TRIBUTE PAID DECEASED AT DALLAS REUNION

Fine Personality And Christian Character Of C.L. Dallas Jr. Greatly Missed By Family

At the Dallas family reunion held at Mt. Hermon church on the Leaksville-Reidsville road recently the following sketch was read as a tribute to the late Charles L. Dallas Jr., who met an accidental death by drowning last summer.

"The untimely death of Charles L. Dallas Jr. during the past summer came as a shock to the family and brought sorrow to all his relatives and friends. From the large number of young men and women of the Dallas family who served in the armed forces during World War II he was the first to be claimed by death. Because of his fine personality and solid Christian character he had endeared himself to all who knew him.

"Charles L. Dallas Jr, better known as 'C.L.' was born February 24, 1918. At the age of seven he joined the Leaksville Presbyterian church. His fine background of home training had fitted him for the experience and from the very beginning of his church affiliation he took his new obligations seriously, attending church and Sunday school services regularly. As a small boy he saved his Sunday school papers and bound them with covers into book form. His parents now prize this possession as they keep it in memory of his childhood interest in religious matters.

"Later in life he transferred his church membership to the Reidsville Presbyterian church. There, in the young's people group and the other church activities, he continued to carry on an ardent worker for the Christian religion.

"He finished High School at Leaksville in 1937, then went with Wilkerson's Funeral Home to take apprentice training in embalming. He later attended the Gupton-Jones School of Embalming, Nashville, Tenn. from which he graduated in 1939. He soon passed the State Board of Examiners and returned to Wilkerson's in Reidsville.

"He entered the Armed Forces of the United States on June 21, 1941, serving with the Army Medical Corps until his discharge from the service on January 15, 1946. His overseas service was in the Pacific area. Following his discharge from the service he returned in his former job in Reidsville.

"The Dallas family at the first reunion since the recent war paused to pay tribute to a deceased World War II veteran and to a fine young member of the family whose Christian character held every promise of much useful service in the years to come. Although, God saw fit to call him away from his duties here in this world to his reward in heaven, he had already wrought well during his comparatively short life and his splendid example and influence will live on in the hearts and lives of his relatives and friends."

I don't have any way to get a copy of the obituaries so I will just send them. Hope to be seeing you soon.

Dear Mrs. Thomas,

Feb 24, 1980

Was real glad to hear from you – sorry that you have not been to well. We have had several snows, but not much at the time – 2 to five inches – melted in short time. You know we have a lot of sickness over here, virus and flu. So far I have escaped both, but Mrs. Thomas I have really been heart broken. Henry's oldest daughter who works at the hospital, she has been in hospital fro two weeks, serious ill. Her condition is bad. She seems to feel better at times, with medication, yet her condition is no better. They are thinking about sending her to Duke tomorrow or may send her home for a few days to see how she does. I feel so sorry for Henry. Don't know what to do, Mrs. Thomas, we can't tell him, for we don't know. Seems the doctors are doing all that can be done for her. The Dallas family is worried. Everyone is so nice to help a lot. What she has the Doctor says (Poly Arthritis) is all I can write. Only a few cases they know of. No cure for it, only can be treated. Doctors don't know the cure for it.

Mrs. Thomas, I have thought about you a lot, John's family, Charlotte. Seems I am here with my hands tied. Can't help out with anything. I'm sending some clippings for John and you can tell them I have wrote you.

You and Mr. Thomas take care
Come when you can

Love to all

Dear Sirs,

I am working on the Dallas family history. I need to find some information on David T. Dallas. I understand that your funeral home buried him and I was wondering if you could furnish me the information such as was furnished the newspaper.

Will appreciate any help that you can give.

Sincerely
John T. Dallas

Dear Mr. Dallas,

David T. Dallas died in Danville, Virginia on December 17, 1951. Enclosed is a copy of the newspaper clipping.

His last address was Ringold, Va., Rt. 1, working for Clark's Dairy, now out of business. He was listed as a WW II Veteran, but we was never able to prove this as fact. He had a wife, who died before he did by the name of Susie Pruitt Dallas.

Survivors listed at the time of his death, Clarence M. Dallas of Rt., Mebane, N.C., a son. Also a brother, J.W. Dallas of Whitmell, Virginia; three half brothers, Gilbert S. Holley of 33 Dallas Ave., Danville, Sam Holley and Boyd Holley , both of Reading, Pa.; two half sisters, Mrs. Hugh Schoolfield and Mrs. Annie Love, both of Leesburg, Fla. and four grandchildren.

Ms. Chattlin,

I have been working on the Dallas family history for about 30 years and seeing your article in the Pittsylvania County Heritage book has rekindled my interest in finding more information on Cenia Dallas who was your ancestor. I am a descendant of her brother, Meredith who married Sallie Blair. Nancy O. Dallas who married Byrd Burnett was the daughter of Cenia's brother, Jabez Leftwich Dallas who died in 1848 and is buried at Hinesville, Virginia. Byrd and Nancy are both buried in the family cemetery at Hinseville and Byrd Burnett has a tomb with the birth and death information on it.

Robert Dallas and Nancy Turner Dallas's homeplace was located on what is now Keatts Lane near Sugartree Church on Sandy River in Pittsylvania County. There is a cemetery nearby (no marked graves) and I believe that to be the old homeplace cemetery and that Robert and Nancy Dallas are buried there. Arthur G. Dallas, a son of Robert and Nancy's, owned the old homeplace after their deaths. Arthur had a daughter, Virginia Permelia Dallas who married Madison O. Green. Mr. Robert Blair, who is now deceased, told me in the 1970's while we were at the site that he helped dig the grave for Virginia Permelia Dallas Green and also that Madison (Matt) O. Green was buried there.

Do you have any information on Cenia and Thomas S. Burnett that I could obtain from you such as descendants, dates, possibly where they are buried. I would like to get a fairly good history of Cenia Dallas Burnett.

Cenia Dallas was born 29 July 1796 which came from the file on Robert Dallas at the National Archives which was included with his pension application. There was a family register of the Dallas family included with the application. Also from the marriage records of Pittsylvania County I found that Thomas S. Burnett and Cenia Dallas were married 16 March 1816 in Pittsylvania County. Cenia was probably born in Bedford County as Robert and Nancy Dallas moved to the farm on Sandy River around the year 1800.

A Rev. Ed Collins took me to the old Nancy O. Burnett place in 1983 and I drew a sketch of the site. There was chimney still standing and on the rock just above the fireplace was carved the year 1864. I believe that Byrd Burnett was some kin to Thomas S. Burnett.

Cenia had a sister, Locky Dallas, who married David W, Breedlove. I have also been looking for information on them and possibly their burial site.

Thanks for any help.

Dear Mr. Donnelly,

Enjoyed talking to you today and will enclose the information on Robert W. Dallas.

Robert W. Dallas was born in 1820 (1850 Census shows him to be 30 yrs old) married 20 Dec 1841 in Pittsylvania County to Jane B. Travis. She was the daughter of Jain B. Travis. They had two sons, William T. born 9 Jul 1847 – 1 Aug 1897. William T. was buried in Rockingham County at the McNeely Cemetery. James Monroe Dallas, the other son born 1847(died in the 1890's) and he is buried at the Yeatts Cemetery in Level Run, Virginia. Robert W. Dallas lived to be about 75 years old. It is my opinion that Robert Dallas came to North Carolina and lived near the Berry Post Office and when he died he was buried in Meador Cemetery which is near Berry. Robert W. Dallas father was Merideth Dallas who married 17 March 1817 to Sally Blair of Pittsylvania County, Va. Robert W.'s grandfather was Robert Dallas who served in the Revolutionary War (1776-1779). I have no idea what happened to his wife Jane as I have found no record of her. I have looked at the Rockingham Census but no real effort to locate anything but Thomas's the time I was looking.

Robert had two brothers, Milton K, who died young and my grandfather, James Jackson Dallas who married Mary Settle. Here is a statement of James J. Dallas's service. "James J. Dallas of Rockingham County, N.C., enlisted in Wentworth, N.C. 25 Sept. 1863 as a Private. He was enlisted by Captain L.M. Anderson and assigned to Camp Holmes, Raleigh, N.C. He also served at Drewery's Bluff and Ft. Sumter. He served for the duration of the war and returned to the old homeplace in Rockingham County. He had come to Rockingham County from Pittsylvania County, Va. Account of pay and clothing records state; Age 45 –eyes blue – Hair black – complexion dark – height 5 ft 7 in. tall." In Mary Dallas's widow application for pension in 1901, it was stated that no one knew his company or branch of service. James J. Dallas had died in 1894. He is buried at the old Dallas homestead in Rockingham County.

Hope this helps some. Any information that you can provide will be appreciated. Will look forward to buying a copy of your book. Also if you run across any of the following names from Pittsylvania County or Rockingham I would like to hear from you and maybe I can help you with them. Thomas, Blair, Settle, Alcorn and Price. If you have any questions, please feel free to write.

Sincerely

Dear John,

It has been some time since we corresponded. I am trying to complete Troy's family history but he has been quite ill for over 4 years. I have little time for research. He had a massive heart attack in Jan. 87 followed by open heart surgery. Complications led to complete kidney failure and he is now on dialysis 3 days a week. That plus his diabetes make for a full day. He was found to be diabetic in 1978 following gall bladder surgery. (Inherited type). We could find no record of such in the family until your first letter mentioned that his grandparents lost many children due to the kidney problems. After we met Maye Roberts in Eden, she told us that it probably came from the McNeely-Howard side of the family as there were many diabetics in Stone and Roberts family. We have just learned that Hilda Linehan is diabetic and has been for sometime but kept it a secret. So you can see how one note can open a window sometime.

We made a trip to N.C. last Oct but had to return home early as treatment at Eden (Dr. Woods) made him sick everyday. Dr. Woods is very good but only discovered that Troy needed his profile sodium on his last treatment. Eden was the only city with space to accept Troy and that meant a 40 mile trip three days a week as we were staying in Danville. I had a short time in Wentworth one day and another day spent with Maye Roberts. I was sorry to miss meeting you and comparing notes but Maye said you had moved back to Greensboro. Last week, Jane Morrisett McGee, Jane Dallas, was here for a visit and gave me your address as she had tried to reach you in Greensboro. So much for update. She and her husband, David are wonderful people. We enjoyed their visit so much.

Through Pittsylvania County Historical Society and Wm Blair, Frederick, Maryland, I have a pretty good history of Blair-Reynolds-Dallas connections. I floored everyone when I proved that Troy's parents we 3rd cousins.(see enclosed outline). I am enclosing a list of some questions that I can't seem to find the answers. I am also enclosing a copy of a letter receive3d in 1984 but have not heard from the lady since late '84. the chart she sent has me confused tho it has to be the same family. Just wish I could get to Bedford, Va. to do a little research. The enclosed information on Thomas Dallas and his "Crab Orchard" property is very interesting. At one time Stafford county covered all of Northern Virginia from Blue Ridge to the Bay. Did the Blair's, Dallas's and other allied families come to this country together? As they seem to be in the same general location down thru history.

Whatever information you can give me will be most appreciated> I will gladly pay cost of copies of Bible records, pictures or any other papers plus postage and will send you anything I have that you need. I still hope to meet you and your family. Is there ever a Dallas reunion? When I married Troy, his family became my family too.

List of questions:

1. Who were Jane B. Travis parents and her name Jane Booker Travis. Jane Booker Dallas was a granddaughter. When and where did she die? No info on her in ____.
2. When did Robert W. Dallas die and where is he buried?
3. Do you have any info on Nancy Turner? A Stephen Turner (died 1834) had a son, Stephen Terry Turner, any kin to Nancy? As she named one son, Stephen and one, Terry.
4. Any early info on Robert Dallas? Or Merideth Dallas. I found a Merideth Dallas on 1850 census age 50? No children. Living with Churchwell Giles and wife Mary. Also Milton K. Dallas, age 25, counted with A.H. Rogers family. Also no occupation listed. Our family? 1850 census full of errors.

Dear Elsie

Sorry to be so slow in answering your letter. I've been to Salt Lake Library myself, working on other lines. I haven't work on the Dallas line for some time. However in looking at my notes I may be able to at least give you some clues.

We may be related, I don't know. Do you know Margaret Buxton? She has done a great deal of research on Dallas's. I don't know wheter she is still alive but suggest you write to her and see. Her address is (or was 15 years ago) 9525 Morrow Rd, Albuquerque, New Mexico, 81112. (My letter to her not ret'd by P.O. but no answer either) She corresponded with many people – and she tentatively came up with this.

Thomas Dallas land grant 1726 on Crab Orchard

Children: (1) John Dallas born 1748 died 1815 Wilkes Co., Ga. married Mary Walker. Their children were Dennis Dallas, Thomas Dallas, John Dallas Jr. born 1785 married 1795 to Sally White (2) Dennis Dallas who had the following children, James Dallas, Joshua Dallas married Nancy Keith, John Dallas married Nancy Cundiff and Robert Dallas born 1760 married 1781 to Nancy Turner (Yours) (3) Alexander Dallas born 1750 Prince William County, Va. married Elizabeth Causey and had the following children, James Dallas, Robert Dallas, John Dallas and Thomas Dallas (4) Maramaduke Dallas born ca 1754 married 1775 to Elizabeth _____ and had the following children, Eliza Dallas, Polly Dallas, Agnes Dallas, Robert Dallas married 1850 to Phoebe Morgan and Sally Dallas married 1795 to James Williams

All of these lived in Bedford except

Thomas land grant 1726 (I believe he didn't not sure)

I see he was in Lancaster County when land granted -Northern Neck between Chesapeake Bay and Rappahonock River. Your Robert's land adjoined Marmadukes. (Note) Dennis Dallas died in Loudon Co., Va. in 1767. He was with Lord Fairfax (per book in Sarasota Library) in 1757. No other infor on him.

I also have the pension for Robert Dallas (Nancy Turner) He had pension # 1785 – 10th Va. Regt. 1779 - Apr 8 1883 sold warrant to Robert Rankins, wife Nancy Turner, sons, Stephen and Terry (No Merideth mentioned) I had hoped that I could find my Robert was a son of this couple but could find no evidence.

