooden gymnasium stood. We remember playing around the garage, long, long ago demolished. These were the days of the school busses with the square corners and wooden benches, unpadded, in the center of the bus to sit on.

GRADUATION TIME

It's graduation time again,
with the rustle and the bustle.
Forty million things to do,
And I really must hustle.

When I think I've finished,
I find it is not true.
She's found another million
Things for me to do.

Evening gowns to sew
With tucks, lace and frills;
Banquets and parties,
With all the senior thrills.

But when at last the day arrives,
With pride I sit and smile.
In cap and gown I watch her
March proudly down the aisle.

My worries are forgotten,
Also this silly rhyme,
Because I have a senior
At graduation time.

Moore Homeplace - Nash County -Whitakers, NC

This home was built by Andrew J Moore, said to be the fourth house to be built in Whitakers. Sold to David Vick who said he wanted to restore it since he was a teenager. He has made a grand job of the restoration. He said the bay window upstairs would be the first thing he did. (Picture loaned me by a cousin, Al G. Taylor of Greensboro, NC.)

After serving with the Confederacy, Captain Moore taught in Wilson County and moved to Whitakers and established Whitakers Academy. Here he installed rigid morals as well as the three R's (four R's really, for religion was always taught.)

May Day Exercises at Moore's Academy, Whitakers, N.C. With homeplace in back- ground. May 1st was always a gala day for the school children, with a big picnic at the creek, after a special MAY DAY program. Public School Music was taught in the school and Mrs. Elizabeth Farmer Moore gave private lessons in the home. They also taught French, English and Latin, shorthand, typing, bookkeeping and telegraphy. The 35th session opened July 13, 1896. Board was $8-$10, tuition $10-$20. per month.