Also a Robert Dallas served a Bounty Warrant (Box 40 Folder 11) flagged item.

_Certification of Robert Dallas's Revolutionary War Service 30 Dec 1779 This was for service in the 5th Va. Regt??

Oh., I just found what I was looking for. Robert Dallas b _____ d. Feb 19, 1839 Pensioner of Pittsylvania County and married Nancy Turner 1781, Bedford Co., Va. Pension #120.65 Enlisted from Bedford County. She died after June 27, 1845 when she applied (for pension) at age 80. He was in battle of Germanton and Monnmuth.

Dear John

Thank you so much for all the information you sent. I haven't been able to do much for the past year due to falling and breaking my left hip and left arm. I was dressed to go for my morning walk but sit down to get latest news before I left when I tried to get going again my left foot would not move so I pitched forward on my left hand, that did it. I was alone in a house with double pain glass all around so yelling did no good, it was Sunday morning and all walkers had already gone by. My daughter usually comes on Sunday morning so didn't worry about this time. She did not come until 2:30, a call to 911 got things moving in a hurry. I was in shock and don't remember much of this. I was in hospital for 5 days then to re-hab unit for 5 weeks, then home for more therapy for another six weeks. I still use a cane or walker but do get around and back driving my car, which is not a problem. All this happened on Sunday, April 1st (April fools days0, 2001.

It looks like some paper or records in Rockingham County would have something where Robert W. (Dallas) is buried? They didn't scrap him up and put him in the trash did they?

My daughter-in-law goes to National Archives Branch just south of San Francisco. She sends me a lot of stuff, most of it is blown up so I can read it better. I have ha map of the old Dallas homestead showing graveyard on the right had side of road going to Ford also two graves near a tree on left side of same road – who are they?

I just saw on the Onealo Lee papers that both the Dallas and Boaz Bibles are in the National Archives. I'll write my daughter-in-law to check the Dallas bible for needed information. She has already sent me a lot of "stuff" which I have not been able to read. Then I have Robert Dallas's Military records, pension record, he sold his land warrants (Ohio territory). I think I will have to spread more papers out and read them.

Jana Morrisette (Cosby' daughter) married David McGee and they have been to Scotland twice, Dallas & McGee records. All of T.F.'s family is gone now. He died March 30, 1993, Pansy died May 2, 1996 and Sarah died October 3, 2001. James Kyle Dallas died August 21, 1979. Both of Barbara's children are dead, Barbara Ann and James Miller. Both of the sons of Fannie Sue Dallas Roberts are deceased, right at the moment I cannot find the paper with the dates. We visited "Berk" and "Dink" often at their home on Emerald Isle, N.C. Both died because of kidney problems. Frank has Lou Gerhig's disease and Berk's kidney problem, just like T.F.'s, so it's genetic, guess down from Dallas-McNeeley side of family, right? Before you read all this, you'll be worn out. Again thank you and if I get something of interest from archives, will send you copies

Best wishes to you & yours
Elsie Callie Dallas

Hello,

12-5-74

I'm sorry to be so long in answering and saying thanks for all the info you sent. So very, very interesting. My work has me so pushed I don't have time right now to write much. Just want to enclose snaps of some markers at Rhodes Graveyard. (Info is back of each picture.)

When I have time I will send you a snap of my mother (75 years old). She is behind one of the markers, but I goofed as was trying to center tomb.

Again, thanks a lot.

Best Wishes, Marie Allison

P.S. Don't have your last letter in front of me, so may not have answered your questions. As you might suspect, my mother has been thrilled to discover our relatives.

Letter No. 2

I have caught up with most of my work for today and started looking through some of the material that I have. Came across the letter you wrote last. So will try to answer some of the things you asked.

Mrs. Myrtle Morris who lives near Sedalia, Ky. (Graves County) has a copy of the book "The Williford-Williford Family Treks into America" by Eurie Pearl Neal, 1959, Rich Printing Co., Nashville, Tn., Nicholstone Book Bindery, Nashville, Tn. Also, she is the one who has the Dallas Bible. I have visited her one time and at that time a son had the Bible, so I did not get to see it. We live approx. 35 to 40 miles from Mrs. Norris. I am not sure of her address. It would probably be either RR, Sedalia, Ky. Or RR, Mayfield, Ky. Sorry that I can't help you there.

I don't know much about war records. Mother's brother, Tolbert, served in World War I and drowned in Camp. My brother, Virgil, was killed in WWII while training as a pilot, but as far as the Civil War, I'm not sure.

Hope this helps a little

Dear John,

Received your letter about gathering the Dallas family history. I will attempt to fill in any information I can. While visiting my father, G.T. Roberts, 2015 Wright Ave., Greensboro and my cousin, Hilda Lineham, 816 Lexington, Greensboro, I was told you have a right much history on some of the older family members.

My father was married to Fanny Sue Dallas May 6, 1913 (She died March 3, 1920 – age 31) Her parents were William T. Dallas and Sarah McNeely Dallas. To this union three children were born:

Myself (1) Berkley Carrington Roberts born 12 Mar 1914

(2) Erskine Roberts born 1915 died 1917

(3) Francis Dallas Roberts born 21 Feb 1920 3625 Mill Pond Road, Charlotte, N.C. 28211 Phone 1-704-366-5322

I was married July 3, 1938 to Deeda {"Dee"} Baynes. We have three children. They are: (1) Thomas Terrell Roberts born 21 Mar 1942 wife Emma, Child, Christi Paradise Rd P.O. Box #284, Albemarle, N.C. 28001

(2) Berkley Carrington Roberts Jr born 3 Jun 1940 Wife: Lyn children: Gwen, born 10 Feb 1970 & Cary, born 22 Mar 1975

(3) Mary Shannon Roberts Wright born 24 Aug 1949 (Mrs. William Beverly Jr) 1 child: William Beverly Wright III "Billy" born 10 May 1971 6312 New Market Way, Raleigh, N.C. 27609

My brother Frank has three children: Carol, Barbara and Billy (William Dallas) Barbara has two children: Dallas and Justin, they lived in Americus, Ga. The others live in Charlotte.

Incidentally, my wife was born and reared in Rockingham County (Bethany). She remembers your parents, Herbert Dallas and Charlotte Thomas. We had a neighbor here in Raleigh, Hazel Carter from near Wentworth (She is now Mrs. E.W. Southern now living in Richmond) She knew your parents during High School days.

We would appreciate it if when you finish your family tree you would let us have a copy.

Sincerely Yours

Berkley C. Roberts

P.S. My mother's brother Kyle Dallas had three children, Spencer, Steadman and Neal. Spencer and Steadman have passed away but Neal Ferguson lives at 2620 36th Ave W., Bradenton, Fla., 33505. Steadman's widow, Kathleen Dallas lives at 513 Diane Lane, Richmond, Va. 23227. Two children to this union: Rhonda and Diane. Spencer's wife died several years ago and I don't know whereabouts of children.

Barbara, I am sure you thought I had dropped from the face of the earth; I haven't gotten holiday cards out in the last few years as I let myself get so buried in work and then dash off to Arkansas and back to work. This week, however, I got a note from you which the post office actually sent in a plastic bag as it had become torn and looked like a parade of huge trucks had run over it in the mud ... it was not entirely legible but I made out most of what it said. You had written it almost two years ago in February 2004....I am so sorry I am just now receiving it.

I am mailing a holiday card to you today with a note that brings you up to date on my children and me. My dad is doing well, 82 and continues to play golf and drives to Little Rock regularly. He will come over and join me with my children at my sister Martha's house for Christmas Day. It is my sister Becki's year to stay in DeWitt and be with her in-laws. Becki has the only grandchild among us, a beautiful 2 year old red head named Rylee Grace who is the apple of my dad's eye...and all of ours as well. She is the daughter of Becki's oldest child, Carrie, who is a pharmacist in Stuttgart which is 25 miles from DeWitt. Carrie and her husband are expecting a second child in the spring.

Martha, my middle sister, is still in Little Rock at the University of Ark. Medical Sciences Campus College of Pharmacy; she has gotten a second master's degree and is working on her doctorate now... at age 55! Her oldest is a nurse in the NICU at our Children's Hospital there; her youngest child, Drew, is at the University of Arkansas.

You mentioned calling Tommy and learning Anne had died in the summer of 2003; I am so sorry you did not know earlier. The last couple of weeks she was alive I asked for a list of people I could call and keep posted and they gave me a list of people, we talked about other relatives and they told me they were covered. I will not chance this type thing again. I had a good visit with all the cousins but Florence's daughter when I went to Anne's funeral; I was also in Columbia the following spring to give the commencement address at Columbia College, Mother's alma mater where ironically the current president is a friend of mine from Arkansas. Then I was back in Columbia this past April as Florence's oldest grandchild, Rusty's daughter Sharny was married at Main Street Methodist; how special to be there for a wedding where my parents were married. Tommy came to Arkansas for a weekend this past fall.

I mentioned above Florence's daughter (Sandy) was not at the funeral for Anne; she also did not get to attend Sharny's wedding. Sandy lives in Myrtle Beach and remarried a couple of years ago. She has fought cancer for years and has had a raging recurrence in the last year, has not done well. The latest report I have had is that Tommy and his siblings were all in Myrtle Beach for Thanksgiving, they called her and she wasn't feeling up to company in the hospital but they each spoke with her by phone. Tommy said she is determined to beat it!

Lyn Anne, Anne and James' youngest daughter is in Columbia; she and her husband have three beautiful children, two boys and girl, Mary Katherine. Tina, the oldest daughter lives outside Greenville, SC and teaches school; her husband works for BMW. Their two daughters play in a lot of tennis tournaments, the oldest is a senior in high school. Rad lives in Charlotte, NC; one of his two sons is also a senior in high school.

I have made quick trips the last few years to the Bettini reunion in June in Greensboro; I did not get to attend Aunt Annie's funeral this past summer as I was in Arkansas at that time tending to some family business and just could not reschedule to go. They had a lovely enlarged ad like you had sent me from the newspaper about Aunt Annie at the reunion...the one where they talked about the place she lived (assisted care) and it talked about her work as a seamstress for Miss NC gowns.

I am headed to Arkansas on Wednesday of next week for a week; my card with update on my children should arrive soon. I am delighted to have your email address and am so sorry I didn't get until now the earlier letter written so long ago.

All the best to you and your family members, please give them holiday greetings for me. I would love to have your brother's address sometime!

With love,
Carol Hampton Rasco

Mrs. Dallas,

A few days ago I came across a letter that you wrote me in 1991. Around 1984 I decide it was time to take a break from family history work. Then in 1999 I decided I wanted to get my material in some time of order, so I have been working on it for the pass several years. I have done a little research but mostly just typing up what I had.

I just recently joined the Piedmont NC-VA Society and received a book that showed your name in it and I have come with several things that may be of interest to you.

When in the Danville research room recently, I came across the Robert W. Dallas obituary. Then I came back to Reidsville and also found it in the Reidsville Review. I cannot locate where he is buried. I wrote to several sources in Rocky Mount where he was killed in 1892 and Wilson, N.C. where Pace Warehouse was located, but no luck. His wife Jane died between 1872 and 1876 and is probably buried near the old homeplace. He married Elizabeth Kernodle in 1876. Elizabeth was born the daughter of Coleman Brann. Robert W. Dallas was her fourth husband. I found her grave at Old Salem Cemetery in Winston-Salem. Her grave is marked and she is buried in a plot with her daughter who was a Kernodle before her marriage, she married Thomas Patterson.

From some death records that I found at the Courthouse in Chatham, James Monroe Dallas died 15 March 1896 at the Poor House in Chatham, Va. from Turburculosis. He was buried at the Yeatts Cemetery somewhere near Level Run and Straightstone, Virginia. I have not been able to locate this cemetery yet. His wife, Melissia Warren Dallas is buried in Eden, N.C. at Overlook, Cemetery.

From what I can see from census records, Merideth Dallas died between the years 1850 and 1860. From a bible record which I can not locate at the present, his wife Sally died, I believe in 1852. From the research done I do not believe they were living together after 1850. From the sound of the wording in the Will of Merideth's father-in-law, James Blair I do not believe that James thought very well of his son-in-law.

Milton K. Dallas was a son of Sally and Merideth Dallas who died at around 25 years old. It was said that he was a musician. They also had a daughter, Mary Jane Dallas who died at years old (1822-1824).

Never have figured out all the Bedford county Dallas's, but I am sure that all are related.

Would be pleased to hear from you.

John T. Dallas

Dear John

Feb 18, 2X2

Thank you so much for all the wonderful information you sent. I haven't been able to do much for the past year due to falling and breaking my left hip and left arm. I was dressed for my morning walk but sat down to get latest news before I left. When I tried to get going again my left foot would not move so I pitched forward on my left hand, that did it. I was alone in a house with double pane glass all around so yelling did no good. It was Sunday morning and all walkers had already gone by. My daughter usually comes on Sunday morning so didn't worry. This time she did not come until 2:30. A call to 911 got things moving in a hurry. I was in shock and don't remember much of this. I was in hospital for five days then to re-hab unit for 5 weeks then home for more therapy for another 6 weeks. I still use a cane or walker but do get around and back driving my car, which is no problem. All of this happened on Sunday, Aril 1st(April fools day) 2001.

It looks like some paper or record in Rockingham Co. would have something on where Robert is buried. They didn't scrap him up and put his in the trash bin, did they?

My daughter-in-law goes to the National Archives Branch just south of San Francisco. She send me lots of stuff, most of it blown up so I can read it better. I have a map of the old Dallas homestead showing graveyard on right side going down to the ford and 2 graves near a tree on left side of same road. Who are they?

I just saw on the Onealo Lea papers that both of the Dallas and Boazs Bibles are in the National Archives. I'll write my daughter-in-law to check the Dallas bible for needed information. She has already sent me a lot of "stuff" which I have not been able to read though I have Robert Dallas's military records, pension records He sold his land warrants (Ohio Territory). I'll have to spread more papers out to read them.

Jana Morrisett(Crosby's dau) married David McGee and they have been to Scotland twice. Dallas & McGee records. All of T.F.'s is gone now. He died May 30th, 1993, Pansy died May 2, 1996 and Sarah died Oct 3, 2001. James Kyle Dallas died Aug 21, 1979. Both of Barbara's children are dead, Barbara and James Miller. Both of the sons of Fannie Sue Dallas are dead. Francis "Frank" and Berkley Carrington Roberts are deceased. Right at the moment I can't fined the paper with the dates. We visited "Berk" and "Dee" at their home on Emerald Isle, N.C. Both died result of kidney disease. Frank has Lou Gehrig's disease and Berk's kidney just like T.F.'s so its genetic, passed down from Dallas-McNeely line side of family, right? Before you read all of this, you'll be worn out. Again, thank you and if I get something of interest from archives will send you copies

Best wishes to you and yours

I received the material today was glad to get it. I want to find the Haley Cemetery that you mentioned. I am not sure that I understand the direction but will try to find the cemetery. According to Rev. Ed Collins who I visited in 1983, Nancy O. Dallas is buried at the old Dallas Cemetery on S.R. 845 near where it intersects with SR 844 near the Hinesville community which is just west of Whitemell. I have been there several times and there is a grave that I believe that has the name B.D. Burnett on the Tomb with dates. Beside the B.D. Burnett grave were two rocks marking the grave. Nancy O. Burnett's father, Jabez L. Dallas and her mother, Elizabeth Wells Dallas are buried there.

Ed Collins took me to the old Nancy O. Burnett house which is where she lived with Byrd before his death. It was in the edge of Henry County and I believe in the Leatherwood Community. The chimneys were all that was standing and one of the chimneys's had the date 1864.

The old Dallas homeplace is within several hundred yards of present day Sugartree Church. There is any old cemetery just below where the Dallas house once stood with no marked graves and the cows have been allowed to run through it. Virginia Permelia Dallas Green niece of Cenia Dallas Burnett is buried there. Mr. Roberts Blair told me that he helped dig the grave in 1926

It was good to receive new information on the Dallas family. I have been researching since the early 70's with a little time off along the way. It was great to hear about a cemetery that I had never located.

Enclosed you will find some information on your immediate family. I am going to print all my Dallas information sometime in the next several months and I will send a copy to you.

In Robert H. Dallas's will, it mentions Roy and Minnie Turner. I would now guess they are the children of his sister, Alcy who is deceased by the time of Robert's death.

Arthur G. Dallas had a brother, Stephen who was born in 1787 and was dead by the time that the elder Robert Dallas died in 1839. Also this Stephen had a son named Robert who was named in the 1839 Will. Do you know anything about this Stephen?

Terry H. Dallas, brother of Arthur G. moved to Tennessee and died there. I have corresponded with his descendants over the years and have a lot of information on him.

Merideth, my great-great grandfather died sometime in the 1850's about the time his son (my great-grandfather) came to Rockingham County. He may have been buried at the old homeplace at Sugartree Church.

Jabez Leftwich Dallas married Elizabeth and remained in Pittsylvania County and is buried in the Hinesville Community. His grave has a marking.

Locky Dallas married David W. Breedlove. They had no children but he had seven children from his previous marriage. I believe that she should have a marked grave but I have never been able to locate it.

Bird Dallas married Elizabeth Crews. They are both buried near the Henry County line and they both have marked graves.

Let me hear from you about your branch of the family.

Mr. Fred Keatts,

Thanks for the reply to my letter. I did not keep a copy so I do not know what I asked exactly so you may get the same questions over again.

I do want to get up there in the next few months and talk to you'all. I see there is a Sugartree Primitive Baptist Church in Danville. I thought the church on Sandy River was know as Sugartree church.

In the late 70's or early 80's I was up there and talked to a Mr. Keatts and a Mr. Brumfield. At that time we looked at the records of Sugartree Church and did find the name of James "Buck" Dallas. I remeber the hot fire they had in the wood stove that day. Mr. Brumfield was able to direct us to the grave of Bird Dallas located on the Simmons farm at that time.

Some things I would like to know and then we can probably talk about them when I come:

- (1) I was told that Sugartree church was on its third location and that the other two locations were within a mile of this location.
- (2) Are there any remains of the old Dallas cemetery in the cow pasture? I know that Virginia Permelia Dallas Green was buried there in 1926 as Robert Blair who is deceased told me he helped me dig the grave. She was the wife of Matt Green.
- (3) I would like to get some the history of the church to include with some of the Dallas history I am working on since James "Buck" Dallas and possibly more of the Dallas were active in this church.
- (4) Also there were two unmarked graves to the right of the old Cemetery near a tree. A son of the owner of the property at the time said there were no markings on the graves.
- (5) I do remeber somewhere near where the Brick house is located now was old shrubs that were around the old Dallas house that burned in the 1960's
- (6) Also in the Will of Robert Dallas (My great-great-great-grandfather) he mentioned a road that ran by old Bethlehem Meeting House. Is there a Bethlehem Church in the area now?

I would like some dates and infromation from you now so that I can have some questions ready to ask when I come.

When I come it will probably be on a Saturday if we can work it out. I will try to give you a call back somwtime this coming week.

Thanks for your help

I appreciate the information on the Elizabeth Still Dallas grave site. I will try to look it up in several weeks. She was the first wife of Arthur G. Dallas at Sugar Tree
I tried to remake the maps from memory. I had been using one that I drawn incorrectly 20 years ago.

The James Blair cemetery is about a 100 or so yards to the rear of the house. I think the address is 764. There is a cemetery that has a chain link fence around it. James Blair and his wives have soapstone markers just outside the fence. Do not know why they were not put inside the fence.

The Drury Blair Cemetery was right beside the road at one time(On right side of road). They have done some road work and it may farther away from the road

The John Dallas & Wells graves are at the intersection of the two roads. I was there sometime ago and talked to the man who lived there. The stones are knocked over, but easy to get to.

The J.L. Dallas cemetery is located a short distance down Hinesville Road. There is a mobile home on the right just before you get to a slight curve in the road. The Cemetery is about 200/300 ft. farther down the road. You can walk around the building and fence to get there or stop on the road past the Mobile home and walk the short distance to cemetery. There are donkeys in the pasture next to the cemetery.

The Bird Dallas Graves are on Mosco Road somewhere near where it intersects with Taylor road. It is on the opposite side of the road from the intersection. Claude Simmons owned the land about 20 years ago. I rode there not too long ago but could not recognize where it was. Probably not more than 500 feet from edge of Mosco Road.

Hope this helps

Dear John,

DeDe is the librarian at the Blanche Solomon Memorial Library. She is a jewel. I am so glad she looked up the obit for you, that was where I was going Monday to look for it.

You may want to talk to Larry Smith, the official Henry County Historian. He knew Rev. Dallas. He told me that he was a Primitive Baptist Preacher and had several churches. Mt. Enon in Edwin, Alabama, Mt. Zion and the church at Browns Crossroads and we could not remember the name of it. I think Pleasant Hill. Getting in touch with the churches might help. You might start with the Piney Gorge Primitive Baptist Church of Headland. The phone number there is 334-693-2662.

Look on hchg.org and you will find a list of the Henry County Churches.

Mr. Smith's e-mail is TumbletonTom@aol.com.

Dear Mr. Dallas,

I have been aiming to write you again, but have not gotten around to it. The enclosed map is one that I made from information provided by Robert Blair while we were visiting at the Dallas place. We located the old Dallas graveyard and I feel that Arthur Dallas is buried there. Also there would be a possibility that Robert Dallas is buried there. The old Dallas road is not there now, but was there during the days of Robert and Arthur Dallas. You can keep the map if you like, but I am hoping that you might be able to verify the information on the map or add to it.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dallas:

I am writing after talking to Mrs. Dallas this morning about the Dallas history. I have been working on our history for five years and have quite a bit of information. It has proved to be quite interesting.

I am sending along what I have on your line and would like for you to fill in what you can for me. I would like all your descendants and Troy Sr.'s descendants and what dates, where buried and so on.

Robert Dallas came to Bedford County, Virginia sometime before 1776. He had ten children of which one was Merideth Dallas who married Sallie Blair. They had three sons. Milton died young. Robert W. married Jane Travis and they had at least two sons, William Thomas (your line) and Monroe. Robert W.'s brother, James J. moved to N.C. and had several children of which was my grandfather, Frank S. Dallas. My father was Herbert E. Dallas.

I have a book which has a lot of my information in it. It is on loan to lady in Pennsylvania. When she returns it, I will send it to you.

When you are up this way I would like to visit with you. After the 30th of May, we will be moving to Eden in Rockingham County, Rt. 3 on State Road 2020.

For the past Five years that I have been working on this, my uncles have been telling me of a Troy and Kyle Dallas that had come to Dallas family reunions. Never had been able to make any connection until the last several weeks. And now it is just falling in place.

Hope to hear from you in the near future.

Sincerely
John T. Dallas

Dear Sirs:

I recently saw your new and excellent book about Rockingham County, North Carolina and would like some information from you if possible.

There are several articles in your book written by John Thomas Dallas and I would like to contact him regarding Dallas family material.

If possible could you forward my letter to him or to the person who would now have the Dallas material. If this is not possible I would appreciate hearing from you. A self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed and also one for your use in the event that you are able to forward this letter to the member of Dallas family.

Thank you.

Sincerely

Dear Miss Still

I have had your letter for several days. I am somewhat backed up on correspondence and have finally gotten around to answering your letter. I am always glad to hear from someone working on the Dallas line. There are so many loose ends I would like to put together. I have enjoyed corresponding with Mrs. Buxton. She has provided me with interesting sidelights on the Dallas family. I believe she has more information on more lines than anyone that is working on our history.

I am a descendant of Robert Dallas who was born in England in January 1756. He is supposed to have come to this country (Bedford County, Va.) while still a young man. He fought in the Revolutionary War (1777-1779) and returned to Bedford County. There he married Nancy Turner in November 1781. The following children were born to them, Stephen, Terry H. (Moved to Tenn.), William(died young), Meredith, Seany, Locky, Bird, Jabez Leftwich (many of his descendants still lived in Pittsylvania County), Arthur G. and John T. Dallas(according to Robert Dallas Will and settlement of it, John T. Dallas died while a young man.) I have found the graves of Jabez Leftwich (died 1845) and Bird Dallas (died 1849). These graves are located in Pittsylvania County, Va. There was another Robert Dallas in Bedford County who also served in the War. A deed I have shows Robert and Marmaduke Dallas's name both. I have a feeling the Dallas's in Bedford were closely kin. How I do know. I have started there several times to research, but never quite made it. I live about 100 miles from the city of Bedford where the records are located. I will make it there eventually. My great-grandfather, James J. Dallas son of Merideth Dallas, came to Rockingham County, N.C. in the year 1856. There he settled and the old homeplace is still in the hands of an uncle of mine.

I am enclosing a line chart of my history. As you can see both of my grandfathers and grandmothers were brothers and sisters. This has made my research much easier. Also I am enclosing a lineage chart that I would like for you to fill out and return to me concerning your family line connecting to the Dallas's.

I have most of my information typed into a booklet form. I have a copy that I do lend out and would be glad to send that to you if that is what you are looking for. I would be happy for you to keep it long enough to copy any of the information that you would like. Please let me know if you would like to borrow it.

I, too, also work with the phone company. I am a switchman with Southern Bell here in Greensboro.

Enjoyed receiving your letter and hope to hear from you again.

Sincerely
John T. Dallas

Dear Mr. Dallas

So glad to have your data which came a few days ago. I've been putting each new person on a card so now I have a few questions:

1. Name of wife of J.J. Dallas
2. Name of wife of Herbert E. Dallas, _____ Thomas?
3. Parents of John J. & Mary Thomas?
4. Name of your wife and children
- 5 Any husband or wives for children of James J. Dallas?
6. Any husband or wives for children of Francis S. Dallas
7. Was Robert W. son of Merideth married to the Travis?

I hesitate to ask you for dates because I feel like you may make up a detailed list of your line and hopefully send copies to various large libraries. In that case I would be duplicating the data needlessly; I would like the names though.

Yours is one of the really few lines where anyone is really beating the bush and putting into shape. It makes me happy to see it being done.

I'm very glad to know what became of Merideth. It is a distinctive and pleasant name and always I wondered if he had died young.

8. Another question, you said you had one sister and 3 brothers and named two. I decided "Calvin E." was a brother. If I read it correctly it seems an unusual name, was I correct? Also there was another brother named Francis P.? Do any of them have children? Just names will be OK.

A friend of mine had gotten "Bedford, Va. Wills, inventories & accounts" 1754-1787. And let me go over it. Not one Dallas. There was a bit on Turner which I've enclosed. Since the Leftwich's marry with Dallas's rather late, I'd suspect they had an earlier connection and there could be more than one Nancy Turner.

9. You mention 1873 estate of Stephen Dallas in Pitts(I probably was probably in error in what I wrote to Mrs. Buxton) How was this related to the one you mentioned in 1849 where a Stephen is dead and his share goes to his only son, Robert? Could this 1873 be a nephew of Stephen the elder? Wish "Stephen and _____" was readable. I have not record of his wife.

It really was thrilling to think you got to see the land in Pittsylvania County that was Robert's and that Arthur G. bought from his siblings.

I'm going to send this on. I'm only half done getting your data on cards but if you make any research trips and don't have this on Turner, it might help. Also enclose a couple of items from the Dallas by Dallas 1922. There were about three Arthur's in the index and one Robert in England nearly the right time but married 7 January 1756 which is a bit close. I wonder if any of the group in Cork went to England to sail to America and your Robert was born in England or en route. The Irish ports were Londonderry, Belfast and also Cork, so I don't see why an Irishman would go to England to sail. Altho I have seen on 1840's and 1850's ships passenger lists, many Irish sailing from Liverpool. It is a fascinating problem.

You can see this represents a very scattered assemblage

Glad you have Nancy Turner's birth date. Hope you can get her parents.

I think Stephen in 1810 Militia has got to be the Stephen in your line. Will be looking forward to your new compilation.

I wonder if there could be any latter lists of immigrants. I was working on a friends line when I abstracted those very early ones. I suggest you write Virginia State Library to see if there are any later ones.

A friend sent me a query from Mrs. Richard L. Hanberry Jr
2810 Ingleside Ave.
Macon, Ga. 31204

She wanted proof that Elizabeth Dallas who married Henry Francis Mercier was dau of Thomas Dallas & Ann Bond. (Lincoln Co., Ga.) I wrote this P.M. and filled her in on these proofs and then referred her to you for Bedford Co. Va. as the only one I knew who was working on the orgins in Bedford.

Mrs. Hansberry has these dates which were new to me:

Thomas Dallas (9-17-1776-1840) married 8-13-1799 Anna Bond (1st wife) (_____ - 9-17-1776)

Keep up the good work

Dear Mrs. Mobley,

I have been working on the Dallas family history and have heard from someone that you may know some information on some of the earlier Dallas's. I am looking for information that I can find on any of the descendants of Captain (should have been Private) Robert Dallas of Pittsylvania County, Virginia. I have been able to run my branch back alright (I am the son of Herbert E. Dallas). What I am looking for are some of the descendants of some of the other sons of Robert Dallas.

I am planning on visiting Chatham in the near future and I want to see the house that was originally built by Robert Dallas in the 1700's. Would you know where this house is located and how to find this house? If you do know, please let me know the way to find it.

If you have any information, I sure would enjoy corresponding with you. Any information that you can furnish will surely be appreciated. Expecting to hear from you.

Ruby called 02/20/74 – Said she had quite a bit of information on the Dallas's and would be happy for me to copy it – Also she had talked to the Register of Deeds in Chatham, Virginia and was told the old (Dallas) homeplace was near Sugartree Church. Also was given directions to get there and informed there are deeds pertaining to Robert Dallas – Said to come to Danville and we would go up there.

Addie,

I received the information from you and I had looked at Augustine Leftwich but never picked up that he was the father of Permelia. I am pretty sure that Arthur G. Dallas and Permelia Leftwich Dallas are buried in the Dallas Cemetery which was located just below the old Dallas homeplace about 400 or 500 yards from present Sugartree Church.

I have included some emails that I received from Craig Dixon indicating what material he has. I guess I will have to be patient and hope that he sends me some more. I believe that he has several letters that may be of interest and the lock of hair he has.

The list of cemeteries you sent all have being interests of mine. The Thomas cemetery has most of my Thomas ancestry line. James Hamilton Thomas who is buried there was my great-grandfather and he was the last living Confederate veteran alive in Rockingham County when he died in 1940. I am pretty sure that Michael Thomas and Barbara Thomas, the grandparents of James Hamilton Thomas are buried there. Barbara Thomas Gates and her father, Samuel are also buried there. They died in 1861. Both of James Hamilton Thomas's wives were Alcorns and are on each side of him. The Alcorn cemetery contains many of my ancestors also.

I was looking through my papers and I see that Henry Clay Dallas married Nannie Giles who was the daughter of Ezekiel and Mary L Leftwich Giles. Henry Clay Dallas would have been the nephew of Permelia Leftwich Dallas. Also do you know who Churchwell Giles was?

My earliest ancestors were Robert Dallas who married Nancy Turner in Bedford County in 1781. They later moved to Pittsylvania County where Robert died in 1839 and Nancy in 1841. Nancy named two of her children, at least, with Leftwich names. One was a daughter, Locky and the other was Jabez Leftwich Dallas who was the father of Henry Clay Dallas. Nancy also named two of her sons, Terry and Stephen. The Turner family and Terry family had a 1700' marriage and Stephen was a name in the Turner family. I have included this as I am hoping you would know something about the Turner family. I would like to know the parents of Nancy Turner. I see a lot of information on the internet, but much of it is not to be believed. It appears that the Dallas, Giles, Turner and Leftwich families were quite familiar with each other

Thanks

Dear Mrs. Buxton

Sorry that I have not dropped you a few lines before now. My researching on the Dallas line has slowed up somewhat as I have had several very good leads on the Thomas line and have been working in that direction. Within the next several months we will be moving to Rockingham County which will be much closer to Pittsylvania County and Bedford County, Va. I want to do more research in Pittsylvania County and that trip to Bedford, Virginia is long overdue. I want to spend a day there sometime this spring if we can get our house completed. We are planning on doing some of the work ourselves.

I have been going over some of your information and from my records I see there was a Jabez Leftwich Dallas there, a descendant of the one that came from Virginia. As you know my great-great-grandfather had a brother named Jabez Leftwich Dallas. This has just about convinced me that our lines are related. In a deed I have from Bedford County for June 1779 shows Robert Dallas buying on Crab Orchard Creek and the land being seized by Marmaduke Dallas. I assumed this is because Robert is still in the War and did not get discharged until December of 1779. Thus I believe that Marmaduke and Robert must have been closely related to the Dallas's in Georgia. I have a letter wrote to Mrs. Glenn Dallas from William M. Dallas of Thomaston, Ga. Dated 5 Feb 1941. W.M. Dallas made the following statement, "The tradition in my family is that three brothers came to this country from Scotland during or just prior to the revolution and moved to Pennsylvania one branch to Georgia, probably by the way of the Carolinas. However, However I do not have accurate records back of Thomas Dallas, my great-grandfather." This seems to indicate that one of the brothers did remain in Virginia. With the letter there is quite a bit of information. If I have not sent you a copy of the letter, let me know and I will make copy for you. The above is just something that I have been thinking on for sometime and I hope to do more research on this possibility.

What I wanted to ask you is what do you know about Marmaduke and Elizabeth Scott who he married in 1833? You sent me the name of a lady, Rita E. Prouty whom was a descendant. She is not listed in the Greensboro phone book and I have not been able to make contact with her. Do you suppose that she has a lot of information?

Heard from Karen Still in Pomona, California. She has some information on the Dallas family. Hope to hear from you in the near future.

Sincerely
John T. Dallas

Dear Mr. Dallas

August 25, 1980

Someone at our Price family Reunion told me you were interested in Price and Dallas history. I only have one bit of information on Dallas since it is not my line - a Captain Byrd Dallas is buried not far from my home. The stone for both he and his wife are still standing. There was an old house there at one time but is gone now. There were also many more stones, both black and white, but one of the local farmers pushed most of them to a nearby ditch. Some of those had names and some not.

About the Price line - I do not have much history there and would be glad to share it with you or compare notes. My grandfather was Robert Jackson Price, his father, Patrick H. Price - it then goes to William H., Thomas, Thomas. I have been trying to prove who Thomas #1's father is but only have ideas, no proof of. We went to Lunenburg Co. this past week but only had a couple of hours - do plan to go again this week - will stop by Charlotte Co. also.

Do let me know what lines you have and I may be able to help you.

Best Regards      Lucille Payne

Sometime after I received this letter I made a visit to the Byrd Dallas grave site. Talked to someone at the location and they did not recall any more stones being there. I saw piles of rocks in a nearby ditch and saw none with names, but I did not look very good and the stones with names could have been covered up. I am sure there are were more stones with names on them.

Dear Mr. Dallas

My research on the Giles family is very limited as I am only a beginner and have concentrated my interest mainly on the lines of my grandfathers, Royall and Turpin, dealing strictly with these two names. But the Giles line does come through on my Turpin line as my grandfather's grandmother on his mother's side was Sarah Elizabeth Giles Hyler Wall. She first married Thomas H. Hyler ca 1852 so if she was listed in the household along with Churchwell I could very well help in the future as I acquire more data. She would have been still living with her parents possibly at the time the 1850 census was taken because she was not yet married.

There has been not mention of a related Dallas family so far but you can't rule out anyone.

Sincerely

Dear Ruby,

Just a line to let you know that we haven't forgot you. We have been planning on a trip with you to Sugartree and Callands for several weeks now, but just have not had the time. We have been in the process of selling the house that we own at the beach (Ocean Isle) and putting a mobile home on the land that we own in Rockingham County. Digging wells and that kind of thing takes time. Seems we are spending all our days over there working.

We are planning on visiting with you in the very near future and going to those places. I am most interested in seeing both of them. They have both played a big part in our family history.

Dear Mrs. Prouty

Received the letter from you the other day and was glad to hear from you. The obituary was fine. That will provide me with information that I want. I have been in contact with Speedie Anderton in Dallas and he has not answered my letter. I will contact his sister now.

Appreciate your offer of forwarding the manuscript for me but the person I am lending it to will meet me in Chatham, Va. in the near future. We have plans for meeting there.

The Robert Dallas who married Phoebe Morgan must have been from one of the other Dallas's in Bedford County. I have not really gotten into the research of them. I came across the information on my branch which had been compiled by talking to Mrs. Buck Dallas in Danville, Va. in the 40's and 50's. When I started researching, the information that I was finding was matching what had been compiled. I was able to add much more detail to overall picture of our family. There will always be missing details on the family. My great-great-grandfather, Merideth had a brother named Stephen. He had a son named Robert and that is all I have found on him. (I did not talk to Mrs. Buck Dallas myself.) Hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely

Dear Mr. Dallas

Thanks so much for sharing your family manuscript with me. I thought I would let you know that I got it and will return it in a few days after I study it some more and make more notes. Perhaps you would like me to mail it on to the other person who was to use it? If it is someone off away from you, this would save on some postage. Let me know.

I got this notice from the Dallas Morning News – I know this is not what you would like. Next week I will check the Garland library to see if there might be some local notice. Garland is just right next to Richardson, but I am not familiar with what newspapers they have or if the library would have films of old issues. If they do, it would probably be more in detail which is what you would be wanting.

Do you know anything about Robert Dallas who m. Phoebe Morgan in 1800 in Bedford Co.? I wonder if this could have been the same one as your ancestor, or if you know who he was?

What I hope to do someday, when my children are older and take less care, is use the LDS library and try and get films of early church records to see if there is anything in Bedford, Pittsylvania and also, earlier in Prince William Co – which I believe was made from one or two older original Virginia Counties. Before 1786, by law, I believe, all birth and marriages were required to be registered with the Episcopal Church. I understand that many such records were destroyed though, so it is possible there would be nothing left. This something that people have difficulty in getting, but I hope there might be some trace on the Dallas family. Your ancestor's birthdate is really great to find out and that he had been born in England, because this would have never been available to me through any library or public record. Probably, Marmaduke of the same era – the first one, though I do not even know if he was the father of my later one. Good luck and I will be writing soon.

Dear Mrs. Prouty,

Received your letter several days ago and was glad to hear from you. I would like to make a connection of some of the Dallas's back in Bedford County. I have no doubt that all the Dallas's there in the 1700's were kin. Our lines would probably link somewhere back then. I have never visited the Court House in Bedford County. Many times I have planned on going and usually end up at the Court House in Chatham, Pittsylvania County, as there is much information there on the several families that I am working on. I have wrote to Bedford County and received a list of Deeds and Marriages bonds that are located there. I have had copies of some of the deeds sent to me form there and in one the name Robert and Marmaduke are both mentioned on Crabtree Creek. My Robert was still in the war at the time of this deed, but possibly Marmaduke could have been acting in his behalf. This deed shows that they must have been closely related. The Marmaduke could have been the father of Robert as the dates are too far apart for him to have been the father of Charles H. Dallas.

Robert Dallas was born 27 January 1756 in England. He is supposed to have come to this county as a young man. This has been passed down through the family and could have possibly been recorded in a Robert Dallas family Bible. This information was obtained from Mrs. James Buck Dallas in Danville by my great-uncle, Andrew Houston Dallas in the 1930's or 1940's. Mrs. Buck Dallas's husband was the son of Arthur G. Dallas. She died in the 1960's. Her son is a primitive Baptist preacher in Headland, AL. She apparently had the Bible in her possession when she died. I have wrote her son and obtained information on that family, but he has no idea where the Bible is. I believe that the Bible may be of some help if it could be found, but having no luck. I know that the births of all of Robert and Nancy Dallas's children are listed in this Bible. All the people that talked with Mrs. Dallas about the family are now dead and what they wrote down does not go deep enough into the history.

In 1975 I made some copies of the work that I had done up to that time. By now there is more information that should be in there. By your letter I believe that you are truly interested in our history so I will send the book to you to get whatever information that you would like from it. It will be easier than me trying to explain. If there are any questions from it I will be glad to answer them for you. I had promised the book to someone working on another line, but will lend it to them as soon you finish with it and return it.

My list from Bedford County does not show the marriage of Robert Dallas and Nancy Turner, but in one of their applications for Rev. War pension, they mentioned they married in Nov. 1781 in Bedford County. Have not turned up anything on the Turners, But have not tried very hard on this line.

Merideth Dallas (My great-great grandfather) married Sarah (Sallie) Blair. I started on the Blair line and I have about as much on them as I do the Dallas line. There are quite a few in Pittsylvania County that have helped me on it. There are some Dallas's back in Pittsylvania County that have helped me quite a bit also.

There is some information that I am looking for from Garland, Texas, if you are ever in the area. Ora Blair Anderton died there 26 march 1964. I have been trying to obtain the obituary from the newspaper. If you ever in the area I would like for you to get me a copy .I would feel like the library or newspaper maintains a microfilm file. I am trying to collect obituaries on all lines as they increase the interest in the histories.

Any information that you could furnish me on your line would be appreciated. If I ever tie the lines together, I want all the information that I can obtain on each branch and as I said before I believe that all the Dallas's are related in Bedford County. From the information from Bedford County, it would appear that Robert, Marmaduke, John and Joshua were closely related. There are so many possibilities of relationships.

We lived in Greensboro for 10 years and then decided to move back to Eden which is 25 miles north where we should have more room. We have seven acres here. I still work for Southern Bell Telephone in Greensboro. I had obtained your name from Mrs. Buxton some years ago and wrote you at the Greensboro address, but never got an answer, so apparently the letter never caught up with you.

I want to tell you one more thing about the Dallas's moved to Rockingham County. Robert W. Dallas, brother of James J. Dallas moved to Rockingham County in 1853. James J. came in 1856. I believe that some of their Blair kin were already here. The ruins of the James J. Dallas homeplace are still here and the old Dallas graveyard is located nearby. My Uncle owns the place.

I will enclose some documents and will make notes on each. Everything that I send, you may keep except the manuscript. I had several copies, but they have gotten away from me except this one.

You will have to excuse the typing, but it is better than my hand writing.

Looking forward to hearing from you again,

Sincerely

Dear Mr. Dallas,

The book on the service of Confederate Marines is just about ready to take to the printer. Will let you know when it is available.

It will just carry a brief statement on Robert W. Dallas and J.J. Dallas is not included as available information indicates he was in the C.S. Navy. At this point I doubt if I will enter upon a project of writing the service records of the Confederate sailors. It needs to be done, I'm not sure if I will have the time and energy to devote to it.

The material on R. W. Dallas as prepared for printing reads:

"D-2 DALLAS, ROBERT W, Private enlisted North Carolina 1864. Released on taking oath of allegiance, Pt. Lookout, Md., 6/11/65. Residence Rockingham County, N.C.; light complexion; iron grey hair; dark blue Eyes; 5'8''.

Family records say born 1820; married Jane B. Travis in Pittsylvania County, Va., 12/20/41. Died around age 75."

As now planned, the book will have 22 pages for the preface, table of contents, introduction, pictures, samples of records, etc. The service records themselves will take 117 pages and will be followed by a "Name variation Index" of 5 pages, and conclude with and "Items of Interest Index" of 1 page. There are a total of 1240 individual's names, some with only one line.

Thank you for your interest in this project,

Yours sincerely

Dear Joe,

I was glad to receive your letter the other day. I am always happy to correspond with family members. I have been working on the Dallas history for several years now. Marie Allison has been a big help with the Terry Dallas branch of our family. Also been in contact with Mrs. Joe Luton of the family.

Have you seen the manuscript that I loaned to Marie at one time? If not let me know and when I get the copy back in my possession, I will be glad for you to borrow it. I believe that would be the best way for me to give the information to you that I have.

Enclosed you will find a Will of Robert Dallas and a map of the location of the Dallas Cemetery and old homesite. I live about 30 miles from the old homesite and about 40 miles from Chatham. I have copies of a lot of the Deeds and Wills filed away. I will look them up shortly and let you borrow them. I have never been able to get the people at Chatham to make copies for me. They have a copying machine there and I use it (25 cents) when I am there.

If you come in the spring, let me know in advance and I will be glad to go with you to Pittsylvania County to the areas that you would like to see. Terry H. Dallas had a brother, Jabez L. Dallas who lived his entire life in Pittsylvania County. I am in contact with his descendants and I am sure they would welcome a visit from you.

Enclosed you will find some forms. I would like for you to try to get the information on the forms from any member of the Terry H. Dallas family that you can get. I have a outline of most members, but do not have dates of birth, marriage and death and places of burial and son on. Would like to have complete details on this branch up to the present day.

Also would like to have pictures of any member of the family that you could furnish me. Any pictures of older members, I would like to borrow sometime and make copies. Also would like copies of any obituaries that you could find. I have many copies of obituaries, but none on your family. They make the history much more interesting.

One of these days I want to get out that way. Besides the Dallas kin, I have many Thomas kin in KY and Tenn.

Enjoyed your letter and hope to hear from you soon. With your help I believe we can get a complete history on your family

Sincerely

John T. Dallas

Joe,

I believe the last time I corresponded with you concerning the Dallas family was sometime around 1978. I worked on the history for several years after that and then just got tired of it for awhile. About five or six years ago I began working again on the many different family histories that I was working on and also I am working on some histories of places in the county that interest me.

About year ago Marie Allison called one Saturday morning just to see what had happened to me. I don't believe she mentioned whether she was still working on the Dallas family or not. She seemed in fairly good health.

I would like to get more information on your branch of the family especially your grandfather, Grover Hardin Dallas. And then information on you, your siblings and their families. You can see the information that I have on these sheets is fairly incomplete. Place of birth, place of death, place of burial, place of marriage plus dates are some of the things that I am looking for. I like to include obituaries with my histories if I can locate them.

I have made several Dallas books on different branches and will probably put another together including Terry H. Dallas line. I not in the book business but do make a few extra copies of my work when I do a family.

Hope that you are doing well and would like to hear from you.

Dear John T.,

Sorry I never did get around to answering your letter of Aug. '78. Along about that time I was very busy with my parents and in Nov. '78 my dad died. Mom is still living at 81 yrs. Old. She is semi-shut-in following a stroke in '77. She still lives at Mayfield, Ky, and I go once a week to help her out. She has a lady who stays with her at night.

She wanted me to send you some pictures and I gathered them up a long time ago and the recent letter I had from you inspired me to get some reprints and to send them on. I have made notes on the backs of all pictures for your info.

I don't have any letters to send you. The only thing besides the pictures is the obituary of my Aunt Lelia. You will note a picture of her also enclosed.

The clipping of FREEMAN B. DALLAS JR. is a cousin of mine, but the other clipping re RONALD DALLAS, Jr of Nashville is no one that I know.

All the prints with March & April 80 are reprints. Most of these were taken in the early 1900's

I can't give you any info on the Blair family. I understand there is a lot of material in a special room at Murray State Univ. where a lot of people go to work on family histories, but I have not visited there yet. There is a certain man there who has done a lot of work on certain families, but I cannot recall his name. I have not met him.

I understand the Dallas Bible is in the hands of Myrtle Morris's son by her first marriage. You know she had died.

Certainly you are coming along nicely with the Dallas Book.

I have not talked to Joe Dallas since he got all the infor from me concerning the Dallas's. I, too, thought he was very interested. Someone has told me he was planning a trip to the area where the old Dallas home was, but I don't know if he did or not.

Let us hear occasionally

Sincerely
Marie C. Allison

I see from the NC-VA Piedmont Genl. Society that you are interested in the Burnett family. I have been working on the Dallas family of the Sugartree Church area for many years and my gggrandfather Meredith Dallas had a sister, Cenia Dallas that married Thomas S. Burnett. I would like to find out more of the descendants of Cenia and Thomas S. Burnett. I know that James Dallas Burnett was their son and he probably had three brothers that I don't know.

A Byrd Burnett married Nancy O. Dallas, a niece of Cenia Dallas Burnett. Nancy was the daughter of Jabez Leftwich Dallas and Elizabeth Wells. Jabez was a brother to Cenia Dallas. I believe that Byrd was probably related to the Thomas S. Burnett. I have been to the graves of Byrd and Nancy O. Burnett and their old home place. I believe it was near Leatherwood, Va.

Thanks for any help with the Burnetts

Please forgive me for not replying to your most interesting news of the Robert Dallas homestead. I think you have done a fantastic job running down everything as I think it is thrilling to locate a site where they lived. I hope you took pictures. It is amazing what survives!

Thank you for sending me the map. I been working on a project since June 77 and just finished and have a terrible back log of correspondence.

Thank you again.

I am looking for some information. I am hoping that Level Run, Va. Is near Nathalie. I could not find your town on the map but found Level Run and thought they would be close by. What I am looking for is the dates from a couple of Tombs at Yeatts Cemetery in Level Run. If you live near Level Run and could get this information for me I would appreciate it. The names of the two people are Will Dawson and Monroe Dallas. If you do not live close and this is not possible just disregard my letter

Thanks for any help.

I'm sorry to be of such little help. I know nothing of my step-father's people as to dates, etc.

Mr. Burnett

I have been working on the Dallas family history for about 30 years and finding your information on the internet concerning Cenia(Seany) Dallas was quite a surprise. I am a descendant of her brother, Merideth Dallas. Nancy O. Dallas that married Bird Burnett was the daughter of Cenia's brother, Jabez Leftwich Dallas who died in 1848 and is buried at Hinesville, Virginia.

Robert Dallas and Nancy Turner Dallas's homeplace was located on what is now Keatts Ln near Sandy River in Pittsylvania County. There is a cemetery nearby and I believe that to be the old homeplace cemetery and that Robert and Nancy Dallas are buried there. Arthur G. Dallas, a son of Robert and Nancy's owned the old homeplace after their death. Arthur had a daughter, Virginia Permelia Dallas who married Madison O. Green. Mr. Robert Blair who is now dead told me in the 1970's while at the site that he helped dig the grave for Virginia Permelia Dallas Green and also that Madison (Mat) O. Green was also buried there.

Do you have any more information on Cenia and Thomas S. such as where they are buried or family Bible information.

Cenia was born 29 July 1796 which came from the file in the National Archives when Robert Dallas filed for Revolutionary war pension.

Also from the marriages records of Pittsylvania County, Virginia I found that Thomas S. Burnett and Seany Dallas were married 16 March 1816. Cenia was probably born in Bedford County, Virginia as Robert and Nancy moved to the Sandy River Farm in Pittsylvania County around the year 1800

Also went to the site of the old Nancy O. Dallas Burnett's homeplace in the 1980's. A Rev Ed Collins took me there and I drew a sketch of the site. There was a chimney still standing and on the rock just above the fireplace was carved the year 1864.

Cenia had a sister, Lockey Dallas who married David W. Breedlove. I believe that they should have a tomb stone somewhere in Pittsylvania County, but have been unable to locate it. Would you know anything about her?

I would be most interested in hearing from you

Henry,

Hope that you and your family are getting along well. Been planning on a little ride up that way, but just haven't gotten around to it. Today and yesterday have been somewhat spring like, but I imagine the winter weather will return.

I need some help in locating a cemetery and was hoping that you might have some idea where it is. Thomas Burnett, the father of Boyd D. Burnett who married Nancy O. Dallas, a daughter of your great-grandfather Jabez L. Dallas is buried at (Thomas Burnett) a place called the old Haley farm. The directions I have are from Rt 58, take Route 863 (present day Moorefield Bridge Road) and between Hwy #41 and Hwy #29 find Cemetery ½ mile on left. Cemetery is suppose to be on the old Haley Farm.

The information that I have told also states that Boyd D. Burnett and Nancy Dallas Burnett are buried in this cemetery. But one time you and I went to the Dallas cemetery at Hinesville (SR 845) where Jabez L Dallas is buried. We found the marked grave of Boyd D. Burnett and two rock beside his grave that are probably the grave of Nancy Dallas Burnett, his wife. Also your friend, Rev. Collins stated this to me when he and I visited the old Nancy O. Burnett homeplace many years ago.

I have a listing of a Haley Cemetery on SR 612 North of Sandy River in Henry County, Virginia that has a lot of people buried there that are related to the Burnett's. I do not believe this the cemetery that I am looking for.

Any information that you could give me on the location of the old Haley farm would be appreciated

Thanks

Dear John Dallas:

Rita Prouty, a distant cousin of mine recently wrote me about your interest in connecting the various Dallas families of Bedford Co., Virginia. In fact, Rita sent a copy of your Robert's will and your letter to her of 19 August 1978.

Are you still working on the Dallas family and have you ever gotten to the Court House in Bedford County? Are you by slim chance connected to anyone with the Stephens surname who lived in Pittsylvania County during the early part of the 1800's? My Great, great grandfather, John Hubbard Stephens, was born in Pittsylvania Co. about 1806.

Now back the Dallas families of Bedford County. Fortunately for me, my Great-Grandmother's Aunt, (Anna Wilkes, 1817-1888) came to Oregon in 1845 and took out a Donation land claim (No. 1445) in Washington Co., Oregon. Since the application requires a considerable amount of information, I discovered that Anna Dallas married Peyton Wilkes (Wilks) in 1815 in Bedford Co. When I saw abstracts of the marriage record, it said that Anna was the daughter of John. This record verified the information which my aunt Jessie Ellen Stephens (1892-1981) had left. My Aunt Jessie also said that our Marmaduke's parents were John & Sallie (White) Dallas who married in Bedford Co., Va. In 1745, Anna and Marmaduke were brother and sister.

To date I don't know very much about this John Dallas except that my Aunt Jessie wrote in 1946 that his children were: John Robert, Anna, Saphronia, Diana Woods, Marmaduke, Pamela (Could this be Permelia?). (A Permelia married Archibald Trent in 1823 in Bedford Co., Va.) So far, I haven't seen a will, probate court records of deeds showing these names. Of course, it is a bit hard for me to locate them while I am in Oregon, even if such records still exist, but I will keep trying.

I have been recording dates and locations for every Dallas that I can find in Virginia between the first Dallas and about 1850. So far, I am finding interesting pattern.

I've enclosed a family group chart for my Marmaduke Dallas and I am eager to hear from you and learn about your recent progress. Have you written your findings up yet?

Let me know about your interest in exchanging information about our respective branches.

Best regards

Dear Cousin John, (removed several times)

Yes, I am the great great granddaughter of Terry H. Dallas and wife Mary Anthony Boaz Dallas. Their second daughter, Rebecca Rutherford m. James Harvey Emerson II on Jan. 12, 1843. All are buried the Rhodes Cemetery near Lynville, Ky. This Cemetery is a few miles from the Tennessee line. Terry H. Dallas had seven children. My great grandmother Dallas was born June 22, 1822. This was taken from the bible of Mary Anthony Boaz, wife of Terry H. Dallas. The bible is now in the possession of Myrtle Emerson Morrison, Mayfield, Ky. RFD 1. She is a second Cousin of mine and the daughter of Brantley Emerson. This is all in the book "Treks into America" by Eurie Pearl Wilford Neal now deceased. She was also a second cousin of mine. She is really tracing the Wilford family, but the Emerson family is traced to Robert Dallas and to several generations of the Boaz family (Mary Anthony Boaz being Terry Dallas wife). In this book sometimes the name is spelled Dallas and sometimes Dallis. This book is authentic and is in the Library of Congress and most major city libraries. All of the Emerson's migrated from Maury County, Tenn. to West Kentucky and am told my grandfather; Jonah Terry Emerson was "a baby in arms." He was born in 1848 in Maury County. The original large tract of very fertile land is still in the possession of my great Uncle Brantley Emerson family. James Harvey Emerson II bought it very cheap when land in the "The Jackson purchase" was opened. He was to homestead some of it. Myrtle Emerson Morris and her brother owned it. The last time I was there it was so flat and had such tall corn growing that I wished my grandfather had not sold his part to uncle Brantley. All of the Terry Dallas descendants are listed down to my generation in the book I mentioned. I have a copy and will have it typed for you if you wish. I am enclosing a copy of proof of ascension from Robert Dallas for D.A.R. I am now interested in tracing Robert Dallas to see if we are descendants of a Colonist. Do you have any information on him? The Boaz family has a book in the Library of Congress, Bishop Hiram Boaz, tracing the Boaz family but I haven't been able to get it yet. Several Boaz descendants live in Mayfield, Ky. (where I was born and reared). It is just thirty miles from here but when I'm there the one which is suppose to have the book is out of town or office. They are all lawyers. I did not know we were distantly related until I got the Wilford "Treks Into America". With our great great grandmother Mary Anthony Boaz's line. Their father was a lawyer and he and my father Leon Evans were very close friends. Things began to dawn on me when I saw that Mary Anthony had an Uncle and Brother named Shadrack Boaz near my age named that and had a brother that was killed in World War II. Terry must have had a strong character because the name Terry goes down the Emerson and Wilford lines, even to my generation. I had a first cousin named Terry (he is dead now) and my name before I was born, I was told, was Terry Emerson, but I turned out to be a girl so they changed Terry to Ruth. I suppose now, they would have used Terry since I know some young children named that.

Eurie Pearl Wilford traced the Wilford line in the book I mentioned, back to England to the Doomsday book in the 1100's. She had no children and it became only a hobby but an obsession with her.

I was sixty-eight, Dec. 29th. My oldest sister is retired and living in St. Petersburg, Fla.

About two weeks before Christmas I saw the Memphis paper that a DR. Dallas Jones daughter married in Mobile, Ala. Married a Memphis boy. Wonder where his name came from. Also Dallas Texas is named for an old settler. Wonder if he was from our Dallas line?

Ask me anything you would like to know and if it is in the book I can find it. Also said will have Emerson line typed for you.

Sincerely,

Ruth Evans Luton

Dear Mrs. Britz,

Received the letter from you today and was glad to hear from a descendant of Robert Dallas. I have been working this for about 5 years and it became more interesting the more you find out. I am working on the Dallas, Thomas, Blair, Settle, Alcorn and Price all at the same time. Most of the Terry Dallas information has come from Mrs. Allison and also from a Mrs. Luten who also lives in Tennessee. I would like to visit with these folks one of these days.

I am a descendant of Meredith Dallas. His son James J. Dallas moved to Rockingham County, N.C. from Pittsylvania County, Virginia in the year 1856. The old homeplace still stands but is about ready to fall down. I have located the graves of Jabez L. Dallas and Bird Dallas in Virginia. Also I know the approximate location of the land that Robert Dallas owned in Virginia, but have not been able to locate the exact location or his burial place.

We are in the process of selling our house and moving to the country. So if you return the material after the last of May, the address will be Box 186Y, Rt. 3, Eden, N.C.

Hope that you can understand the way I have arranged the information. I prefer this form to the outline way. Just have not had time to arrange the Terry Dallas family the way I want it. Return it when you are through with it. I am returning your dollar as I feel that we all should share our information. If you have anything that is not in the book, I would like to hear about it. Return the book when you are through with it. No real hurry as this is my lending copy. Also have more information that has not been included such as Wills and Deeds. If you are ever around this area I would be glad to talk to you and show you around. Hope to hear from you again.

Mr. John T. Dallas

I received your letter sometime ago. I am sorry to say I don't know much about the Dallas family. My father never talked a lot about his folks.

I have been told our line of Dallas's came from, Halifax, North Carolina.

Robert W. (Bob) Dallas was the father of (unknown who he married):

Sons Charles married Nancy Freeman
Stephen married Elizabeth Talley
Lafayette married Adline Talley
Tom married Nancy Talley
Sam was never married
1 girl Bernice married a Talley

Stephen was my grandfather, he died in 1906. I don't know when he was born, but he wasn't an old man when he died. My father was John Robert Dallas. He married Mary E. West, about 1890. Had seven children, 5 girls and 2 boys. I am the youngest and 80 years old, but all but three are dead. My only brother living is 90 years old.

Abe Dallas and Alice Baudy were married Aug 28th, 1890. Abe was 25 and Alice was 21. They were married 27 years and he died at the age of 52. Alice died at the age of 73. She remarried a Mr. Bray. Abe was the son of Charles F. Dallas.

My father, John R. Dallas was born Dec. 13th, 1863, married Mary E. West who was born May 23rd, 1861. They were married April 13th, 1890. He died Oct 23rd, 1953, just like from Oct 23rd to Dec 13th being 90 years old.

Abe Dallas has one son living and he was 90 years old sometime last year. His name is Charles Frederick, he is called Fred.

Their politics, republican, although I am a democrat, mixed religious beliefs; our family is Primitive Baptist, lots of them not identified with any religious orders.

Would like to hear something of your line of Dallas's

Dear Mr. Dallas

Last year while visiting my brother in South Fulton, Tennessee, I spoke with Mrs. H.C. Allison (Marie Cavender Allison) about our "Dallas Ancestors". She mentioned that you have a book concerning them that you might share with me. Perhaps I could borrow it or if there are copies available I would like to buy one.

I would be most grateful for any information you can provide concerning the Dallas family and will be glad to reciprocate in anyway I can.

Mrs. Allison has probably provided you with a cover sheet beginning with Robert Dallas-Nancy Turner and containing all her line through Terry Dallas and Robert Boaz Dallas, her great-grandfather.

My line comes from Robert Dallas-Nancy Turner, Terry Dallas, Lydia Fleming Dallas Coffey, Mary Elizabeth Coffey Wheeler and Henry Clyde Wheeler – Maudie Elizabeth Long, my parents now deceased..

I am enclosing a copy of my "cover sheet" although I have to obtain my grandparent's statistics from my cousin who has the "Wheeler" family bible.

Mrs. Allison was most helpful to me and I feel very fortunate to have learned so much so quickly about my ancestors.

I am enclosing a dollar to cover postage of anything you may care to send. If insufficient, of course I will reimburse you.

Dear Mr. Dallas,

Thank you so much for sending the Dallas family information so promptly. I have read it many times; in fact after learning this much about their early history in this country I hope some day to discover their English connection. All this takes a great deal of time and concentration though and we have to put it off for a while yet. I'm sure you are well aware the effort and patience's required to assemble a family history as you've done such a remarkable job if it yourself. I just hope all the other "Dallas" connections who ever read it appreciate your efforts as much as I do.

My "searching" has all been directed to my mother's (now deceased) side of the family – the Longs. Whom I traced to Maryland and a Revolutionary War soldier. I was content then to stop looking but of course I really won't.

I have copied much of the information contained in your book and considered returning it now but would like my brother to read it when he and his family visit us about June 5. So unless you need it before then I shall return it after their visit. (To you new address)

We moved to this place five years ago and still haven't finished the remodeling but we are doing most of the work ourselves it goes rather slowly. The house is very large and a century old so you can imagine what is involved. Despite the hard work it's an interesting and rewarding experience, but we'll both be glad when it's finished.

I will include a more detail summary of the family of my great-grandparents, Lydia Fleming Dallas & John Willison Coffey when I return your book.

Again thank you for your generosity. If I can be of any help to you just let me know.

Dear Mrs. Moss

Recently I was told that you are working on the Giles family history. I am trying to find some information on a Churchwell Giles. In the 1850 census of Pittsylvania County, Merideth Dallas (my great-great-grandfather) was listed as head-of-household with Churchwell Giles and his wife listed in the same household. I am trying to find out if they were related. After 1850 I have lost track of Merideth Dallas. I am most interested in finding his burial place and date of death. Thought maybe I might be able to find some information through the Giles line.

Any help will be appreciated.

Dear Mr. Dallas

First may I apologize for waiting so long to answer your letter. I, too, am a descendant of James Blair. I have one direct line which my niece used to join the D.A.R. My cousin, William Blair who died about two years ago had done some work on the family history. At his death the information he had was given to my Uncle E.L. Blair Sr. whose address is Keeling, Va. and his phone No. is 804-792-7609. I don't know just what he has but I feel sure if he has anything to help you he would be glad to give you help.

Mrs. Robert Carty (she was Lois Blair) of Dry Fork has the old Blair Family Bible. It is from that Bible that I got the information I am enclosing.

William Blair

James Blair 1775-1840 married Polley Dickinson 1796 – Their Children were:

Sarah S. Blair born March 20th, 1799

Drury Blair born March 20th, 1801

John F. Blair born Jan. 1st, 1804

Then on Oct 23rd, 1832, James Blair married Ann S. Coleman (1789-1854). Their son James Young Blair (my grandfather) was born Oct. 22nd, 1834 – died Dec. 10th, 1913. He was married three times, first to Permelia Gray Soyars, who died in 1870. I do not know her birth date. They had nine children:

Mary A. Blair (1856-1857)

John W. Blair (1858-1858)

Scenptha Blair (1859-1859)

Lucy P. Blair Born 1861 – Married a Thomas – died giving birth to first baby

Charles E. Blair (1862-1878)

Albert Y. Blair (1864 - )

Willard Frank Blair (1876 -1945)

Permelia Grey Blair (1880 – 1943)

Then again in 1884 he married Jariah M. Willis (1852 – 1914). They had one son; Fitzhue Lee Blair (1886 – 1939). Mrs. Carty is his daughter.

In 1890 my father married Ophelia G. Boaze who was born April 14th, 1874 and died June 23rd, 1948. They had two children:

Elizabeth Ware Blair (Jan. 4th, 1894 – July 21st, 1967)

(Evelyn Mae Blair (Sept 11th, 1911 - )

In 1917 Elizabeth Mae Blair married Guy R. Ashworth. They had three children:

Edith Elizabeth Ashworth born Jan. 9th, 1920

Annie Marie Ashworth born (Jan 31st, 1928 – Jan. 15th, 1929)

Ellen Blair Ashworth (born Feb. 4th, 1931 - )

On June 11th, 1977 Ellen Blair Ashworth was married to William A. McSpadden II and I, Evelyn Mae am still Miss Blair.

I don't know if you can make any sense out of this or not. Hope I have written it so you can tell what I mean. If you are writing a book on the family let me know when it is out and I would like one.

Dear Miss Blair

Just a note to thank you for the very good information. For sometime now my Dallas research has bogged down. You have provided me with much information that I did not know. I never knew the birth dates of Robert and Milton Dallas. And did not know they had a sister named Mary Jane. James Dallas was my great-grandfather and he is buried at the old Dallas homestead here in Rockingham County which is about one mile from where I live. My Uncle now owns the farm. He died in 1894. Robert Dallas came to Rockingham County in 1853 and James came in 1856. It appears that a brother of Sarah S. Dallas father, James Blair was already here in 1850. That would be John Blair who married Sally Wade.

Sunday, the 12th of March, I will be in Danville. I will try to come by if I have time. For sometime now I have been planning on visiting Mrs. John T. Reynolds of the Franklin Trnp. She is a descendant of John F. Blair, a brother of Sarah S. Dallas. She is supposed to have some information on this branch

Sincerely

Mr. Burnett

I have been working on the Dallas family history for about 30 years and finding your information on the internet concerning Cenia(Seany) Dallas was quite a surprise. I am a descendant of her brother, Merideth Dallas. Nancy O. Dallas that married Bird Burnett was the daughter of Cenia's brother, Jabez Leftwich Dallas who died in 1848 and is buried at Hinesville, Virginia.

Robert Dallas and Nancy Turner Dallas's homeplace was located on what is now Keatts Ln near Sandy River in Pittsylvania County. There is a cemetery nearby and I believe that to be the old homeplace cemetery and that Robert and Nancy Dallas are buried there. Arthur G. Dallas, a son of Robert and Nancy's owned the old homeplace after their death. Arthur had a daughter, Virginia Permelia Dallas who married Madison O. Green. Mr. Robert Blair who is now dead told me in the 1970's while at the site that he helped dig the grave for Virginia Permelia Dallas Green and also that Madison (Mat) O. Green was also buried there.

Do you have any more information on Cenia and Thomas S. such as where they are buried or family Bible information.

Cenia was born 29 July 1796 which came from the file in the National Archives when Robert Dallas filed for Revolutionary war pension.

Also from the marriages records of Pittsylvania County, Virginia I found that Thomas S. Burnett and Seany Dallas were married 16 March 1816. Cenia was probably born in Bedford County, Virginia as Robert and Nancy moved to the Sandy River Farm in Pittsylvania County around the year 1800

Also went to the site of the old Nancy O. Dallas Burnett's homeplace in the 1980's. A Rev Ed Collins took me there and I drew a sketch of the site. There was a chimney still standing and on the rock just above the fireplace was carved the year 1864.

Cenia had a sister, Lockey Dallas who married David W. Breedlove. I believe that they should have a tomb stone somewhere in Pittsylvania County, but have been unable to locate it. Would you know anything about her?

I would be most interested in hearing from you

Hello,

I am sorry to be late in answering your letter of July 25. Just as I received the letter, we were getting ready to go on vacation. After returning from vacation, our office was moved from one building on the UTM campus to another, so I have been very busy with that as well as the regular office work, church work, etc.

By all means, I would be delighted to receive the family history you have already compiled. I would take very good care of it and return as soon as I have finished.

I am very sorry that I do not have access to the "Wilford..." Book. Someone has made for me a picture of the pages which I have sent to you and that is all that I have. I borrowed the book from Myrtle Morris at one time, but I won't be seeing her anytime soon. However, I am enclosing what I did accumulate when I was working on my DAR papers. This might help you some on the Boaz family.

My mother wanted me to send you the original pictures of the enclosed prints which I made on Xerox. She wanted the originals sent back, so I decided the print would save the mailing and you may keep these.

I just looked at the pages I have from the Wilford book and I do have p. 330 which you asked for and it is enclosed too. I thought I had previously sent this.

9-17-75

As you can see, I got side tracked. Will try to finish this and get it in the mail.

As I think of things, I will ask questions – one thing, you mentioned in a former correspondence is that a son of Arthur G. Dallas was a preacher as well as a grandson who is in Ala. I would very like to know about the religion of my ancestors. It seems that all the Dallas's (or most of them) who were in Ky. (descendant of Terry) were members of the church of Christ (New Testament Church), of which, I, too, am. I have wondered about the rest of Terry's brothers and sisters in this facet. Religious freedom and the Restoration Movement played such a large part in these people's lives in that day. Anything you can give me on this will be appreciated.

I forget from time to time what I have sent or asked you, but did I give you the info regarding George Miffin Dallas, (1792-1864) who was Vice-President of the U.S. under James K. Polk? This comes from "The Am. Heritage Dictionary of the Eng. Lang. 1969."

Again, sorry to be so late with this. I am glad to help on any information that I have.

Sincerely
Marie Allison

Dear John T,

Since we have the same great-great-great grandfather, I suppose this puts us on a first name basis. I was delighted to get your letter of inquiry. Actually, I have never spent much time on the family tree – just started taking down things as they were told to me and then finally the information concerning Robert and Nancy Dallas was handed to me by a relative. Then simply because I had this information dating back to the Rev. War, I was asked to be a charter member of the DAR Chapter in Martin.

I'm very glad to share what I have with you. One thing I have not been able to figure out, and you might be able to do this for me, is who are the people (sheet enclosed, marked in red) as listed in the Dallas Bible. Someone had penciled in on copy taken from the book that they are the children of Terry H. and Polly Anthony Boaz, but this isn't true as they are listed on p. 331 (excerpt from the book). Anyway, these names are very foreign to any of us, and they very well could be from your line as the Bible might initially have belonged to Robert and Nancy.

Do you have information concerning any of the other lines? I would so very much to know the parents of Robert Dallas. I have wondered if the name "Hardin" might have been his mother's maiden name as this name has been used on down the line, and even have wondered if Terry H. was actually Terry Hardin.

I met a person recently by the name of Dallas Hardin and I told him that was a family name. He said his folks came from North Carolina. Then I received your letter from N.C. If you know anything about the trek of any of the lines from Va. to other parts, I would surely like to hear.

Odd thing is, there have never been any other Dallas's in this area other than our own family.

It was very nice hearing from you.

Sincerely

Marie Allison

Mrs. Harry C. Allison

It interest me very much how each generation reached back to its own family for given names. My mother seems to have been the first to break tradition.

Dear Mr. Dallas

26 Dec. 1975

Glad to have your letter. I've gotten the Dallas history into an envelope and in a couple of days it will be on its way back. Many thanks for letting me see it and again, I'm sorry I took so long.

Since my card I have found a census record you will like. Long ago a correspondent in Tenn., Daisy Mars (who has Agnes Dallas probably a daughter of the first Joshua) sent me data of a Robert Dallas. She said it was Marion Co. Tenn. And had the page and district and said the names were just horrible to read and very odd. I ordered the film and they weren't there. (For some reason this happens quite a bit to Daisy) And so we just let it ride. Last Week I looked in the 1850 index of Tenn. And realized the Robert listed was the one we had such a time with and he was from Macon County. It fit the data sent to me by O.C. Dallas brother, Freely Dallas and hence the line of Stephen. (I must tell Daisy so she doesn't think she flipped out.)

This index just gives the birthplaces of the first two people:

1850 Macon Co., Tenn.

Dallas	Robert	44	b Tenn.
	Rebecca	37	b Tenn.
	Sophinia E.	19
	Wm. M.	18
	Sylvinia E.	17
	Pernecia L.	15	(Bernice in Freeley's records)
	Finella J.D.	13
	Lafayette	12
	Stephen R.	9
	Thomas B.	5
	Charles M.	4
	Rebecca A.C.	1

Looking back at 2005 for Carol, Hamp and Mary-Margaret Rasco:

Yes, it is actually Carol Rasco sending holiday greetings, something I have not done with any regularity over the last 13 years since moving to Washington. Here is a brief update on the Rasco trio.

As Hamp expresses it, he was "promoted" earlier in the fall by moving to downtown Little Rock to the Arkansas Department of Human Services. This was due to the merger of the Arkansas Health Department and the Arkansas Department of Human Services; the department is now DHHS. He has been in the mailroom at the Health Dept. since the fall of 1993 (what?!) so this was an exciting move for him to go where he is learning new names and faces and seeing a few familiar faces from earlier years when he would visit state government departments with me. The police scanner, the phone and Friday afternoon outings after a long week at work are still favorite activities for Hamp as well as his faithful attendance and involvement at First United Methodist Church. Hamp loves to receive picture postcards and has an album now where he places them. He says in 2006 he wants to see how many he can receive that show state capitol buildings. If you have a chance to drop him a card it can be sent to Hamp Rasco, 11805 Fairview Road, Little Rock, AR 72212.

Mary-Margaret moved to Little Rock in late spring after three years in Charlotte, North Carolina in the investment banking business. She is now working at Stephens, Inc. and becoming reacquainted with friends in Little Rock and involved in the life of the community. I still go to Arkansas at least once a month; it is great having both children in the same town. Daddy Barnes Hampton often joins me in Little Rock on my visits there with the children.

he graduated from the University of Virginia in 2002.
In addition to Arkansas visits I stay busy at Reading Is Fundamental where we just celebrated our 39th birthday and launched a year long celebration of our 40th anniversary; keep up with us at www.rif.org. I spend leisure time on the eastern shore of Maryland or the hills of Virginia and this summer visited the Moosehead Lake area in northern Maine. I recently enjoyed a trip to Argentina combining business and leisure.... friendly people, good food, and incredible bargains! If you find you are going to Argentina, please be in touch with me, I can provide some current tips.

I extend to all an invitation to contact me if you find you will be visiting the Washington area; I've listed my contact information. I also note my unit number (368) at home above on the stationery as I know it is confusing for those of you who wonder if I know my unit number. I have indeed lived in three different units at the Howard Street address.

Here is to all of you, your family and your friends a wish for a special year in 2006, one of personal as well as world peace.

Fondly,
Carol

Dear John,

Dear John,

My name is Joe David Dallas and I live in Paducah, Kentucky. My father is Freeman Burnham Dallas who is a first cousin to Marie Cavender Allison. Marie gave me your name and encouraged me to write concerning information and direction on the Dallas family history.

I've read much of your correspondence with Marie and found it very interesting. I'm most interested in obtaining copies of the Wills and Deeds you mentioned of Robert Dallas. Do you know if Xerox copies are available from the courthouse upon request? If so do you have information as the address and cost?

I hope to make a trip to Virginia this spring to take pictures of tombstones and land marks. I'm also anxious to obtain any other information on the Dallas family possible.

There has not been much effort in this part of the country to document the Dallas family records. I hope to change that but I am a novice at this type of work.

I would be happy to help you with any questions you have about members of the Dallas family in western Kentucky. It may take me awhile to track some information down but as result of seeing what you have been able to do I plan to get started.

Hope to hear from you in the near future.

Dear Marie,

I have been aiming to drop you a few lines, but we have been working with our garden for the last several months and this, with work and my research on family history, there never seems to be enough time for answering letters or dropping a few lines.

Still working on the Dallas family history and keep coming up with new information that updates what I have. Eventually I expect to have a fairly complete history of our family. I have several copies of my work now made up for lending, but they are all presently all lent out. When I get one back, I will lend it to you to read, if you would like. Let know if you would like to borrow it.

Found out that the Public Library at Danville has a census for Pittsylvania County and plan on going there in the near future to research it. I am sure there will be information there relating to our ancestors.

Also enclosed you will find a deed for Terry and Polly Dallas. Thought you might be interested in this. Found this on a visit to the Courthouse in Chatham, Virginia.

One time you sent me several sheets from the "The Wilford-Willford Families." On page 329, it starts to tell about the Boaz family. I was wondering if you can make me a copy of page 330 if you have it. There is a copy of the book at the N.C. State Library, Raleigh, N.C., but have not been able to get down there to see it.

Nice to hear from you

sincerely

Dear Mr. Keatts,

Recently I visited with Mrs. J.W. Dallas of Dry Fork and she said that you know where the old Arthur Dallas home had been located. I am hoping that you might be able to furnish me the information as to where the site is. Also she said that you had the books for Sugartree Church. Does it list the members back to when the church was founded? I am very much interested in the history of Sugartree church and the names of the Dallas's that belonged to it.

The names James "Buck" Dallas has come up very often. I understand that he was a preacher in the Sugartree area and also he was buried at Sugartree church or in the area.

Would appreciate hearing from you on these items if you have any information.

Sincerely
John T. Dallas

Jeff

As always it is good to hear of someone working on a family history in Pittsylvania County. I did most of my work from 1974 to 1984 and picked up again somewhere around 2000. I was close to being a charter member of the society and have been a member the last few years. I do believe the Sugartree article should be published as there is no written records of the church I could find. I visited the Keatts family several times who live several miles from Sugartree Church. They had quite a few of the association meeting programs and gave me several on the meetings held at Sugartree. I would be glad to donate several to the Society. The Keatts wanted me to get involved with their church so I got out of a situation that I did not want to get into. I think that we need more articles such as this in our publication. I not sure I like the way the publication is headed.

James B. "Buck" Buchanan was the son of Arthur G. Dallas. Arthur G. Dallas was the brother of my great-great-great grandfather, Merideth Dallas who married Sarah "Sallie" Blair (everyone has a Blair in their Family). Merideth had a son, James J Dallas who married Mary Denima Settle and they moved to Rockingham County around 1856. Elder James Bell of Sugartree married a cousin of James "Buck" Dallas. His wife who I cannot recall her name was a daughter of Jabez L. Dallas, a brother to Merideth and Arthur G. Dallas. The old Dallas cemetery was just below the homeplace which was located down the road beside the present day Sugartree Church. Mr. Robert Blair in 1974 stood at the church with me and said that Permelia Dallas (daughter of Arthur G) Green was buried in the Cemetery. I asked him how he knew since there were no marked graves there. He said that he helped dig the grave. Also her husband, Madison "Matt" Green is buried there

The Inman married, if I remember correctly Robert Frank Dallas of the Spring Garden Community. As for Beck's I do not remember doing anything on the family, but could have.

I have worked on the Dallas, Blair, Grubb, Breedlove, Burnett and Settle families of Pittsylvania County. There were three of us at one time working on 3 of the Blair lines. I was working on James Blair (my ggggrandfather, Luke Gardner (now deceased) was working on Elder William Blair and Otey Blair (now deceased) was working on Samuel Blair of near Rondo. We have found the graves of these three brothers. I believe that I have an article concerning Elder William Blair which would be good for publication. There are many of my works in the Society room at the at the Library in Danville. The son of Samuel Blair, Sidney Blair was murdered in Rockingham County and Sidney's body was returned to Rondo to be buried at the old Samuel Blair homeplace. The man that murdered him was the last man hanged in Rockingham County. This was included in my booklet "Hanging in Rockingham" which I donated to the Society and suggested that the article be published, but it has not. Also I have a book "Murder's in Rockingham" done, but cannot release at this time. I am working on a second volume and hope to have them on the shelf at the society room at some date.

Now to get back to your original question, would I correspond with you. That would be great. I live near Greensboro. We could meet sometime if you would like. Maybe you can furnish more on Sugartree to add to the information that I have and we would rewrite the story. I am 65 years old and still work on Monday and Tuesdays. We are planning on going to Orlando, FL. for the next week or so.

Henry Dallas who just passed away at 85 years, lived at Dry Fork and we made many visits to see him and his mother, Fannie Fuller Dallas. He was a descendant of Jabez Leftwich Dallas and they helped us with much research in Pittsylvania County.

26 March 2005 (Easter)

Hunter Robertson and I took a ride to Pittsylvania County, Virginia to see some old graveyards that I had visited 30 years ago. Most of the cemeteries contained Dallas relatives who were my ancestors. We went to Danville where we bought gas at $2.05 a gallon. We then took the Mt. Cross road to Sharon. At Sharon we cut left and went to Sharon Way. We went down Sharon way and saw the old Drury Blair home which is probably over 150 years old. We did not locate the Drury Blair Cemetery on the right hand side of Sharon Way. It could have been graded over.

We returned to Sharon and went west on Mt. Cross road. We reached Stitch road and turned right and went to the James Blair Cemetery. There was no one at home so we did not enter the property, but we could see the wire fence that surrounds some graves that are adjacent to the James Blair graves. James Blair who died in 1840 is buried here with his two wives on either side of him.

The next stop was the graves of J.J. Dallas (son of Jabez Leftwich Dallas) and another grave that I cannot recall exactly who. These two graves are located at the side of a house at the intersection of Hinesville Road (SR 844) and Mt. Cross Road (SR 845). There was a man in the yard that we talked to. From there we went west on Hinesville road to the old Henry Clay Dallas home. Behind this home is located the Jabez L. Dallas cemetery where he and his wife Elizabeth Wells Dallas are buried plus several more members of his family. There was a lady in a mobile home at the location that gave us permission to go on the property to the cemetery. The Cemetery is enclosed by a metal fence.

Then we went from there to Sugartree Church Road where Sugartree Primitive Baptist is located. There are two marked graves at Sugartree Church. One is a Searce and the other is Steven A. Holland (8 September 1883 – 8 Jan 1936). The church is located on land from the original 248 acre tract Robert Dallas that he bought when he and his wife, Nancy moved from Bedford County to this section around the year 1800. The old Dallas home site and Cemetery are located nearby. A brick house now stands on the site of the old Dallas home. The old Dallas road which has been renamed Keatts Lane. James B. "Buck" Dallas, according to church records, was clerk and later pastor at this church. His son, Silas J. B. Dallas who later moved to Headland, AL. was the preacher for some time at Sugartree. Robert Dallas died in 1839 and his wife, Nancy (Turner) Dallas died in 1848. They are both probably buried in the old Dallas Cemetery which is located (1974) in a clump of trees just below the old house site.

Hunter Robertson said:

"Your grandfather, Frank Dallas was quite a story teller and talker. He always liked to be at a gathering of people to talk to and tell stories to the group. He would go to a barn raising and the people there would gather around him to hear his story telling and talking. Then who ever was having the barn raising would want to know where his help had gone to. They were, of course listening to the story telling of Frank Dallas. Mr. Frank would also walk to the old Jarrell place on Sunday morning to visit with Uncle Johnny and Joe Jarrell. Joe had an old radio they would listen to and all three enjoyed talking to each other. About night fall, Frank Dallas would say he better get on home and walk back to home on Fishing Creek.”

“We were living on the old Nancy Moore Place near Bethlehem Church which was owned at the time by Jim Ratliffe. Mr. Ratliffe asked my father, Dewey Robertson to build him a tobacco barn and he would pay him $25.00. I was about 10 years old and one of my brothers was few years older and one a few years younger. Our father took us to the site where the trees had to be cut for the logs for the barn. The barn would need 52 logs, 13 on each side. Our father notched the trees on the side they needed to fall toward, and left us to cut the trees down and into the lengths that were needed for the barn. Our father then came back and snaked the logs to the barn site with a mule where a barn raising was held to build the tobacco barn. We hauled the cap rock (Soapstone) from the old Mitchell place for the flues.

3 March 1983 – Henry Dallas called me and said he had been to a funeral at Axton, Virginia. He said that a Rev. Collins from Whitmell Christian Church officiated at the funeral. He asked Rev. Collins about the Burnett family. Rev. Collins said the wife of J. Guy Hopkins of Draper was a Burnett from Axton and he had heard them say that they were related to the Dallas's. (Rev. Collins is related to the Burnett's thru the Hailey's). Also Rev. Collins told Henry Dallas about a graveyard on State Road 612 in Henry County leading toward Pittsylvania County. Thomas Burnett and his wife Roxie are buried there (Hailey Cemetery).

Nancy Orivton Dallas daughter of Jabez Leftwich Dallas and Elizabeth Wells was born 28 Feb 1828 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. She married Byrd D. Burnett on 12 November 1849 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. She died 28 September 1920 at Leatherwood, Henry County, Virginia. She is buried at the Jabez Leftwich Dallas Cemetery at Hinesville, Virginia.

21 March 1983 – Talked to Mrs. Guy Hopkins on the telephone. She said that Mrs. Hairfield had broken her hip and was in the hospital. She said the old Burnett home place was located above Axton near Greenwood Church. The Cemetery is located on a hill near the old home place. Several of the Burnetts were buried there. She said Rev. Edwin Collins lived close to the Greenwood Church. He is about 75 years old. She said that her Grandma Burnett lived to be about 100 years old. She was bed ridden the last years of her life.

22 March 1983 – I talked to Rev. Collins by telephone. He said to come up some afternoon and he would take me to the old Burnett home place. Nancy O. Burnett was known as old “Miss Burnett”. The old Burnett home place is near the cemetery. Rev. Collins lives about 1 ½ miles above Greenwood Church. H said he knew where the Rogers Cemetery is located. Daniel Rogers and his wife are buried there. Daniel Rogers had only one arm as he had lost the other arm in Pickett’s charge at Gettysburg in 1863. Two of Daniel Roger’s children were Sam and Will Rogers. Sam Rogers had a son, Walter Rogers who lives near Rev. Collins.

16 April 1983 – Went to see Rev. W.E. Collins this afternoon who lives near the old Nancy O. Burnett place in Henry County, Virginia. We walked to the site of the old home place. We went just below Rev. Collins Home and went out a dirt road to a Mountain Knoll on the right of the dirt road where these two graves are located:

John J. Burnett	9 Jun 1872 – 16 Sep 1941
S.B. Burnett	1959 – 1926

The dirt road leads off State Road 647. After we found the graves, we continued on beyond and down the mountain to a branch where there was some bottom land located. We found the foundation of the old Burnett Barn. Rev. Collins told me about John Burnett sitting in front of the barn and of the fine tobacco that he cured at this barn. Then a short distance away we found the foundation to the old house. Rev. Collins said that he came as this was the last time he would ever see it. He got winded on the walk and we made frequent rest stops to help him regain his strength. There are two chimneys standing made of rock. On the arch of the kitchen fireplace, the year 1864 was etched in the stone. The place had been owned by the Hairfields before Nancy Burnett bought the place. There were a large number of buttercups and white flowering shrubs growing near the site.

Then we continued on to the old spring which is located just west of the old house. Rev. Collins told me about swapping work with old John Burnett. He said that Betty Burnett never cooked on a stove, but always cooked in the fireplace. Rev. Collins said he could remember the good sweet potato pudding she made.

The old Daniel Rogers home and cemetery are located within one mile of Bethlehem Church near Sandy River. It is west of the church. Henry Thompson lives close by and he could tell the directions to the old home place and cemetery.

Rev. Collins said that Tom Burnett raised some of the best Watermelons around. Someone mentioned to him that no ever stole any of his watermelons. He said the reason for that was that he always gave them away.

Rev. Collins said that thought that Nancy O. Burnett was buried at the old Dallas Cemetery in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Tommy Burnett told Rev. Collins that his father had been in the Civil War under General Euell and was captured with him. He did not get paroled until July of 1865. The boys were laying the corn by when he returned from the war.

In 1941, Rev. Collins and John Burnett were planning on taking tobacco to market one day. Rev. Collins was sent for by Mrs. Burnett. He went and found John Burnett dead at the pig pen. He said that John Burnett was laying there with a smile on his face and the pigs were still eating corn around him. In 1914, Tom Burnett was the superintendent of the Sunday School at Bethlehem Church.

Also went to the Hundley Cemetery located on SR 619 off Hwy 57 between Martinsville and Chatham:

Ernest S. Hundley	1898 – 1983
Cecil Stuart Hundley	1922 – 1982
Nancy S. Wife of W.W. Hundley	29 Oct 1819 – 2 Jun 1892
W.W. Hundley	10 Dec 1810 – 27 Dec 1894
Susan E. Hundley	9 Apr 1848 – 25 Sep 1928

(Rev. Collins father helped dig this grave)

Calvin Cassade is the son of Susie Cassade. The live at Rt.2, Axton, Virginia. Walter Rogers also lives on, Rt. 2, Axton. Mary Susie Cassade husband was Ellis Cassade. Her father was Daniel Hundley and she has a son named Elmer. Dallas and Ernest Hundley were brothers of Susie Cassade. Ernest has a son, Douglas Hundley who lives in Maryland.

John Rodgers was a brother of Sam Rodgers. He was a mail carrier and died in North Carolina. Rev. Collins saw him thirty years ago. Sam's children were _____, Charlie and Walter. Will Rodgers never married.

Rev. Collins wife is a sister to Sally Wilson Burnett, wife of John Burnett. Rev. Collins was a twin to Roxie Hailey Burnett.

TRIBUTE PAID DECEASED AT DALLAS REUNION

Fine Personality And Christian Character Of C.L. Dallas Jr. Greatly Missed By Family

At the Dallas family reunion held at Mt. Hermon church on the Leaksville-Reidsville road recently the following sketch was read as a tribute to the late Charles L. Dallas Jr., who met an accidental death by drowning last summer.

“The untimely death of Charles L. Dallas Jr. during the past summer came as a shock to the family and brought sorrow to all his relatives and friends. From the large number of young men and women of the Dallas family who served in the armed forces during World War II he was the first to be claimed by death. Because of his fine personality and solid Christian character he had endeared himself to all who knew him.

“Charles L. Dallas Jr, better known as ‘C.L.’ was born February 24, 1918. At the age of seven he joined the Leaksville Presbyterian church. His fine background of home training had fitted him for the experience and from the very beginning of his church affiliation he took his new obligations seriously, attending church and Sunday school services regularly. As a small boy he saved his Sunday school papers and bound them with covers into book form. His parents now prize this possession as they keep it in memory of his childhood interest in religious matters.

“Later in life he transferred his church membership to the Reidsville Presbyterian church. There, in the young’s people group and the other church activities, he continued to carry on an ardent worker for the Christian religion.

“He finished High School at Leaksville in 1937, then went with Wilkerson’s Funeral Home to take apprentice training in embalming. He later attended the Gupton-Jones School of Embalming, Nashville, Tenn. from which he graduated in 1939. He soon passed the State Board of Examiners and returned to Wilkerson’s in Reidsville.

“He entered the Armed Forces of the United States on June 21, 1941, serving with the Army Medical Corps until his discharge from the service on January 15, 1946. His overseas service was in the Pacific area. Following his discharge from the service he returned in his former job in Reidsville.

“The Dallas family at the first reunion since the recent war paused to pay tribute to a deceased World War II veteran and to a fine young member of the family whose Christian character held every promise of much useful service in the years to come. Although, God saw fit to call him away from his duties here in this world to his reward in heaven, he had already wrought well during his comparatively short life and his splendid example and influence will live on in the hearts and lives of his relatives and friends.”

Thomas Addresses Reidsville Kiwanis
Marshall Field Personnel Director Describes Work

REIDSVILLE, Dec 13 – J.O. Thomas, of Leaksville head of the personnel department of Marshall Field Mills, addressed the Kiwanis club of Reidsville at their club supper last night. Thomas spoke on the problems and benefits of personnel work. He told how Marshall Field had started its vocational training department in 1919 at the instigation of Luther Hodges, the Rockingham county boy who is now general manager of the enormous Field interests and how the company founded its personnel department a year later.

The personnel director pointed out examples showing how these departments both began in the classification of personnel work, had helped create better relations between employer and employees and increased efficiency in the organization. He also described the recently set up medical department for the care of employees in the Leaksville township mills and outlined briefly the objectives of the Field Personnel department in 1941.

T.W. Bridgers, director of the vocational training department at Spray, was also a guest of the local club at this meeting. Thomas was introduced by Kiwanian Roy Blaylock of the city.

Penn Hospital Site At Reidsville Chosen
Mr. Penn Plans To Spend About $150,000 On The Proposed Building
It Will Be A Memorial

REIDSVILLE, May 14, 1921 - The Genevieve Penn Memorial Hospital will be located on the Salem Church hill, a short distance west of Reidsville – This decision after much consideration has just been reached by the donor, Jefferson Penn.

Mr. Penn was accompanied to Reidsville by R.F. Pinner, landscape architect of Buffalo, who was brought along to help Mr. Penn to select the most plausible, practical site for the hospital. Mr. Pinner, who is a graduate landscape architect both in America and France, is now arranging a drawing of the proposed hospital and landscaping garden.

Mr. Penn plans to spend something like $150,000 on the proposed building. He will dedicate two of the rooms - one to his father, the late Frank Reid Penn and one to his mother, Mrs. Annie Spencer Penn.

DEATH OF MR. DALLAS

William W. Dallas, well known resident of Rockingham County, died January 3rd, 1930, following a short illness. Mr. Dallas had been accidentally burned when he fell from a stroke of paralysis a few days before his death. Mr. Dallas was born February 21, 1857 making his stay on earth a total of 72 years, 10 months and 18 days. He is survived by his wife, three sons, T.G. Dallas, J.S. Dallas, and A.W. Dallas, all of Reidsville; three daughters, Mrs. H.W. Knight, Reidsville, Mrs. H.L. Knight of Summerfield and Miss Mozelle Dallas, Greensboro and thirteen grandchildren. Two children, Harry and Cecil died several years ago. Other surviving relatives include are three brothers, Houston Dallas, Reidsville, Souter Dallas, Draper and Frank Dallas, Leaksville; three sisters, Miss Sallie Dallas, Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Tom Robertson of near Leaksville.

Mr. Dallas joined Bethlehem Methodist Church in his early life and was a consistent Christian all his life. The funeral service was held Saturday at Glencoe church. Rev. J.C. Gillespie was in charge of the funeral service. Interment was made in the church graveyard. The pallbearers were nephews of the deceased and were Charlie Dallas, William Dallas, Glenn Dallas, Russell Dallas, and J.O. Thomas and Edgar Thomas. The floral offering were numerous and beautiful.

James Fulton Dallas

James Fulton Dallas was born May 19th, 1852 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia and departed this life March 7, 1922, at his home in Rockingham Co., N.C. being 68 years, nine months and 18 days of age. He was married Nov. 27, 1878 to Miss Sallie D. Burton, and theirs was a happy married life. To them were born eight children - three sons and five daughters - namely; Mrs. J.W. Mitchell, and Mrs. J.R. Fretwell of Ahoskie, N.C.; Mrs. Meadow Moore, Mrs. Ernest Jarrell and Mrs. Alex Williams of Rockingham County. These all survive.

Twenty four years ago the beloved mother and wife was called from this world to her home above, leaving her husband with a large family of children. No doubt it was in answer to the prayer of the dying wife and mother that her husband and all her children became Christians. For he was converted shortly after the death of his wife and joined Bethlehem Methodist Church, where he was a faithful attendant until his health began to fail three years ago.

In April 1900, he was married to miss Nannie J. Burton, who has been a faithful and loving wife until his death. No step-mother could have taken the place of the mother better than she did. She was ready to comfort and cheer him through mutual trials and troubles of life, and wait on him patiently and tenderly through the three years of declining health. Mr. Dallas was kind and devoted husband and father. He was admired for his modesty in manner and neatness in dress. He was a hard worker, providing well for the needs and comforts of his family.

My Aunt Jessie said that John's father was Joshua! We have not proof on this as far as I know! Do you know anything about Joshua?
